Sectionalism Unmasked (Classic Reprint) Henry Edwin Tremain,2015-07-10 Excerpt from Sectionalism Unmasked Whoever carries a mental kodak with him as I suspect I was in the habit of doing long before I knew it must be aware of the uncertain value of different exposures This can only be determined by the process of development which requires a dark room and other apparatus not always at hand and so much depends upon the process that it might be well if it always be left to someone who makes a specialty of it as in the case of the real amateur photographer Then once faulty impressions might be so treated as to yield a pictorial result of interest or frankly thrown away if it showed hopeless to the instructed eye Otherwise one must do one s own developing and trust the result whatever it is to the imaginative kindness of the reader who will surely if he is the right sort of reader be able to sharpen the blurred details to soften the harsh lines and to blend the shadows in a subordination giving due relief to the best meaning of the print This is what I fancy myself to be doing now and if anyone shall say that my little pictures are superficial I shall not be able to gainsay him I can only say that most pictures

represent the surface of things but at the same time I can fully share the disappointment of those who would prefer some such result as the employment of the Roentgen rays would have given if applied to certain aspects of the world William Dean Howells London Films Once to every man and nation comes the moment to decide In the strife of Truth with Falsehood for the good or evil side Some great cause God s new Messiah offering each the bloom or blight Parts the goats upon the left hand and the sheep upon the right And the choice goes by forever twixt that darkness and that light Hast thou chosen O my people on whose party thou shalt stand Ere the Doom from its worn sandals shakes the dust against our land Though the cause of Evil prosper yet amid the market s din List the ominous stern whisper from the Delphic cave within They enslave their children s children who make compromise with sin James Russell Lowell About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Problem South Natalie J. Ring, 2012-04-01 For most historians the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries saw the hostilities of the Civil War and the dashed hopes of Reconstruction give way to the nationalizing forces of cultural reunion a process that is said to have downplayed sectional grievances and celebrated racial and industrial harmony In truth says Natalie J Ring this buoyant mythology competed with an equally powerful and far reaching set of representations of the backward Problem South one that shaped and reflected attempts by northern philanthropists southern liberals and federal experts to rehabilitate and reform the country s benighted region Ring rewrites the history of sectional reconciliation and demonstrates how this group used the persuasive language of social science and regionalism to reconcile the paradox of poverty and progress by suggesting that the region was moving through an evolutionary period of readjustment toward a more perfect state of civilization In addition The Problem South contends that the transformation of the region into a mission field and laboratory for social change took place in a transnational moment of reform Ambitious efforts to improve the economic welfare of the southern farmer eradicate such diseases as malaria and hookworm educate the southern populace uplift poor whites and solve the brewing race problem mirrored the colonial problems vexing the architects of empire around the globe It was no coincidence Ring argues that the regulatory state s efforts to solve the southern problem and reformers increasing reliance on social scientific methodology occurred during the height of U S imperial expansion Fifty Papers Henry Edwin Tremain, 1909 Bulletin ... of Books Added to the Public Library of Detroit, Mich Detroit Public Library, 1909

Hubert Harrison Jeffrey Babcock Perry, 2009 This first full length biography of Harrison offers a portrait of a man ahead of his time in synthesizing race and class struggles in the U S and a leading influence on better known activists from Marcus

Garvey to A Philip Randolph Harrison emigrated from St Croix in 1883 and went on to become a foremost organizer for the Socialist Party in New York the editor of the Negro World and founder and leader of the World War I era New Negro movement Harrison s enormous political and intellectual appetites were channeled into his work as an orator writer political activist and critic He was an avid bibliophile reportedly the first regular black book reviewer who helped to develop the public library in Harlem into an international center for research on black culture But Harrison was a freelancer so candid in his criticism of the establishment black and white that he had few allies or people interested in protecting his legacy Historian Perry s detailed research brings to life a transformative figure who has been little recognized for his contributions to progressive race and class politics Copyright Booklist Reviews 2008 Sale Catalogues American Art Association, Anderson Galleries (Firm),inc American art association Aderson galleries,1927 Trenton Public Library Bulletin Trenton Free Public Library (Trenton, N.J.),1908
