Models for the Millennium presents an overview of the development and current practice of anthropology in the Great Basin. This volume includes such topics as historical issues models for past and present anthropological and archaeological phenomena and cooperation among anthropologists Native Americans and government agencies. The volume includes four sections. Historical Development describes the development of ethnology archaeology and paleoecology in the Great Basin. Current Issues covers topics in general theory paleoecology ethnography and linguistics prehistory and cultural resource management. Models of Explanation examines various approaches to modeling aspects of the archaeological paleoecological and ethnographic record in such areas as subsistence mobility iconography and gender. Finally Models of Cooperation discusses how anthropologists Native Americans and various agencies come to terms with such issues as burial and sacred sites range blight and the destruction of the archaeological record.      Newsletter ,1993      California Indian Languages Victor Golla,2022-02

Nowhere was the linguistic diversity of the New World more extreme than in California where an extraordinary variety of village dwelling peoples spoke seventy eight mutually unintelligible languages. This comprehensive illustrated handbook a major synthesis of more than 150 years of documentation and study reviews what we now know about California s indigenous languages. Victor Golla outlines the basic structural features of more than two dozen language types and cites all the major sources both published and unpublished for the documentation of these languages from the earliest vocabularies collected by explorers and missionaries to the data amassed during the twentieth century by Alfred Kroeber and his colleagues to the extraordinary work of John P Harrington and C Hart Merriam. Golla also devotes chapters to the role of language in reconstructing prehistory and to the intertwining of language and culture in pre contact California societies making this work the first of its kind an essential reference on California s remarkable Indian languages.      Bibliographie linguistique de l'année 1997/Linguistic Bibliography for the Year 1997 Mark Janse,Sijmen Tol,2001-12-31

Bibliographie linguistique Linguistic Bibliography is the annual bibliography of linguistics published by the Permanent International Committee of Linguists under the auspices of the International Council of Philosophy and Humanistic Studies of UNESCO. With a tradition of more than fifty years the first two volumes covering the years 1939 1947 were published in 1949 1950. Bibliographie linguistique is by far the most comprehensive bibliography in the field. It covers all branches of linguistics and related disciplines both theoretical and descriptive from all geographical areas including less known and extinct languages with particular attention to the many endangered languages of the world. Up to date information is guaranteed by the collaboration of some fifty contributing specialists from all over the world. With over 23 000 titles arranged according to a detailed state of the art classification Bibliographie linguistique remains the standard reference book for every student of language and linguistics.      Anthropology Newsletter ,1990      Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1996      Handbook of North American Indians: Indians in contemporary society ,1983      Bibliographic Guide to Anthropology and
