Si Je Mens Conversations Avec Claude Glayman:

Women and Mass Consumer Society in Postwar France Rebecca J. Pulju, 2011-02-14 Women and Mass Consumer Society in Postwar France examines the emergence of a citizen consumer role for women during postwar modernization and reconstruction in France integrating the history of economic modernization with that of women and the family This role both celebrated the power of the woman consumer and created a gendered form of citizenship that did not disrupt the sexual hierarchy of home polity and marketplace Redefining needs and renegotiating concepts of taste value and thrift women and their families drove mass consumer society through their demands and purchases at the same time that their very need to consume came to define them Routledge Library Editions: Feminist Theory Various, 2021-04-28 Routledge Library Editions Feminist Theory brings together as one set or individual volumes a series of previously out of print classics from a variety of academic imprints With titles ranging from The Liberation of Women to Feminists and State Welfare from Married to the Job to Julia Kristeva this set provides in one place a wealth of important reference sources from the diverse field of gender studies Contemporary Western European Feminism (RLE Feminist Theory) Gisela Kaplan, 2012-11-12 Contemporary Western European Feminism is a ground breaking history of feminism Gisela Kaplan invites a critical analysis of current ideas terms and assumptions about our modern world Written confidently and with compassion this is the story of a long revolution that has set out to change predominant attitudes and transform value hierarchies and human lifestyles By outlining the postwar histories of individual countries Kaplan contextualises women s movements and documents a significant chapter of European social history She poses questions about the interrelationship between the new movements and the parliamentary democracies in which they occurred while analysing the contradictions of living in modern capitalist countries Contemporary Western European Feminism also tackles important contradictions such as those between the welfare state and the free market economy industrialisation and religious value systems social engineering and the production of wealth and dissent and patrimonial systems of democracy For those wanting to know more about Europe without the intimidating barriers of language and for those already experts in its social history Contemporary Western European Feminism is essential reading Beauvoir and Her Sisters Sandra Reineke, 2011-05-01 Beauvoir and Her Sisters investigates how women s experiences as represented in print culture led to a political identity of an imagined sisterhood through which political activism developed and thrived in postwar France Through the lens of women s political and popular writings Sandra Reineke presents a unique interpretation of feminist and intellectual discourse on citizenship identity and reproductive rights Drawing on feminist writings by Simone de Beauvoir feminist reviews from the women s liberation movement and cultural reproductions from French women s fashion and beauty magazines Reineke illustrates how print media created new spaces for political and social ideas This sustained study extends from 1944 when women received the right to vote in France to 1993 when the French government outlawed anti abortion activities Touching on the relationship between consumer culture and feminist practice Reineke's analysis of a selection of women's writings underlines how these texts challenged traditional gender models and ideals In revealing that women collectively used texts to challenge the state to redress its abortion laws Reineke renders the act of writing as a form of political action and highlights the act of reading as an essential but often overlooked space in which marginalized women could exercise dissent and create solidarity "Material Women, 1750-1950" Maureen Daly Goggin, 2017-07-05 With the volume's global perspective and comparative framework this collection contributes to the ongoing scholarly examination of consumption by taking the topic of women material culture and consumption into new arenas The essays explore the connections between consumption and subjectivity they build upon and complicate the idea that consumption as a form of meaning making is key to the construction of gendered classed and national identities Providing a cross cultural perspective on consumption the essays are historically specific case studies While some essays examine women's consumption in a range of Anglophone and Francophone locations primarily in Britain France Australia Canada and the US other essays on Chinese Senegalese Indian and Mexican women's consumption particularly as it relates to fashion and design provide a comparative framework that will recalibrate ongoing discussions about consumption and domesticity dress and identity and desire and subjectivity In addition to its focus on gender and consumption this volume addresses gender and collecting exploring the tensions between accumulation and systematic collecting Also examined is the way in which the display of collected objects in Impressionists paintings in mass produced illustrations in the glass cases of museums and department stores participates in the construction of particular identities as well as serving as a kind of value producing material practice

Enfants Terribles Susan Weiner, 2001 Weiner highlights the new importance of youth as a social category of identity in the context of the postwar explosion of the mass media and explores the ways in which girls both defined and disrupted this category throughout Europe in the Contemporary World 1900 to the Present is the definitive guide to Europe and its place in the world since 1900 for students and scholars alike The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books 1976 to 1982 British Library, 1983 La Plume au poing Claude Estier, 1977-01-01T00:00:00+01:00 1925 1977 un peu plus d'un demi siècle qui a vu changer le destin des hommes plus vite et plus profondément que jamais auparavant. Avec les Années Folles, adolescent, politicien dans la Résistance, Claude Estier a vu en tant que moine puis en tant qu'acteur nombre d'événements qui appartiennent déjà à l'histoire de notre pays. Il est de ceux peu nombreux qui dès le premier instant ont dénoncé les guerres coloniales. De New York, Moscou, de Prague, Lisbonne, du Caire, Santiago de Cuba, Belgrade, Madrid, de La Havane, Alger, il a aussi parcouru le monde et surtout le Tiers Monde, la recherche d'un équilibre sans cesse remis en cause. Son combat constant pour le socialisme n'a cessé de s'inscrire dans une volonté obstinée de voir se réaliser en France l'union des forces de gauche. Ce qui l'a conduit après mai 1958, se rapprocher de François Mitterrand dont il est devenu depuis 1965 l'ami, l'un des confidents et des plus proches collaborateurs. Journaliste, conseiller de Paris, secrétaire national du Parti socialiste dont il est le porte-parole militant, la plume au poing, il ne présente pas ici une œuvre d'historien ou d'idologue, mais un récit dense de faits et de révolutions, mailles de réflexions et de prises de position sur des problèmes qui sont au cœur du grand débat politique actuel. Il permet de mieux comprendre ce qu'a été la longue marche de la gauche jusqu'à cette bataille décisive de 1978 dont il reste à savoir si elle réussira enfin à se donner les moyens de la gagner. I Give You My Word Françoise Giroud, 1974 The French Review James Frederick Mason, Hélène Harvitt, 1974 Si je mens ... Françoise Giroud, 1992 Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress, 1973 Beginning with 1953 entries for Motion pictures and filmstrips, Music and phonorecords form separate parts of the Library of Congress catalogue. Borja-Villel, 2007 Compiled by the French historian Serge Guilbaut, Be-Bomb compares and contrasts the art produced in France and the US between 1946-1956 to explore how and why certain works became cultural icons and media images for great commercial success for respective each country. The book analyses the aesthetic debate of the period when New York began replacing Paris as the nerve centre of modern art.
