Revisions Towards A Sociology Of Gender And Sexuality In Late Modernity:

Revisions Lisa Adkins, 2002 In so doing it puts forward a distinctive thesis namely that within late modernity gender and sexuality are being reworked in terms of categories of reflexivity and risk It shows that this reworking places increasing significance on issues of mobility and identity in late modernity It therefore outlines the politics of mobility in regard to identity suggesting that mobility is an important but often neglected source of power in late modernity Revisions gender and sexuality in late modernity will be essential reading for advanced undergraduates research students and academics working in the fields of feminist theory social theory sociology women s studies and cultural studies Jacket Encyclopedia of Social Theory Austin Harrington, Barbara L. Marshall, Hans-Peter Müller, 2006 The Encyclopedia of Social Theory contains over 500 entries varying from concise definitions of key terms and short biographies of key theorists to comprehensive surveys of leading concepts debates themes and schools The object of the Encyclopedia has been to give thorough coverage of the central topics in theoretical sociology as well as terms and concepts in the methodology and philosophy of social science Although 106 theorists are given entries the emphasis of the work is on the elucidation of ideas rather than intellectual biography The Encyclopedia covers the leading contemporary domains of debate on social theory and the classical legacies of social thinkers from the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries giving proper balance to both the European and North American traditions and to important new developments in the global self understanding of sociology Social theory has become one of the most vigorous specialisms of sociology in recent years This is in part due to the considerable overlaps of social theory with other disciplinary areas such as cultural and media studies anthropology and political theory and to the cross disciplinary nature of theoretical approaches such as feminism and psychoanalysis and new fields such as postcolonial studies The editors have therefore worked to produce in the Encyclopedia of Social Theory a first call reference for students and researchers across the social sciences and humanities with an interest in contemporary theory and the modern history of ideas The Encyclopedia has been authored by leading international specialists in the field under the direction of a well balanced editorial team It is comprehensively cross referenced and all larger entries carry bibliographies There is a full index

East Asian Sexualities Stevi Jackson, Jieyu Liu, Juhyun Woo, 2013-07-18 This book paints a vivid picture of women s active involvement in reshaping intimate and public sexual life in East Asia In bringing together exciting new feminist research on sexuality from East Asia and making it available to a wider audience East Asian Sexualities unsettles stereotypes rectifies lack of awareness and demonstrates that East Asia matters The chapters address the diversity and variety of everyday sexual lives and sexual politics in China Hong Kong Taiwan Korea and Japan They range from workplace sexual cultures trans national sexual relations the conditions of sex work and the emergence of new sexual desires cultures and movements The contributors highlight the gendered and sexual consequences of globalization and rapid social change In doing so they engage with western debates on late modernity while also exploring the contested understandings of modernization and westernization in the East This is a collection which illuminates the local situations in which women s sexual lives are lived and offers fresh perspectives on global issues Late Modernity, Individualization and Socialism M. Dawson,2013-05-14 Influenced most notably by mile Durkheim and Zygmunt Bauman Dawson outlines how this long neglected stream of socialist theory can help us more fully understand and possibly move beyond the problems of neoliberalism and our conceptions of political individualism Bourdieu and Affect Threadgold, Steven,2020-07-29 Steven Threadgold s study represents the first comprehensive engagement of Pierre Bourdieu s influential sociology with affect theory With empirical research and examples from sociology it develops a theory of Affective Affinities deepening our understanding of how everyday moments contribute to the construction and remaking of social class and aspects of inequalities It identifies new ways to consider the strengths and weaknesses of Bourdieusian principles and their interaction with new developments in social theory This is a stimulating read for students researchers and academics across studies in youth education labour markets pop culture media consumption and taste Qualitative Research in Action Tim May,2002-04-22 Rather than being a how to book this volume examines the ideas and practices of qualitative research in terms of their applicability for an understanding and explanation of the place of qualitative research in the social sciences Consuming Football in Late Modern Life Kevin Dixon,2016-05-23 Consuming Football in Late Modern Life explores the phenomenon of football soccer fandom as consumption in the age of late modernity By centralising fandom within the sociology of consumption the book examines how this phenomenon equates to a fluid series of consumption activities that are practiced in the course of everyday life In turn the work departs from much of the existing literature that features exceptional properties of fanatical fans in order to emphasise the position that seemingly trivial acts of consumption can have a profound influence on the construction maintenance and evolution of football fandom cultures Containing up to date research findings derived from a programme of interviews with a sample of football fans Kevin Dixon examines the social emotional economic and technological implications of consumption as fans participate in and respond to the demands of consumer life Contagion Alison Bashford,Claire Hooker,2002-11-01 In the age of HIV antibiotic resistant bacteria the Ebola Virus and BSE metaphors and experience of contagion are a central concern of government biomedicine and popular culture Contagion explores cultural responses of infectious diseases and their biomedical management over the nineteenth and twentieth centuries It also investigates the use of contagion as a concept in postmodern reconceptualisations of embodied subjectivity The essays are written from within the fields of cultural studies biomedical history and critical sociology The contributors examine the geographies policies and identities which have been produced in the massive social effort to contain diseases They explore both social responses to infectious diseases in the past and contemporary theoretical and biomedical sites for the study of contagion Sexuality, Gender and Power Anna G. Jónasdóttir,Valerie Bryson,Kathleen B. Jones,2011 Including studies of the sexual self and sexual subjectivities socio political processes of normativization and social structures of sexuality and gender in national and transnational contexts this book offers a view of sexuality as a broad and complex dimension of historically changing social cultural and human material reality EBL Gender and Labour in New Times Lisa Adkins, Maryanne Dever, 2018-02-02 This book is concerned with the gender order of post Fordism and especially the labour demanded from many women by post Fordist capitalism It maps and traces these demands as well their entanglement in complex processes of value creation In so doing the contributors elaborate how processes of financialization calls for work readiness new modes of economic calculation processes of economization and emergent regulatory strategies are reconfiguring labour and life in post Fordism and summoning new forms of women s work Contributors also map how these same processes are repositioning feminism especially feminism as a mode of critique Feminism here stands not in an external relation to the objects and matters it seeks to critique but as implicated in those very objects In mapping this terrain Gender and Labour in New Times opens out new feminist research agendas for the study of the post Fordist labour and the modes of regulation that post Fordism as a regime of capital accumulation entails This book was originally published as a special issue of Australian Feminist Studies

Sociological Social Work Priscilla Dunk-West, Fiona Verity, 2016-04-01 Sociological social work is a lifelong social work practice which is animated by a sociological perspective Social workers shorthand orientations such as strengths perspective task centred or humanistic to name but a few as a way to identify their philosophical and theoretical approaches in professional life Whilst some texts have examined sociology for social work this text instead proposes that sociological social work is a legitimate and theoretically rich orientation and this book demonstrates what sociological social work looks like in our rapidly changing world This text will equip students and practitioners with a way to think sociologically not just while they are studying but as an ever present reference for making sense of social work purpose and how this is realised in a transforming world This follows an established tradition in social work literature but this book elevates and names the importance of this approach which we argue is critically needed if social work is to achieve its agenda in transformative social political economic and environmental contexts The current landscape in which we live is one that is characterised by rapid changes which have implications for the life experiences of those with whom social workers work social justice advocacy agendas and for fulfilling the purpose of social work more generally This book is essential reading for those looking to keep up with these changes

The Routledge Companion to Social Theory Anthony Elliott, 2009-12-04 A collection of introductory essays by an international range of contributors giving an insightful overview of classical and contemporary social theory

Youth, Class and Everyday Struggles Steven Threadgold, 2017-09-13 The concept of everyday struggles can enliven our understanding of the lives of young people and how social class is made and remade This book invokes a Bourdieusian spirit to think about the ways young people are pushed and pulled by the normative demands directed at them from an early age whilst they reflexively understand that allegedly available incentives for making the right choices and working hard financial and familial security social status and job satisfaction are a declining prospect In Youth Class and

Everyday Struggles the figures of those classed as hipsters and bogans are used to analyse how representation works to form a symbolic and moral economy that produces and polices fuzzy class boundaries Further to this the practices of young people around DIY cultures are analysed to illustrate struggles to create a satisfying and meaningful existence while negotiating between study work and creative passions By thinking through different modalities of struggles which revolve around meaning making and identity creativity and authenticity Threadgold brings Bourdieu s sociological practice together with theories of affect emotion morals and values to broaden our understanding of how young people make choices adapt strategise succeed fail and make do Youth Class and Everyday Struggles will appeal to undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as postdoctoral researchers of fields including Youth Studies Class and Inequality Work and Careers Subcultures Media and Creative Industries Social Theory and Bourdieusian Theory Rural Young Women, Education, and Socio-Spatial Mobility Wendy Geller, 2015-10-08 Much of the literature on globalization has centered on the large macro level forces that influence the ways ideas people and various forms of capital move around the world From this vantage point discussions about the progressive feminization of migration in particular the feminization of out migration from rural areas indicate an intriguing trend Simultaneously the local experience of global forces is an important way of exploring how macro level processes are navigated by social actors on the ground This provides added texture to our understanding of why and how people make decisions about their lives within an increasingly interconnected social economic and political environment This volume explores whether concurrent patterns in identity development social relations and youth behaviors on the micro level might help explain similarities observable at the macro level Through a triangulated approach that balances between statistical backdrops extant quantitative research and in depth qualitative interviews this book theorizes about shifts in gender normativity efforts towards social mobility and the possible effects of an increasingly globalized society To do this it examines the decision making processes employed by high achieving young women from rural areas in Vermont and Leinster Ireland as they figured out who they wanted to become as adults and where they wanted to be those people Remaining mindful of structural constraints and using the lens of the psychic landscape Reay 2005 to view class as a reflexive practice this book peers into the ways certain types of identity evident among blue collar students seem to be carving out some potential for social and spatial mobility amidst both global and local trends Risks, Identities and the Everyday Julie Scott Jones, Jayne Raisborough, 2016-04-08 Risks Identities and the Everyday focuses on the individual and the lived experience of everyday risks a departure from the focus on risk from a macro level The contributors look at risk and how perceptions of risk risk taking and risk assessment increasingly dominate our everyday lives and explore it in a variety of settings not previously associated with risk theory including plastic surgery teenage sub cultures ageing and independent travel The volume moves risk away from abstract theorising about what people may or may not fear about risks to focus on how it actually materialises and operates in everyday real social interactions and contexts It also interrogates the rational self at the heart of macro social theories by thinking through the construction of risk choices and the socio cultural dynamics that present some risks as acceptable appropriate and necessary Social Games and Identity in the Higher Education Workplace Michelle Addison,2016-07-15 We all play games at work but have you ever wondered how your identity becomes bound up with game playing This book is about employees in the Higher Education workplace and it provides an interpretation of why people act the way they do at work as an expression of game playing It offers an insight into how people try to adapt and fit in at work by looking at how value is attached to certain identities through the lens of class and gender The figure of the chav the emotional woman The Grafter and Mrs Bucket are explored in detail as representations of what kinds of people are permitted or not to fit in at work These identities are topical and may even be familiar to readers but the author s analysis of them challenges why they exist what function these identities serve at work and who is able to deploy and inscribe them as part of the games people play at work Genealogies of Emotions, Intimacies, and Desire

Ann Brooks,2016-10-04 Genealogies of Emotions Intimacies and Desire excavates epistemologies which attempt to explain changes in emotional regimes from medieval society to late modernity Key in this debate is the concept of intimacy The book shows that different historical periods are characterized by emotional regimes where intimacy in the form of desire sex passion and sex largely exist outside marriage and that marriage and traditional normative values and structures are fundamentally incompatible with the expression of intimacy in the history of emotional regimes The book draws on the work of a number of theorists who assess change in emotional regimes by drawing on intimacy including Michel Foucault Eva Illouz Lauren Berlant Anthony Giddens Laura Ann Stoler Anne McClintock Niklas Luhmann and David Shumway Some of the areas covered by the book include Foucault sex and sexuality romantic and courtly love intimacy in late modernity Imperial power gender and intimacy intimacy and feminist interventions and the commercialization of intimacy This book will appeal to students and scholars in the social sciences and humanities including sociology gender studies cultural studies and literary studies From Labouring to Learning Michael R.M. Ward,2016-04-29 Highly Commended in the Society of Educational Studies Book Prize This book explores how economic changes and the growing importance of educational qualifications in a shrinking labour market particularly effects marginalized young men It follows a group of young working class men in a de industrial community and challenges commonly held representations that often appear in the media and in policy discourses which portray them as feckless out of control educational failures and lacking aspiration Ward argues that for a group of young men in a community of social and economic deprivation expectations and transitions to adulthood are framed through the industrial legacy of geographically and historically shaped class and gender codes These codes have an impact on what it means to be a man and what behaviour is deemed acceptable and what is not Emotions in Transmigration A.

Brooks,R. Simpson,2012-10-17 The book explores the intersection of emotions and migration in a number of case studies from across the USA Europe and Southeast Asia including the transmigration of female domestic workers transmigrant marriages transmigrant workers in the entertainment industry and asylum seekers and refugees who are the victims of domestic violence

Elite Authenticity Gwynne Mapes, 2021 Food plays a central role in the production of culture and is likewise a powerful resource for the representation and organization of social order Status is asserted or contested through both the materiality of food its substance its raw economics and its manufacture or preparation and through its discursivity its marketing staging and the way it is depicted and discussed This intersection of materiality and discursivity makes food an ideal site for examining the place of language in contemporary class formations and for engaging cutting edge debates in sociolinguistics on language materiality In Elite Authenticity Gwynne Mapes integrates theories of mediatization materiality and authenticity in order to explore the discursive production of elite status and class inequality in food discourse Relying on a range of methodological approaches Mapes examines restaurant reviews and articles published in the New York Times food section a collection of Instagram posts from nytfood ethnographically informed fieldwork in four renowned Brooklyn NY restaurants and a recorded dinner conversation with six food enthusiasts Across these varied genres of data she demonstrates how a discourse of elite authenticity represents a particular surfacing of rhetorical maneuvers in which distinction is orchestrated avowed disavowed and circulated Elite Authenticity takes a multimodal critical discourse analysis approach drawing on theories from linguistics food and cultural studies anthropology sociology and philosophy Its presentation and analysis of aural visual spatial material and embodied discourse will be of interest to scholars and students of communication studies critical discourse studies sociolinguistics linguistic anthropology and cultural geography
