Finding Identity Through Directing Soseh Yekanians, 2020-05-10 Finding Identity through Directing is a practice led autoethnographical monograph that provides an in depth exploration into the field of theatre directing and an individual's endless creative pursuit for belonging The book specifically examines how a culturally displaced individual may find a sense of identity through their directing and addresses the internal struggles of belonging acceptance and Self that are often experienced by those who have confronted cultural unhoming The first half of the story scrutinises Dr Yekanians own identity as an Iranian born Armenian Australian and how she struggled with belonging growing up in a world that for the most part was unaccepting of her differences The second half looks at how theatre directing aided her re-discovery of Self While evidence shows that within the past decade there has been a growing interest in the vocation of theatre directing embarking on a career within this field while exciting can often be a daunting and experimental vocation Finding Identity through Directing questions this conundrum and specifically asks in a competitive artistic profession that is rapidly developing what attracts an individual to the authoritative role of the director and what are the underlying motivations of this attraction By uncovering that there is more to the role of the director than the mere finality of a production we can observe that the theatre is a promising setting for cultural exchanges in dialogue and for personal development Theatre directing as the vehicle for these expansions and progressions of self can potentially address the internal struggles of identity often experienced by those who in some form have encountered cultural displacement
