Something Has to Happen Next andrew michael roberts,2009-03 The poems in something has to happen next if given the chance might peer down inquisitively from a great height they speak of quietness namelessness the reachlessness of love the fortune of animals and their silence apocalypse abandonment beginnings and endings Working with brevity and compression Andrew Michael Roberts first imagines how small he can go with a poem and still maintain some sort of emotional or imagistic center Then released from this limitation the rest of his playful unexpected poems expand to fill a world with imagery emotion and sound What Roberts calls simply a book of small poems grew out of his obsessions with time and catastrophe and love and abandonment what is always possible almost attained but lost at the last minute When something ends or when everything ends something else must always happen next what will it be and who will be there to name and love and destroy it
