Return Of Tiddles:

Do Evil in Return Margaret Millar, 2017-11-07 Charlotte Keating a doctor and woman of independent means is slowly pulled into a shadowy realm of violence and desperation after she investigates the suspicious death of a young woman she had recently declined to provide an illegal abortion After Charlotte Charley Keating turns away a patient seeking an abortion she struggles with the ethical quandaries of such an act As a feminist she would have liked to help the young girl in trouble but as a doctor with a practice and other patients counting on her she doesn't feel like she can risk breaking the law for a complete stranger When the poor girl turns up dead Charley's entire life is thrown into chaos Perhaps Margaret Millar's most controversial book and certainly among her best Do Evil in Return is a meticulously plotted and suspenseful meditation on abortion and the hypocrisy of the laws governing a woman's body Millar may be known as the Grande Dame of domestic suspense but this brutal tale of a doctor hell bent on uncovering the truth puts her in line with noir luminaries like David Goodis and Jim Thompson

Bodies for Sale Stephen Wilkinson, 2004-07-31 Bodies for Sale Ethics and Exploitation in the Human Body Trade explores the philosophical and practical issues raised by activities such as surrogacy and organ trafficking Stephen Wilkinson asks what is it that makes some commercial uses of the body controversial whether the arguments against commercial exploitation stand up and whether legislation outlawing such practices is really justified In Part One Wilkinson explains and analyses some of the notoriously slippery concepts used in the body commodification debate including exploitation harm and consent In Part Two he focuses on three controversial issues the buying and selling of human kidneys commercial surrogacy and DNA patenting outlining contemporary regulation and investigating both the moral issues and the arguments for legal prohibition

Mind Games Richard Payne, 2012-07-24 After a difficult youth David Carter had become an excellent journalist for the Guardian Whilst working full time he met a young woman named Susan and they were preparing to get married David was born with epilepsy and as he was growing up many people tormented him because of this condition He had wonderful family support when he was a child and as he grew up through school and college Eventually his life settled down and he studied for a career in journalism After many years of health difficulties his dream came true and at last everything in his life appeared calm and tranquil One day near Easter David's brother Matthew asked him if he would like to spend a weekend with him in Cardiff having already booked the rooms at a bed and breakfast During their weekend it was revealed that David had been adopted when he was just three and a half years old David was horrified and though he did not want to he felt that it was his duty as an undercover journalist to find out more about his real mother He found his mother living in a small flat in Milton Keynes and though she did not want to speak with him he forced his way in There she revealed more about his real upbringing The news horrified David even more and turned his settled life upside down confusing him and aggravating his epilepsy His life changed yet again when he was involved in a car crash Some people believed hed suffered an epileptic attack at the steering wheel but there was no evidence to prove this He was taken to hospital seriously injured and in a coma He remained there for several months until eventually he slowly opened his eyes and began his recovery Again he seemed a changed man only wanting to live a life of peace and love with everybody This change amazed and delighted Susan and they made final preparations for their wedding and a new beginning
