Seeing Things An Autobiography:

Seeing Things Oliver Postgate, 2000 Seeing Things Oliver Postgate, 2009-11-05 Oliver Postgate's death in December 2008 was greeted with great sadness. For over forty years his name was synonymous with the best in children's television. Bagpuss, The Clangers, Ivor the Engine, The Pogles, Noggin the Nog, Pingwings. Oliver wrote and narrated the stories while Peter Firmin illustrated the characters and made the puppets. Their classic films are still loved by viewers of all ages. In this delicious autobiography Oliver Postgate describes how he came to create his stories and characters, developing innovative techniques of animation and puppetry alongside his friend and co-producer Peter Firmin. Amazingly, almost all of Oliver's films were made in a cowshed in Kent on a budget of next to nothing. But the path to film-making was far from conventional or even planned. Oliver Postgate was the grandson of George Lansbury, leader of the Labour Party in the 1920s, and his father was Raymond Postgate, who became famous as the founder and author of The Good Food Guide. Oliver followed in neither's footsteps. Before his first TV production, Alexander the Mouse, in 1958, he had already been a war evacuee, a conscientious objector, a farm labourer, a relief worker in post-war Germany, an artist, an actor, and an inventor. The story of Oliver Postgate's extraordinary and adventurous life and the wonderful characters who populated it, both real and imagined, is witty, charming, beautifully remembered, and beautifully told.

Seeing Things as They Are Duncan Reyburn, 2017-08-31 The jovial journalist, philosopher, and theologian G. K. Chesterton felt that the world was almost always in permanent danger of being misjudged or even overlooked, and so the pursuit of understanding, insight, and awareness was his perpetual preoccupation. Being sensitive to the boundaries and possibilities of perception, he believed that it really was possible, albeit in a limited way, to see things as they are. Duncan Reyburn, marrying Chesterton's unique perspective with the discipline of philosophical hermeneutics, aims to outline what Chesterton can teach us about reading, interpreting, and participating in the drama of meaning as it unfolds before us in words and in the world. Chesterton's unique interpretive approach seems to be the implicit fascination of all Chesterton scholarship to date, and yet this book is the first to comprehensively focus on the issue. By taking Chesterton back to his philosophical roots via his marginalia, his approach to literary criticism, his Platonist-Thomist metaphysics, and his Roman Catholic theology, Reyburn explicitly and compellingly tackles the philosophical assumptions and goals that underpin his unique posture towards reality.
