Seeing Ourselves Exploring Ethnicity Race And Culture:

Seeing Ourselves Carl E. James, 1995 Seeing Ourselves Carl E. James, 1999 Being equipped to confront issues related to racial and ethnic diversity is a crucial skill for Canadians This new edition of Seeing Ourselves uses a collection of personal comments and essays written by students from a wide variety of ethnic backgrounds to examine what it means to participate in the cultural and ethnic mosaic that comprises Canada today Carl James creates a dialogue with students and readers that probes the meaning of ethnicity race and culture both in terms of the meanings individuals bring to these concepts and how they are understood in Canadian society as a whole The varied perspectives detailed analyses and careful reflections will be invaluable to anyone seeking to understand the meaning and implications of ethnic diversity in Canadian society today To facilitate classroom discussion this edition also includes background information and new up to date statistics on the Canadian population immigration trends ethnic composition religious affiliation and other characteristics of Canadians Seeing Ourselves : Exploring Race, Ethnicity and Culture Carl E. James, Sheridan College. Instructional and Human Resource Development, 1989 Seeing Ourselves Carl James, 2003 Being equipped to confront issues related to racial and ethnic diversity is a crucial skill for Canadians Completely reorganized and expanded this new edition of Seeing Ourselves uses a collection of personal comments and essays written by students from a wide variety of ethnic backgrounds to examine what it means to participate in the cultural and ethnic mosaic that comprises Canada today Carl James creates a dialogue with students and readers that probes the meaning of ethnicity race and culture both in terms of the meanings individuals bring to these concepts and how they are understood in Canadian society as a whole The varied perspectives detailed analyses and careful reflections will be invaluable to anyone seeking to understand the meaning and implications of ethnic diversity in Canadian society today To facilitate classroom discussion this edition also includes background information and new up to date statistics on the Canadian population immigration trends ethnic composition religious affiliation and other characteristics of Canadians Perspectives on Racism and the Human Services Sector Carl E. James, 1996-01-01 Today's social services agencies are faced with the challenge of responding to the diverse needs and expectations of a growing multicultural population This volume examines race and racism in Canada from historical and contemporary perspectives and explores the extent to which these factors operate within social services systems related to immigration settlement the justice system health and education The contributors including practitioners educators and policy makers argue for specific changes in current approaches to service delivery and provide practical suggestions for services that make it possible for various communities to be served more effectively The collection also proposes an anti racism approach to service provision to produce a system that is beneficial to all Canadians particularly Aboriginals and racial and ethnic minorities Breadwinning Daughters Katrina Srigley, 2010-01-01 Katrina Srigley argues that young women were central to the labour market and family economies of Depression era Toronto Immigration and Canada Alan Simmons, 2010 Immigration and Canada provides readers with a vital introduction to the field of international migration studies. This original book presents an integrated critical perspective on Canadian immigration policies, main trends, and social, economic, and cultural impacts. It offers up-to-date information on migration patterns and examines Canada in an evolving global transnational system that gives rise to imagined futures and contrasting real outcomes. Key issues and debates include nation building and the historical roots of Canadian immigration, contemporary global migration, the changing national and ethnic origins of immigrants, immigrants' jobs, wages, and the economy, designer immigrants, and the brain gain, the business of migration, demographic impacts of immigration, racism and prejudice facing excluded and marginalized populations, transnational citizens, diasporas, emerging identities and struggles to belong, refugees, temporary workers, and foreign visa workers, undocumented migration, and migrant trafficking, the baby bust, and the future of international migration.

Christianities in Migration Peter C. Phan, Elaine Padilla, 2016-04-29 This book migrates through continents, regions, nations, and villages in order to tell the stories of diverse kinds of nomadic dwellers. It departs from Africa en route itself toward Asia, Oceania, Europe, and culminates in the Americas with the territories of Latin America, Canada, and the United States. The volume travels through worn-out pathways of migration that continue to be threaded upon today and theologically reflects on a wide range of migratory aims that result also in diverse forms of indigenization of Christianity. Among the main issues being considered are: How have globalization and migration affected the theological self-understanding of Christianity? In light of globalization and migration, how is the evangelizing mission of Christianity to be understood and carried out? What ecclesiastical reforms, if any, are required to enable the church to meet present-day challenges?

The Politics of Ontario Cheryl N. Collier, Jonathan Malloy, 2024-06-03 Ontario is the most populous province in Canada and perhaps the most complex. It encompasses a range of regions, cities, and local cultures while also claiming a long-standing pre-eminence in Canadian federalism. The second edition of The Politics of Ontario aims to understand this unique and ever-changing province. The new edition captures the growing diversity of Ontario with new chapters on race and Ontario politics, Black Ontarians, and the relationship of Indigenous Peoples and Ontario. With contributors from across the province, the book analyses the political institutions of Ontario, key areas such as gender, Northern Ontario, the intricate Ontario political economy, and public policy challenges with the environment, labour relations governing the GTA, and health care. Completely refreshed from the earlier edition, it emphasizes the evolution of Ontario and key public policy challenges facing the province. In doing so, The Politics of Ontario provides readers with a thorough understanding of this complicated province.

Race and Sport in Canada Janelle Joseph, Simon Darnell, Yuka Nakamura, 2012 Race and Sport in Canada: Intersecting Inequalities is the first anthology to explore intersections of race with the constructions of gender, sexuality, class, and ability within the context of Canadian sport settings. Written by a collection of emerging and established scholars, this book is broadly organized around three interrelated areas: historical approaches to the study of race and sport in Canada.

Canadian immigration and the study of race and sport and the study of race and sport beyond Canada's borders Within these themes a variety of relevant topics are discussed including black football players in twentieth century Canada the structural barriers to sports participation faced by immigrants arriving to Atlantic Canada and NCAA scholarships and Canadian athletes Race and Sport in Canada will be of interest to the general reader as well as to instructors and students in the fields of sport studies sociology critical race studies cultural studies and education
