Revival and Rebellion in Colonial Central Africa Karen E. Fields. 1985 Revival and Rebellion in Colonial Central The East African Revival Kevin Ward, 2016-03-23 From the 1930s the East African Africa Karen Elise Fields, 1997 Revival influenced Christian expression in East Central Africa and around the globe This book analyses influences upon the movement and changes wrought by it in Uganda Rwanda Burundi Kenya Tanzania and Congo highlighting its impact on spirituality political discourse and culture A variety of scholarly approaches to a complex and changing phenomenon are juxtaposed with the narration of personal stories of testimony vital to spirituality and expression of the revival which give a sense of the dynamism of the movement Those yet unacquainted with the revival will find a helpful introduction to its history Those more familiar with the movement will discover new perspectives on its influence The Marcus Garvey and Universal Negro Improvement Association Papers, Vol. X Marcus Garvey, 1983 Volume 10 in The Marcus Garvey and Universal Negro Improvement Association Papers Spirits and Letters Thomas G. Kirsch, 2011 This work offers a substantial intervention into broader debates about religion media and materiality The Oxford Handbook of the Ends of Empire Martin Thomas, Andrew Thompson, 2018-12-06 The Oxford Handbook of the Ends of Empire offers the most comprehensive treatment of the causes course and consequences of the ends of empire in the twentieth century. The volume s contributors convey the global reach of decolonization with chapters analysing the empires of Western Europe Eastern Europe China and Japan The Handbook combines broad regional treatments of decolonization with chapter contributions constructed around particular themes or social issues It considers how the history of decolonization is being rethought as a result of the rise of the new imperial history and its emphasis on race gender and culture as well as the more recent growth of interest in histories of globalization transnational history and histories of migration and diaspora humanitarianism and development and human rights The Handbook in other words seeks to identify the processes and commonalities of experience that make decolonization a unique historical phenomenon with a lasting resonance In light of decades of historical and social scientific scholarship on modernization dependency neo colonialism failed state architectures and post colonial conflict the obvious question that begs itself is when did empires actually end In seeking to unravel this most basic dilemma the Handbook explores the relationship between the study of decolonization and the study of globalization It connects histories of the late colonial and post colonial worlds and considers the legacies of empire in European and formerly The Politics of Environmental Control in Northeastern Tanzania, 1840-1940 James L. colonised societies Giblin, 2015-09-30 A historical study of the relationship between political and environmental change in Tanzania s northeastern lowlands an impoverished region that has been afflicted by severe food shortages throughout the twentieth The Nature of the Path Marcus Filippello, 2017-01-17 The Nature of the Path reveals how a single road has century shaped the collective identity of a community that has existed on the margins of larger societies for centuries Marcus

Filippello shows how a road running through the Lama Valley in Southeastern Benin has become a mnemonic device that has allowed residents to counter prevailing histories Built by the French colonial government and following a traditional pathway the road serves as a site where the h ri people narrate their changing relationship to the environment and assert their independence in the political milieus of colonial and postcolonial Africa Filippello first visited the Yor b speaking h ri community in Benin knowing only the history in archival records Over several years he interviewed more than 100 people with family roots in the valley and discovered that their personal identities were closely tied to the community which in turn was inextricably linked to the history of the road that snakes through the region s seasonal wetlands. The road contested welcomed and obstructed over many years passes through fertile farmlands and sacred forests both rich in meaning for residents Filippello s research seeks to counter prevailing notions of Africa as an exotic and pristine yet contrarily war torn disease ridden environmentally challenged and impoverished continent His informants vivid construction of history through the prism of the road coupled with his own archival research offers new insights into Africans complex understandings of autonomy identity and engagement in the slow process we call modernization War in Heaven/Heaven on Earth Stephen D. O'Leary, Geln S. McGhee, 2014-12-18 The apocalypse is a motif that lies behind many religious beliefs and practices War in Heaven Heaven on Earth theorizes the apocalyptic as it has arisen in a variety of religious traditions from Native American religion to Islam in Northern Nigeria and new terrorist movements Millennial theory and history are explored from the perspective of social psychology sociology and post modern philosophy. The volume is unique in applying an analysis of millennial themes to a comparative study of religion Migration and Diaspora Formation Ciprian Burlăcioiu, 2022-09-20 The role of migration for Christianity as a world religion during the last two centuries has drawn considerable attention from scholars in different fields. The main issue this book seeks to address is the question whether and to what extent migration and diaspora formation should be considered as elements of a new historiography of global Christianity including the reflection upon earlier epochs By focusing on migration and diaspora the emerging map of Christianity will include the dimension of movement and interaction between actors in different regions providing a more comprehensive map of agency of individuals and groups previously regarded as passive Furthermore local histories will become parts of a broader picture and historiography might correlate both local and transregional perspectives in a balanced manner Behind this approach lies the desire to broaden the perspective of Ecclesiastical History and religious history in general in a more systematic manner by questioning the traditional criteria of selection This might help us to recover previously lost actors and forgotten dynamics Tears Of Rain - Ethnicity & Hist Wim van Binsbergen, 2016-05-06 First published in 1992 This is a book about ethnicity among the Nkoya people in central western Zambia and about the historical background out of which that ethnicity is made It studies in detail the fascinating ways in which ethnicity both creates and feeds upon ethno history At the same time it assesses the possibility of reconstructing objective historical processes in that region since the sixteenth century on the basis primarily of one very extensive source Rev Johasaphat Malasha Shimunika s Likota lya Bankoya whose production as a compilation and processing of local oral traditions is intimately related to contemporary ethnicity But most of all this is a book about that fundamental and humble condition of scholarship reading

From Two Republics to One Divided Mark Thurner, 1997 Working within an innovative and panoramic historical and linguistic framework Thurner examines the paradoxes of a resurgent Andean peasant republicanism during the mid 1800s and provides a critical revision of the meaning of republican Peru s bloodiest peasant insurgency the Atusparia Uprising of No More to Spend Luke Messac, 2020 Using the political and medical history of Malawi as a fundamental example Luke Messac explains relationship between a nation s political history and its approaches to health care Handbook of Modern African History John Parker, Richard Reid, 2013-10-10 The Oxford Handbook of Modern African History represents an invaluable tool for historians and others in the field of African studies This collection of essays produced by some of the finest scholars currently working in the field provides the latest insights into and interpretations of the history of Africa a continent with a rich and complex past An understanding of this past is essential to gain perspective on Africa s current challenges and this accessible and comprehensive volume will allow readers to explore various aspects political economic social and cultural of the continent's history over the last two hundred years Since African history first emerged as a serious academic endeavour in the 1950s and 1960s it has undergone numerous shifts in terms of emphasis and approach changes brought about by political and economic exigencies and by ideological debates This multi faceted Handbook is essential reading for anyone with an interest in those debates and in Africa and its peoples While the focus is determinedly historical anthropology geography literary criticism political science and sociology are all employed in this ground breaking study of Africa s past A Stone of Hope David L. Chappell, 2009-12-07 The civil rights movement was arguably the most successful social movement in American history In a provocative new assessment of its success David Chappell argues that the story of civil rights is not a story of the ultimate triumph of liberal ideas after decades of gradual progress Rather it is a story of the power of religious tradition Chappell reconsiders the intellectual roots of civil rights reform showing how northern liberals faith in the power of human reason to overcome prejudice was at odds with the movement's goal of immediate change Even when liberals sincerely wanted change they recognized that they could not necessarily inspire others to unite and fight for it But the prophetic tradition of the Old Testament sometimes translated into secular language drove African American activists to unprecedented solidarity and self sacrifice Martin Luther King Jr Fannie Lou Hamer James Lawson Modjeska Simkins and other black leaders believed as the Hebrew prophets believed that they had to stand apart from society and instigate dramatic changes to force an unwilling world to abandon its sinful ways Their impassioned campaign to stamp out the sin of segregation brought the vitality of a religious revival to their cause Meanwhile segregationists found little support within their white southern religious denominations Although segregationists outvoted and outquined black integrationists the segregationists lost Chappell concludes largely because they did not have a religious commitment to their cause The Interwar World Andrew Denning, Heidi J.S. Tworek, 2023-08-29 The Interwar World collects an international group of over 50 contributors to discuss analyze and interpret this crucial period in twentieth century history A comprehensive understanding of the interwar era has been limited by Euro American approaches and strict adherence to the temporal limits of the world wars The volume's contributors challenge the era's accepted temporal and geographic framings by privileging global processes and interactions Each contribution takes a global thematic approach integrating world regions into a shared narrative Three central questions frame the chapters First when was the interwar Viewed globally the years 1918 and 1939 are arbitrary limits and the volume explicitly engages with the artificiality of the temporal framework while closely examining the specific dynamics of the 1920s and 1930s Second where was the interwar Contributors use global history methodologies and training in varied world regions to decenter Euro American frameworks engaging directly with the usefulness of the interwar as both an era and an analytical category Third how global was the interwar Authors trace accelerating connections in areas such as public health and mass culture counterbalanced by processes of economic protectionism exclusive nationalism and limits to migration By approaching the era thematically the volume disaggregates and interrogates the meaning of the global in this era As a comprehensive guide this volume offers overviews of key themes of the interwar period for undergraduates while offering up to date historiographical insights for postgraduates and scholars interested in this pivotal period in global history Religious Entanglements David Maxwell,2022-08-16 The Congo Evangelistic Mission CEM was one of the most successful classical Pentecostal missions in Africa Maxwell examines the roles of CEM missionaries and their African collaborators the Luba speaking peoples of southeast Katanga in producing knowledge about Africa illustrating the mutually constitutive nature of discourses of identity in colonial Africa and how the Luba shaped missionary research Pandemic Re-Awakenings Guy Beiner, 2021-11-16 Pandemic Re Awakenings offers a multi level and multi faceted exploration of a century of remembering forgetting and rediscovering the influenza pandemic of 1918 1919 arguably the greatest catastrophe in human history Twenty three researchers present original perspectives by critically investigating the hitherto unexplored vicissitudes of memory in the interrelated spheres of personal communal medical and cultural histories in different national and transnational settings across the globe The volume reveals how even though the Great Flu was overshadowed by the commemorative culture of the Great War recollections of the pandemic persisted over time to re emerge towards the centenary of the Spanish Flu and burst into public consciousness following the outbreak of the COVID 19 pandemic The chapters chart historiographical neglect while acknowledging the often unnoticed dialogues between scientific and historical discourses probe silences and trace vestiges of social and cultural memories that long remained outside of what was considered collective memory The Birth of Modern Mexico, 1780-1824 Christon I. Archer, 2007 The Birth of Modern Mexico 1780 1824 investigates the roots of the Mexican Independence era from a variety of perspectives The essays in this volume link the pre 1810 late Bourbon period to the War of Independence 1810 1821 analyze many crucial aspects of the decade of conflict and illustrate the continuities with the first years of the independent Mexican nation Christon I Archer has assembled the most important scholars of the Independence era in Mexican history Each essay addresses a central theme and brings new perspectives to the topics under consideration They all contribute to a nuanced view of the period from roughly the 1790s to the 1830s the different conceptions of legitimacy between the popular masses and the elite the skill and importance of pro Spanish propaganda the process of organizing conspiracies the survival and thriving of a mercantile family before during and after the creation of the republic the causes of failing mines the role of religious thought in the supposed secular state an exhortation to recall the positive contributions of Iturbide the viceroy s military strategy and differing conceptions of authority by the legislature and the executive The authors address the basic issues that are key to students understanding Who fought in the Independence movement why and where Yet the cutting edge interpretations in the essays make the book equally valuable for more advanced study In addition information is provided on the major personalities including August n Iturbide F lix Calleja and Father Hidalgo giving The Birth of Modern Mexico a fascinating human dimension Unlike many edited volumes the essays in this book offer a seamless approach to the period that underscores new research and innovative ideas that will reinforce the significance of the Independence era One of the few readable concise books on the topic of independence this volume probes the birth of modern Mexico in a crisply written style that is sure to appeal to historians and students of Mexican history Contributions by Timothy E Anna Christon I Archer Virginia Guedea Hugh M Hamill John E Kicza Jaime E Rodr guez O Anne Staples Paul J Vanderwood and Eric Van Young Legitimacy and the State in Twentieth-Century Africa Terence Ranger, Olufemi Vaughan, 1993-06-15 This book takes as its theme the ways in which governments legitimate their rule both to themselves and to their subjects Its introduction explores legitimacy and pre colonial states but the three sections of the book deal with colonial legitimacy the question of legitimation in the transition from colonialism to majority rule and the contemporary debate about accountability
