Wider Boundaries of Daring Di Brandt, Barbara Godard, 2011-09-08 Wider Boundaries of Daring The Modernist Impulse in Canadian Women's Poetry announces a bold revision of the genealogy of Canadian literary modernism by foregrounding the originary and exemplary contribution of women poets critics cultural activists and experimental prose writers Dorothy Livesay P K Page Miriam Waddington Phyllis Webb Elizabeth Brewster Jay Macpherson Anne Wilkinson Anne Marriott and Elizabeth Smart In the introduction editor Di Brandt champions particularly the achievements of Livesay Page and Webb in setting the visionary parameters of Canadian and international literary modernism The writers profiled in Wider Boundaries of Daring are the real founders of Canadian modernism the contributors of this volume argue both for their innovative aesthetic and literary experiments and for their extensive cultural activism They founded literary magazines and writers groups wrote newspaper columns and created a new forum for intellectual debate on public radio At the same time they led busy lives as wives and mothers social workers and teachers editors and critics and competed successfully with their male contemporaries in the public arena in an era when women were not generally encouraged to hold professional positions or pursue public careers The acknowledgement of these writers formidable contribution to the development of modernism in Canada and along with it wider boundaries of daring for women and other people previously disadvantaged by racial ethnic or religious identifications has profound implications for the way we read and understand Canadian literary and cultural history and for the shape of both national and international modernisms The Oxford Companion to Modern Poetry in English Jeremy Noel-Tod,Ian Hamilton,2013-05-23 This impressive volume provides over 1 700 biographical entries on poets writing in English from 1910 to the present day including T S Eliot Dylan Thomas and Carol Ann Duffy Authoritative and accessible it is a must have for students of English and creative writing as well as for anyone with an interest in poetry

Wunker,2022-11-21 When asked the question what is the power of poetry writer Ian Williams said poetry punctures the surface Williams statement that poetry matters and that it does something is at the heart of this book Building from this core idea that poetry perforates the everyday to give greater range to our lives and our thinking the practical and pedagogical aim of this book is twofold the first aim is to provide students with an introduction to the key cultural political and historical events that inform twentieth and twenty first century Canadian poetry and to familiarize those same readers with poetic movements trends and forms of the same time period This book addresses the aesthetic and social contexts of Canadian poetry written in the twentieth and twenty first centuries it models for its readers the critical and theoretical discourses needed to understand the contexts of literary production in Canada Put differently readers need a sense of the where and how of poetic production to help situate them in the what of poetry itself In addition to offering a historically contextualized overview of the significant movements developments and poets of this time period this book also familiarizes readers with key moments of reflection and rupture such as the effects of economic and ecological crisis global conflicts and debates around appropriation of culture This book is built on the premise that poetry in Canada does not happen outside of political social and cultural contexts Moving Archives Linda M. Morra,2020-01-15 The image of the dusty undisturbed archive has been swept away in response to growing interest across disciplines in the materials they house and the desire to find and make meaning through an engagement with those materials Archival studies scholars and archivists are developing related theoretical frameworks and practices that recognize that the archives are anything but static Archival deposits are proliferating and the architects practitioners and scholars engaged with them are scarcely able to keep abreast of them Archives archival theory and archival practice are on the move But what of the archives that were once safely housed and have since been lost or are under threat What of the urgency that underscores the appeals made on behalf of these archives As scholars in this volume argue archives their materialization their preservation and the research produced about them are moving in a different way they are involved in an emotionally engaged and charged process one that acts equally upon archival subjects and those engaged with them So too do archives at once represent members of various communities and the fields of study drawn to them Moving Archives grounds itself in the critical trajectory related to what Sara Ahmed calls affective economies to offer fresh insights about the process of archiving and approaching literary materials These economies are not necessarily determined by ethical impulses although many scholars have called out for such impulses to underwrite current archival practices rather they form the crucial affective contexts for the legitimization of archival caches in the present moment and for future use

A Companion to Poetic Genre Erik Martiny, 2011-10-17 A COMPANION TO POETIC GENRE A COMPANION TO POETIC GENRE This eagerly awaited Companion features over 40 contributions from leading academics around the world and offers critical overviews of numerous poetic genres Covering a range of cultural traditions from Britain Ireland North America Japan and the Caribbean among others this valuable collection considers ancient genres such as the elegy the ode the ghazal and the ballad before moving on to Medieval and Renaissance genres originally invented or codified by the Troubadours or poets who followed in their wake The book also approaches genres driven by theme such as the calypso and found poetry Each chapter begins by defining the genre in its initial stages charting historical developments and finally assessing its latest mutations be they structural thematic parodic assimilative or subversive

Writing Lovers Méira Cook, 2005-04-22 In writings by the French post structuralists rhetorical tropes such as speechlessness fragmentation and deflection testify to the writer's difficulty in broaching the subject of love Similarly Cook shows that love poetry proceeds out of a profound failure of language resulting from the opacity of discourse its lack of neutrality or the fugitive transparency of reference Writing Lovers also explores race ethnicity age and sexual identity within the context of the passionate excesses of amatory discourse
