been searching for a unified theory that will explain all sorts of films their production and their reception the field has been dominated by structuralist Marxism varieties of cultural theory and the psychoanalytic ideas of Freud and Lacan Bordwell and Carroll ask why not employ many theories tailored to specific goals rather than searching for a unified theory Post

Theory offers fresh directions for understanding film presenting new essays by twenty seven scholars on topics as diverse as film scores audience response and the national film industries of Russia Scandinavia the U S and Japan They use historical philosophical psychological and feminist methods to tackle such basic issues as What goes on when viewers perceive a film How do filmmakers exploit conventions How do movies create illusions How does a film arouse emotion Bordwell and Carroll have given space not only to distinguished film scholars but to non film specialists as well ensuring a wide variety of opinions and ideas on virtually every topic on the current agenda of film studies Full of stimulating essays published here for the first time Post Theory promises to redefine the study of cinema

The Complete Guide to Low-Budget Feature Filmmaking

Josh Becker, Bruce Campbell, 2006-02-01 Most books about film production assume that you have an idea and a script to shoot Most screenwriting books are geared to how to write a script that you can sell to Hollywood as though the authors of these books had the slightest clue and do not take into consideration that you might be shooting the script yourself possibly with your own money This book is about how to write a script properly that you can rationally shoot how to shoot it how to finish it how to sell it and also how to get it shown

Lighting for Cinematography David Landau, 2014-06-19 We can't shoot good pictures without good lighting no matter how good the newest cameras are Shooting under available light gives exposure but lacks depth contrast contour atmosphere and often separation The story could be the greatest in the world but if the lighting is poor viewers will assume it's amateurish and not take it seriously Feature films and TV shows commercials and industrial videos reality TV and documentaries even event and wedding videos tell stories Good lighting can make them look real while real lighting often makes them look fake Lighting for Cinematography the first volume in the new CineTech Guides to the Film Crafts series is the indispensable guide for film and video lighting Written by veteran gaffer and cinematographer David Landau the book helps the reader create lighting that supports the emotional moment of the scene contributes to the atmosphere of the story and augments an artistic style Structured to mimic a 14 week semester the chapters cover such things as lighting for movement working with windows night lighting lighting the three planes of action and non fiction lighting Every chapter includes stills lighting diagrams and key advice from professionals in the field as well as lighting exercises to help the reader put into practice what was covered www.lightingforcinematography.com

Reading in the Dark John Golden, 2001 To believe that students are not using reading and analytical skills when they watch or read a movie is to miss the power and complexities of film and of students viewing processes This book encourages teachers to harness students interest in film to help them engage critically with a range of media including visual and printed texts Toward this end the book provides a practical guide to enabling teachers to feel comfortable and confident about using film in new and different ways It addresses film as a compelling medium in itself by using examples from more than 30 films to explain key terminology and cinematic effects And it then makes direct links between film and literary study by addressing reading strategies e.g. predicting responding questioning and storyboarding and key aspects of textual analysis e.g. characterization
