Silver Professor of English, 1998-12-04 Teeming with creatures both real and imagined this encyclopedic study in cultural history illuminates the hidden web of connections between the Victorian fascination with fairies and their lore and the dominant preoccupations of Victorian culture at large Carole Silver here draws on sources ranging from the anthropological folkloric and occult to the legal historical and medical She is the first to anatomize a world peopled by strange beings who have infiltrated both the literary and visual masterpieces and the minor works of the writers and painters of that era Examining the period of 1798 to 1923 Strange and Secret Peoples focuses not only on such popular literary figures as Charles Dickens and William Butler Yeats but on writers as diverse as Thomas Carlyle Arthur Conan Doyle and Charlotte Mew on artists as varied as mad Richard Dadd Aubrey Beardsley and Sir Joseph Noel Paton and on artifacts ranging from fossil skulls to photographs and vases Silver demonstrates how beautiful and monstrous creatures fairies and swan maidens goblins and dwarfs cretins and changelings elementals and pygmies simultaneously peopled the Victorian imagination and inhabited nineteenth century science and belief Her book reveals the astonishing complexity and fertility of the Victorian consciousness its modernity and antiquity its desire to naturalize the supernatural its pervasive eroticism fused with sexual anxiety and its drive for racial and imperial dominion

Irish Selkie Christina Holloway, 2008-07 Celtic folklore speaks of a people that are part human part seal They are called Selkies sometimes they come to shore to sunbathe removing their seal skin and leaving them prey for fisherman to steal and hide If this happens they have to marry him and have his children Though many Selkies are happily married they still always seem to feel drawn back to the sea and their seal families even at the cost of leaving behind ones they love on land After years of searching many find their hidden skin and return to the sea as a seal staying close keeping watch over them from the great sea The children left behind are sometimes called Darkies because of their dark eyes and hair with pale skin from the Selkie bloodline Most descendants of the Selkie feel a very strong connection with the ocean the call of its waves and a kinship with the seal

Examining the cultural belief that our animal instincts are to be corrected or corralled nature advocate and rewilding facilitator Vanessa Chakour explores our inner and outer landscapes through the lens of wild animals How can wolves misunderstood in myths but vital to ecosystems teach us to rewrite dangerous stories and respect nature s wisdom How do the peaceful coexistence strategies of black bears offer insights into sharing resources How can the engineering feats of beavers guide us in fostering regenerative building solutions and vibrant ecosystems What can the loyal partnership of seahorses teach us about nurturing and love In Earthly Bodies Vanessa draws parallels from struggles she has weathered in her own life to those endured by twenty three wild animals from wolves to sea lions exploring our unease of feeling like prey challenging the entrapment of our limiting beliefs contextualizing the turmoil of fractured landscapes and affirming our primal ache to belong Vanessa s pivotal encounters with creatures in sync with their primal rhythms and demands illustrate the necessity of relying on the intelligence of gut instinct of the magnetic pull of attraction of the body s mandate for restorative rest and of the sacred bonds of love We often cut ourselves off from identifying with wild animals like wolves foxes bats and bears and other animal relatives out of fear ignorance disgust or misunderstanding yet our earthly human bodies can lead us in our pursuits of pleasure love wonder healing and connection With each section containing an aspect of injured animal s return home to their natural habitat and in our case to an embodied instinctual self Earthly Bodies meditates on how this journey from enclosures to rehabilitation to soft release and finally to homing raises questions about our humanity In so learning we understand how we might benefit from embracing our own animal nature to gain deeper self actualization find common ground with our fellow animals and learn to thrive together Pagan Roots Yvonne
