Seduction A Portrait Of Anais Nin:

Seduction Margot Duxler, 2002 Studies the use Anais Nin made of her childhood diary in an effort to manage severe childhood trauma Duxler was a friend of Nin's during the last decade of Nin's life Anais Nin Maryanne Raphael, 2003-07 For readers unfamiliar with her subject Maryanne Raphael's biography Anais Nin The Voyage Within is a sensitive uncomplicated introduction to the life and work of one of the 20th century's most quintessentially feminine artists For Nin devotees the biography is a refresher course taking us back through the vast material of the Diaries and novels that enchanted and inspired our love Raphael accepts Nin entirely on her own terms Thanks to a warm personal relationship with Rupert Pole Nin's surviving husband and executor of her estate Raphael opens up some of the mystery that has hitherto surrounded Nin's relationship with her husband an aspect of Nin's life that was never explicitly described in the original Diaries The result is a multi dimensional portrait in which Nin's two selves artist and woman are fully integrated Nin the woman consciously chooses to realize female desire give form to female imagination always loving as she remains completely focused on birthing a new unabashedly feminine literature Thank you Maryanne Dolores Brandon Author of IN THE SHADOW OF MADNESS A Memoir Writing an Icon Anita Jarczok, 2017-02-15 Ana's Nin the diarist novelist and provocateur occupied a singular space in twentieth century culture not only as a literary figure and voice of female sexual liberation but as a celebrity and symbol of shifting social mores in postwar America Before Madonna and her many imitators there was Nin yet until now there has been no major study of Nin as a celebrity figure In Writing an Icon Anita Jarczok reveals how Nin carefully crafted her literary and public personae which she rewrote and restyled to suit her needs and desires When the first volume of her diary was published in 1966 Nin became a celebrity notorious beyond the artistic and literary circles in which she previously had operated Jarczok examines the ways in which the American media appropriated and deconstructed Nin and analyzes the influence of Nin's guiding hand in their construction of her public persona The key to understanding Nin's celebrity in its shifting forms Jarczok contends is the Diary itself the principal vehicle through which her image has been mediated Combining the perspectives of narrative and cultural studies Jarczok traces the trajectory of Nin's celebrity the reception of her writings The result is an innovative investigation of the dynamic relationships of Nin's writing identity public image and consumer culture Psychobiography James William Anderson, 2024 Psychobiography is the study through a psychological lens of influential and important figures in history politics literature and other fields A psychological approach is necessary to reveal what moves and motivates these people Many psychobiographies have been faulty because they throw psychological jargon at their subjects and treat them simplistically Anderson shows how to study psychobiographical subjects sensitively and compellingly For Keeps Victoria Zackheim, 2007-11-23 An uplifting collection of personal essays by top writers explores the changing relationship women have with their bodies as they age or work through illness or injury in an empowering volume that includes contributions by such names as Barbara Abercrombie

Sandra Benitez and Sara Nelson Original The Face in the Mirror Victoria Zackheim, When you were young and idealistic who was the person you saw in the mirror What were your expectations and those of your family and community And now that you re older and have attained prominence how do you feel about the person you have become and the direction your life has actually taken Malachy McCourt Joyce Maynard Alan Dershowitz and Eileen Goudge are among twenty celebrated authors in this unique collection who tackle meaningful questions about the choices made their achievements and their disappointments In their reflective essays they explore the person they expected to become or perhaps desperately wanted to be or feared they might be and the person they are today How does all of this knowledge and insight affect their writing Their responses which range from surprising to heart wrenching to comical to inspiring reflect back on the reader who is left with the same question that these eminent writers ask themselves When I look in that mirror who do I see Beverly Donofrio Sandra Gulland Michael Bader Aimee Liu and Leon Whiteson are among the other contributors whose eloquent pieces are certain to captivate and make you see the world and yourself afresh Victoria Zackheim San Francisco CA is the author of The Bone Weaver and editor of two other anthologies The Other Woman 21 Wives Lovers and Others Talk Openly about Sex Deception Love and Betrayal GrandCentral and For Keeps Women Tell the Truth about Their Bodies Growing Older and Acceptance Seal Press Zackheim is story developer and writer of the documentary film Tracing Thalidomide The Francis Kelsey Story now in development with On the Road Productions writer of More Than a Poet s Daughter The Story of Ada Byron Lovelace On the Road Productions and coproducer and writer of the documentary When G I Joe Is a Muslim On the Road Productions Victoria teaches in the UCLA Extension Writers Program and writes records commentaries for The Mimi Geerges Show XM Satellite and public radio

The Community of the Weak Hans-Peter Geiser, 2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism the social the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story

Literary Seductions Frances Wilson, 2000 Exploring relationships between literary couples whose mutual obsession for writing resulted in equally explosive sexual relationships Wilson imbues astute literary criticism with raging hormones For Anais Nin and Henry Miller Laura Riding and Robert Graves and W B and George Yeats among others bodies and books became interchangeable He

Said What Victoria Zackheim, 2011 gender studies Anaïs Nin, Fictionality and Femininity Helen Tookey, 2003 Helen Tookey examines the work of Anaïs Nin 1903-77 and the different versions of Nin herself as woman writer and iconic figure through the lens of cultural and historical contexts. She focuses particularly on questions of identity and femininity, exploring how the self for Nin is constructed through narratives and performances of various kinds and shedding light on key issues and conflicts within feminist thinking since the 1970s, particularly questions of identity, femininity, and psychoanalysis.
