The Presence and Absence of God Ingolf U. Dalferth,2009 Safeguarding the distinction between God and world has always been a basic interest of negative theology But sometimes it has overemphasized divine transcendence in a way that made it difficult to account for the sense of God s present activity and experienced actuality Criticisms of the Western metaphysics of presence have made this even more difficult to conceive On the other hand there has been a widespread attempt in recent years to base all theology on religious experience the

Christian church celebrates God's presence in its central sacraments of baptism and Eucharist process thought has re conceptualized God's presence in panentheistic terms and some have argued that God might be poly present not omnipresent But what does it mean to say that God is present or absent For Jews Christians and Moslems alike God is not an inference an absentee entity of which we can detect only faint traces in our world On the contrary God is present reality indeed the most present of all realities However belief in God's presence cannot ignore the widespread experience of God's absence Moreover there is little sense in speaking of God's absence if it cannot be distinguished from God's non presence or non existence So how are we to understand the sense of divine presence and absence in religious and everyday life This is what the essays in this volume explore in the biblical traditions in Jewish and Christian theology and philosophy and in contemporary philosophy of religion

God's Absence and the Charismatic Presence Roy D. Kindelberger, 2017-05-17 The author's theological inquiry is intended to raise questions of interpretation within the camp of openness theology and to direct a discussion on the implications of this movement for the charismatic Pentecostal community Open theism or openness theology affirms that the universe is open the future is not settled God is essentially relational love and the risks of love and the threats against it are real The author digs deep into this area of doctrine in order to question how far openness theology is willing to go Is it only the future that is open to God or are there perhaps unknown aspects to the past and present as well What does God know about sin and when does he know it Is it possible for God to be totally absent from a person's life or even from an entire nation If God can be absent can he also be exceptionally present in the lives of believers What would the divine presence and the charismata spiritual ministries look like in an open universe
