

Banish animosity
Summon endearment
You are kindred to each one you greet each one you deal with crossing the world
Salute the love ability in all those you meet Elicit the beauty that hides in all flesh
Let freedom of feeling liberate mankind
Love one another

The Figure of the Shaman in Contemporary British Poetry Shamsad Mortuza,2014-08-11 This genealogical study focuses on the work of five contemporary British poets in order to locate them in a counter cultural tradition that is informed by strategic responses to state terrorism It identifies some historical moments of ruptures such as the persecution of the Celtic druids by the Romans the killing of the Welsh bards by Edward I the appropriation of bardic materials by Romantic poets writing in a post French Revolution era and the beatnik response to a post World War bipolar world in order to contextualise and discuss the poets of British Poetry Revival writing under Thatcherism Drawing on Mircea Eliade s notion of shamanism as archaic techniques of ecstasy these poets have transformed Eliade s version of the shaman s elective trauma and enacted a critical rejection of totalitarian tools of the state and society Categorised as the Technicians of the Sacred and the Technicians of the Body these shamanic poets include Iain Sinclair Jeremy Prynne Brian Catling Barry MacSweeney and Maggie O Sullivan Their poetic strategy is not a New Age fad it rather investigates and inventories the hidden energies of past and present to wrest spirituality away from the confines of religion and politics while embodying it in textual praxis

Feminist Periodicals ,1999 Women's Experimental Poetry in Britain 1970-2010 David Kennedy,Christine Kennedy,2013 This study presents the history and current state of women s experimental poetry in Britain and places it within wider social and political contexts Ranging from Geraldine Monk s ventriloquising of the Pendle witches to Denise Riley s highly self critical lyric poems from the multimedia experiments of Maggie O Sullivan to the globally aware politicised sequences of Andrea Brady and Jennifer Cooke this book theorises women s alternative poetry in terms of Julia Kristeva s idea of women s time and of the female poetic voice constantly negotiating with dominant systems of representation

Women's Studies Index ,1999 Shamanic Elements in the Poetry of Ted Hughes Ewa Panecka,2018-04-18 This study on religious experience in modern poetry features innovatory and accessible close readings of some of the most beloved authors of English verse In today's seemingly secular age religion still remains a highly contested subject The selection of texts analysed here is representative of a wide spectrum of attitudes including a sharply critical refusal to acknowledge Christianity as the basis of civilization Some poets see national religion as a framework for cultural identity while others worship nature as the omnipotent Force of Life trying to create their own gods Rather than reducing poetry to a background for philosophical analysis or theological deliberation this book presents diverse modes of the poetic endeavor to capture and convey the divine The chapters provide a range of perspectives on individual experience rendered into poetry as a subtle relationship between faith perception and language The text will be of interest to anyone looking for new ways of reading poetry as a spiritual quest

Davis, 1985 Lists over 5 200 titles of books published by American poets between 1973 and 1983 Poetry, Catastrophe, and Hope in the Vision of Isaiah Francis Landy, 2023-06-21 The book of Isaiah is one of the longest and strangest books of the Hebrew Bible composed over several centuries and traversing the catastrophe that befell the two kingdoms of Israel and Judah in the 8th and 6th centuries BCE Francis Landy's book tells the story of the poetic response to catastrophe and the hope for a new and perfect world on the other side The study traces two parallel developments the displacement of the Davidic promise onto the Persian Empire Israel and the prophet himself and the transition from exclusively male images of the deity to the matching of male and female prototypes whereby YHWH takes the place of the warrior goddess Poetry Catastrophe and Hope in the Book of Isaiah consists of close readings of individual passages in Isaiah commencing with Chapter One and the problems of beginning and ending with Deutero Isaiah composed subsequent to the Babylonian exile The volume is arranged thematically as well as sequentially the first chapter following the introduction concerns gender the second death the third the Oracles about the Nations At the centre there is what Landy calls the constitutive enigma Isaiah's commission in his vision to speak so that people will not understand This renders the entire book potentially incomprehensible the more we try to understand it the greater the difficulty For Landy this creates a model of reading and writing the challenge and the risk of going up blind alleys of trying to make sense of a disastrous world Isaiah's commission pervades the book Throughout there is a promise of an age of clarity as well as social and political transformation which is always deferred beyond the horizon Hence it is a book without an ending or with multiple endings In the final chapters the author turns to the central Chapter Thirty Three a mise en abyme of the book and a prayer for deliverance and the issues of exile and the possibility of return Like every poetic work particularly in an era of cultural collapse it is a critique of the past and a hope for a new humanity Honoring the Medicine Kenneth S. The Geschlecht Complex Oscar Jansson,David LaRocca,2022-01-13 The polysemous German word Geschlecht denoting gender genre kind kinship species race and somehow also more exemplifies the most pertinent questions of the translational transdisciplinary transhistorical and transnational structures of the contemporary humanities What happens when texts objects practices and concepts are transferred or displaced from one language tradition temporality or form to another What is readily transposed what resists relocation and what precipitate emerges as distorted or new Drawing on Barbara Cassin's transformative remarks on untranslatability and the activity of philosophizing in languages scholars contributing to The Geschlecht Complex examine these and other durable queries concerning the ontological powers of naming and do so in the light of recent artistic practices theoretical innovations and philosophical incitements Combining detailed case studies of concrete category problems in literature philosophy media cinema politics painting theatre and the performing arts with a range of indispensable excerpts from canonical texts by notable field defining thinkers such as Apter Cassin Cavell Derrida Irigaray Malabou and Nancy among others the volume presents the Geschlecht complex as a condition to become aware of and in turn to companionably underwrite any interpretive endeavor Historically grounded yet attuned to the particularities of the present the Geschlecht complex becomes an invaluable mode for thinking and theorizing while ensconced in the urgent immediacy of pressing concerns and poised for the inevitable complexities of categorial naming and genre discernment that await in the so often inscrutable translation resistant twenty first century
