In the 1920s and 1930s the port cities of Southeast Asia were staging grounds for diverse groups of ordinary citizens to experiment with modernity as a rising Japan and American capitalism challenged the predominance of European empires after the First World War Both migrants and locals played a pivotal role in shaping civic culture Moving away from a nationalist reading of the period Su Lin Lewis explores layers of cross cultural interaction in various spheres the urban built environment civic associations print media education popular culture and the emergence of the modern woman While the book focuses on Penang Rangoon and Bangkok three cities born amidst British expansion to the region it explores connected experiences across Asia and in Asian intellectual enclaves in Europe Cosmopolitan sensibilities were severely tested in the era of post colonial nationalism but are undergoing a resurgence in Southeast Asia s civil society and creative class today The Kingdom of the Yellow Robe Ernest Young,1898 The following pages are intended to present to the reader an account of the domestic and religious rites and ceremonies of the Siamese They are the outcome of several years residence in the Capital of Siam In order to verify some of my own observations or to amplify some points with regard to which my own knowledge was rather scanty I have consulted most of the books which in recent years have been published concerning the country of Siam I am particularly indebted to the works of two writers whose knowledge was both wide and deep viz H Alabaster whose Wheel of the Law deals with Siamese Buddhism and Captain Gerini whose various monographs on domestic or religious customs are full of valuable and reliable information concerning their misty origin and meaning I must also acknowledge my indebtedness to The Siam Repository a weekly paper long since extinct but whose pages are a treasure house of information to the enquirer and to my friend Mr R L Morant for much helpful criticism and advice The National Union Catalogs, 1963- ,1964 Siam & the West,

Johnston,2000 First published in 2000 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Conflict and Conversion Tara Alberts,2013-10-03 Conflict and Conversion explores how Catholic missionaries merchants and adventurers brought their faith to the strategically and commercially crucial region of Southeast Asia in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries This region conjured visions of the exotic in the minds of early modern Europeans and became an important testing ground for ideas about the nature of conversion and the relationship between religious belief and practice Some Southeast Asians adopted Christianity and even died for their new faith while others resisted all incentives menaces and cajolement to reject their original spiritual beliefs and practices In this volume Tara Alberts explores how Catholicism itself was converted in this encounter as Southeast Asian neophytes adapted the faith to their own needs Conflict and Conversion makes the first detailed exploration of Catholic missions to the diverse kingdoms of Southeast Asia and provides a new connective history of the spread of global Christianity to this crossroads of the world This volume focuses on three areas which represent the main cultural and religious divisions of the broader region of Southeast Asia modern day Thailand Vietnam and Malaysia In each of these areas missionaries had to engage with a variety of political and economic systems social norms and religious beliefs and practices They were obliged to consider what adaptations could be made to Catholic ritual and devotions in order to satisfy local needs and how best to counter local customs deemed inimical to the faith which obliged them to engage with fundamental questions about what it meant to be Christian Alberts seeks to uncover the conflicts over these issues and the development of the concept of conversion in the early modern period Tham Khwan Ruth-Inge Heinze,1982 Historical Dictionary of Thailand May Kyi Win,Harold E.
