Captured by History John Toland,2017-10-03 Captured by History is an autobiography like none other for few historians have interviewed as many men and women who helped shape the most momentous events of our century than John Toland Here for the first time Toland reveals how he found these key players and how he persuaded them to talk to him From disgraced Japanese generals to the German doctor who nearly succeeded in assassinating Hitler Toland s sources are remarkable for what they reveal about their subjects along with the secrets and stories they would tell no one else Toland s unorthodox approach to history came from his early desire to be a playwright Even before graduating from Williams College during the depths of the Depression Toland spent his summers hitchhiking and riding the rails as a hobo He lived and worked with other bindle stiffs learning their lingo and ways He served five short jail sentences for riding freights and trespassing His experiences and the characters he met encouraged Toland to write plays and early novels unsuccessfully until 1957 when he published his first book Ships in the Sky His work in the next four decades was nothing short of extraordinary for Toland found that he saw history as a play with narrative structure and drama not as a dry series of dates and names The result was a series of landmark works such as Infamy The Rising Sun which won him the Pulitzer Prize for nonfiction in 1970 and reflected his ability with the help of his Japanese wife to open doors normally closed to Westerners in Japan In Mortal Combat The Last 100 Days and his best selling biography of Adolf Hitler Captured by History is not only the summation of a lifetime of groundbreaking works but the story of a man who through his historical investigations became a witness to many of the most catastrophic events of the twentieth century A self effacing man in person Toland nonetheless comes across as having had a life as fascinating as the lives of the many historical figures he has interviewed Written by one of our last witnesses to the terrible and deracinating conflicts that split the world asunder at mid century Captured by History is an astonishing personal story of a hugely inquisitive man who became a historian not by accident or design but by fate a man who succeeded in chronicling the most tumultuous events of our century Intersectional Incoherence Cindi Textor,2024-11-05 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Intersectional Incoherence stages an encounter between the critical discourse on intersectionality and texts produced by Korean subjects of the Japanese empire and their postwar descendants in Japan known as Zainichi Koreans Arguing for intersectionality as a reading method rather than strictly a tool of social analysis Cindi Textor reads moments of illegibility and incoherent language in these texts as a product of the pressures on Zainichi Koreans and their literature to represent both Korean difference from and affinity with Japan Rejecting linguistic norms and representational imperatives of identity categories Textor instead demands that the reader grapple with the silent absent illegible or unintelligible Engaging with the incoherent she argues allows for a more ethical approach to texts subjects and communities that resist representation within existing paradigms The Fight to Save American Freedoms Stanley Duncan,2022-01-28 The Fight to Save American Freedom must be led by American patriots so that legal voting citizens can preserve our birthright freedoms in the elections of 2022 and 2024 The November 3 2020 election was a five alarm fire Thomas Jefferson said the Missouri Compromise of 1820 awakened him like a fire bell in the night The November 3 2020 election was a power grab by the radical left to fundamentally change America in ways that spell doom for the greatest nation on earth This book is an easy read that will evoke many thoughts of pride about the United States as well as an alarming fear for our nation s survival Read historical facts that will serve as a counterargument to the actions of radical leftists and the untrue propaganda that threatens individual freedoms economic stability and the existence of our country This book provides history and common sense as a north star for navigation to evaluate the current path that America is traveling Two polar opposites of ideology are struggling for the soul of America The author engages readers via a Socratic questioning methodology that evokes the reader s inductive reasoning capabilities for an analysis of real factual history propaganda and the causes and effects of current events This unique writing style will allow readers to formulate with clarity their position regarding the turmoil taking place in America today Read this book and you will learn for the first time or experience a reaffirmation of the greatness of the United States of America enjoyed by our citizens and the world at large All Americans are invited to study the story of the greatest nation ever To all patriots fence sitters and those on the other side you are invited to engage in this dialogue with the author What is at stake in 2022 and 2024 everything The facts of this story must be told to all Americans MultiCultural Review ,2007 U.S. Army Forces in Korea, South Korean Interim Government Activities, U.S. Army Military Government in Korea Civil Affairs Division,1948 Ties That Bind Hannah Kim, Korean Culture ,1999 Voices of the Lost Children of Greece Mary Cardaras,2023-01-10

Voices of the Lost Children of Greece is a collection of essays from Greek born adoptees in the 1950s after two consecutive wars that ravaged the country Never before has this group of adoptees come together to write their stories and share their closely held feelings While many of the adoptees have similar experiences and while they may share some common thoughts about their adoptions their stories are vastly different some harrowing others remarkable The collection will illustrate the impact of adoption itself over years no matter if children were displaced from their parents and country as infants or as youngsters The book will shed light on adoption from many disciplinary angles including sociological psychological and anthropological It will also put these adoptions into a larger historical context The book is further enhanced by Greek born adoptee academic poet and writer Dr Andrew Mossin who writes the Foreword by Dr Gonda Van Steen a preeminent modern Greek scholar who pens the first chapter about the history of such adoptions and in the final chapter by Dr Eirini Papadaki who has written extensively about the women of Greece and adoption to bring readers a current assessment of adoption practices in Greece today Congressional Record United States. Congress,1997
