Intellect James D. Bloom, 2009-09-10 Hollywood Intellect takes off from the wide spread hand wringing over the fate or disappearance of so called public intellectuals An account of the title phenomenon Hollywood Intellect challenges assumptions on which such discussions have rested James D Bloom argues that such assumptions are the result of misleading inattention to the intellectual work that mass culture performs Much of America's influential intellectual work has come out of Hollywood which has long helped shape America's intellectual agenda Bloom shows how Hollywood movies often do intellectual work as ambitious as the intellectual work in art films poems and novels museums and erudite quarterlies Hollywood Intellect prompts its readers to reflect on the impact of a variety of Hollywood movies with some of the same assumptions expectations and questions customarily applied to literary writing Hollywood Intellect also illustrates how in examining the emergence of Hollywood and stardom in general as shapers of the public mind some of our most renowned poets and novelists enriched our experience of mass entertainment and of elite culture Drawing on a range of literary works and movies as well as on the careers of both Hollywood and literary celebrities Bloom documents how Hollywood regulates curiosity arbitrates civilization construes and probes stardom polices genre and shapes our language Film Study Frank Manchel, 1990 The four volumes of Film Study include a fresh approach to each of the basic categories in the original edition

Volume one examines the film as film volume two focuses on the thematic approach to film volume three draws on the history of film and volume four contains extensive appendices listing film distributors sources and historical information as well as an index of authors titles and film personalities

Historical Dictionary of African American Cinema S. Torriano Berry, Venice T. Berry, 2007-01-26 On 4 July 1910 in 100 degree heat at an outdoor boxing ring near Reno Nevada film cameras recorded and thousands of fans witnessed former heavyweight champion Jim Jeffries reluctant return from retirement to fight Jack Johnson a black man After 14 grueling rounds Johnson knocked out Jeffries and for the first time in history there was a black heavyweight champion of the world At least 10 people lost their lives because of Johnson's victory and hundreds more were injured due to white retaliation and wild celebrations in the streets Public screenings received instantaneous protests and hundreds of cities barred the film from being shown Congress even passed a law making it a federal offense to transport moving pictures of prizefights across state lines and thus the most powerful portrayal of a black man ever recorded on film was made virtually invisible This is but one of the hundreds of films covered in the Historical Dictionary of African American Cinema which includes everything from The Birth of a Nation to Crash In addition to the films brief biographies of African American actors and actresses such as Sidney Poitier James Earl Jones Halle Berry Eddie Murphy Whoopi Goldberg Denzel Washington and Jamie Foxx can be found in this reference Through a chronology a list of acronyms and abbreviations an introductory essay a bibliography appendixes black white photos and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on actors actresses movies producers organizations awards film credits and terminology this book provides a better understanding of the role African Americans played in film history

Screening a Lynching Matthew Bernstein, 2009 The Leo Frank case of 1913 was one of the most sensational trials of the early twentieth century capturing international attention Frank a northern Jewish factory supervisor in Atlanta was convicted for the murder of Mary Phagan a young laborer native to the South largely on the perjured testimony of an African American janitor The trial was both a murder mystery and a courtroom drama marked by lurid sexual speculation and overt racism The subsequent lynching of Frank in 1915 by an angry mob only made the story more irresistible to historians playwrights novelists musicians and filmmakers for decades to come Matthew H Bernstein is the first scholar to examine the feature films and television programs produced in response to the trial and lynching of Leo Frank He considers the four major surviving American texts Oscar Micheaux's film Murder in Harlem 1936 Mervyn LeRoy's film They Won't Forget 1937 the Profiles in Courage television episode John M Slaton 1964 and the two part NBC miniseries The Murder of Mary Phagan 1988 Bernstein explains that complex issues like racism anti-Semitism class resentment and sectionalism were at once irresistibly compelling and painfully difficult to portray in the mass media Exploring the cultural and industrial contexts in which the works were produced Bernstein considers how they succeeded or failed in representing the case's many facets Film and television shows can provide worthy interpretations of history Bernstein argues even when they depart from the historical record Screening a

Lynching is an engrossing meditation on how film and television represented a traumatic and tragic episode in American history one that continues to fascinate people to this day The Encyclopedia of Hollywood Film Actors Barry Monush, 2003-04-01 For decades Screen World has been the film professional's as well as the film buff's favorite and indispensable annual screen resource full of all the necessary statistics and facts Now Screen World editor Barry Monush has compiled another comprehensive work for every film lover's library In the first of two volumes this book chronicles the careers of every significant film actor from the earliest silent screen stars Chaplin Pickford Fairbanks to the mid 1960s when the old studio and star systems came crashing down Each listing includes a brief biography photos from the famed Screen World archives with many rare shots vital statistics a comprehensive filmography and an informed entertaining assessment of each actor's contributions good or bad In addition to every major player Monush includes the legions of unjustly neglected troupers of yesteryear The result is a rarity an invaluable reference tool that's as much fun to read as a scandal sheet It pulsates with all the scandal glamour oddity and glory that was the lifeblood of its subjects Contains over 1 000 photos

Every Step a Struggle Frank Manchel, 2007 This book pays tribute to the sacrifices and achievements of seven individuals who made difficult and controversial choices to insure that black Americans shared in the evolution of the nation's cultural heritage Transcriptions and analyses of never before published uncensored conversations with Lorenzo Tucker Lillian Gish King Vidor Clarence Muse Woody Strode Charles Gordone and Frederick Douglass O Neal reveal many of the reasons and rationalizations behind a racist screen imagery in the first three quarters of the twentieth century This primary source replete with pictures documentation and extensive annotations recounts through the words of important participants what happened to many film pioneers when a new generation of African Americans rebelled against the nation's stereotyped film imagery A unique historical resource this book is a fitting tribute to these artists reminding us of their courage integrity and perseverance to succeed against great odds The thorough meticulous annotations make it an indispensable addition to collections in film studies and African American studies Denise Youngblood Professor of History University of Vermont The author has taken a unique approach and may have even created a new genre of writing the interview embellished with scholarly commentary It is a fascinating experiment This book belongs in every research library and in all public libraries from mid size to large cities It fills in lacunae between existing studies Peter C Rollins Editor in Chief of Film History

Enchanted Evenings Geoffrey Block, 2009-10-30 This new second edition of Enchanted Evenings offers theater lovers an illuminating behind the scenes tour of some of America's best loved most admired and most enduring musicals Readers will find such all time favorites as Show Boat Carousel Kiss Me Kate Guys and Dolls My Fair Lady West Side Story Sweeney Todd Sunday in the Park with George and Phantom of the Opera Geoffrey Block provides a documentary history of each of the musicals showing how each work took shape and revealing at the same time how the American musical evolved from the 1920s to today both on stage and on screen The book's particular focus is on the music offering a wealth of detail about how librettist lyricist composer and director work together to shape the piece Block also includes trenchant social commentary and lively backstage anecdotes Jerome Kern Cole Porter the Gershwins Rodgers and Hart Kurt Weill Rodgers and Hammerstein Lerner and Loewe Frank Loesser Leonard Bernstein Stephen Sondheim Andrew Lloyd Webber and other luminaries emerge as hardworking craftsmen under enormous pressure to sell tickets without compromising their dramatic vision The second edition includes a greatly expanded chapter on Sondheim a new chapter on Lloyd Webber and two new chapters on the film adaptations of the main musicals featured in the text including such hard to find films as the original 1936 version of Anything Goes and the 1959 film adaptation of Porgy and Bess Packed with information including a complete discography and plot synopses and song by song scenic outlines for each of the fourteen shows Enchanted Evenings is an essential reference as well as a riveting history A solid and fascinating work that should become a model of how to investigate and report on the evolution of a musical Block's research is persuasive and his writing vivid Indispensable for anyone who cares to know more about Broadway musicals than Playbill can provide Steven Bach The Los Angeles Times Book Review
