Reverie For Mister Ray A:

Michael Bishop and the Persistence of Wonder Joe Sanders, 2022-02-23 Since they began appearing in the 1970s Michael Bishop's science fiction and fantasy stories have been recognized for their polished prose and their depth of thought and feeling. His award-winning fiction includes No Enemy but Time 1982, Unicorn Mountain 1988, Brittle Innings 1994 and the outstanding short story The Pile 2008. After the 2017 publication of his collection Other Arms Reach Out to Me Bishop was inducted into the Georgia Writers Hall of Fame. This book is the first comprehensive study of Michael Bishop's literary body, examining his work in full. drowned She was a fair swimmer and cautious for all her youth And even if she had gone back in the water and got into distress we were so close we could have heard at once any call she made But she was gone Vanished No boat had landed that could have taken her That was impossible without our seeing it over that reach of empty sea I recall our frantic search Then at last Drake and I alone frantically rowed back home to tell father It was like a dream of horror Father s white solemn face He never once reproached Drake or me He telephoned the village Then came another trip to the island in a launch with grave faced men But Dianne was never found We brought back her clothes that lay untouched there by the underbrush at the beach I could not look at them but went into my bedroom and lay on the bed and sobbed It was the first tragedy that life had brought me Night had fallen when Drake came to me He leaned over me sympathetically Take it easy kid His own face was white and drawn he loved Dianne as much as I did but he was older more stoical Father wants to see us Frank Get hold of yourself His arm went around my shoulder and I huddled against him Take it easy wash your face and come on down It was about Dianne father had something to tell us We faced him in the living room He closed its doors Sit down lads It may have been in Drake s thoughts certainly it was in mine that now father was about to blame us I had felt those hours sobbing on the bed that somehow I was to blame That incident in the water when I had annoyed Dianne about her hair wild thoughts swept me that I had annoyed her and she had committed suicide I had already told father about it told him in the launch He had listened and waved it away He sat facing us now a slender solemn man of fifty with iron gray hair and thin studious face His eyes behind his big horn rimmed spectacles seemed unnaturally bright but gentle He said Don t look at me like that lads I ve no intention of reproaching you And then he told us in a burst without preface what we had never suspected You were about two years old Frank and you Drake about eight It was the year before your mother died She and I went to Bird s Nest Island leaving you children at home This same island A summer day he said just about like this We went for a picnic just as you did today It was fifteen years ago We were wandering about the little island your mother and I We heard a wailing cry an infant s In a thicket we found a little girl baby Unharmd An infant about a year old who evidently had been asleep and now had awakened and was crying There was no boat in sight about this island We concluded that some one had been there abandoned the baby and departed We took the baby home No one ever came to claim her It was Dianne
