Freud, Architect* Volker M. Welter,2011-10-01 Ernst L Freud 1892-1970 was a son of Sigmund Freud and the father of painter Lucian Freud and the late Sir Clement Freud politician and broadcaster After his studies in Munich and Vienna where he and his friend Richard Neutra attended Adolf Loos's private Bauschule Freud practiced in Berlin and after 1933 in London Even though his work focused on domestic architecture and interiors Freud was possibly the first architect to design psychoanalytical consulting rooms including the customary couches a subject dealt with here for the first time By interweaving an account of Freud's professional and personal life in Vienna Berlin and London with a critical discussion of selected examples of his domestic architecture interior designs and psychoanalytic consulting rooms the author offers a rich tapestry of Ernst L Freud's world His clients constituted a Who's Who of the Jewish and non-Jewish bourgeoisie in 1920s Berlin and later in London among them the S Fischer publisher family Melanie Klein Ernest Jones the Spenders and Julian Huxley While moving within a social class known for its cultural and avant-garde activities Freud refrained from spatial formal or technological experiments Instead he focused on creating modern homes for his bourgeois clients      Freud's Jaw and Other Lost Objects Lana Lin,2017-11-07 What does it mean to live with life-threatening illness How does one respond to loss Freud's Jaw and Other Lost Objects attempts to answer these questions and as such illuminates the vulnerabilities of the human body and how human beings suffer harm In particular it examines how cancer disrupts feelings of bodily integrity and agency Employing psychoanalytic theory and literary analysis Lana Lin tracks three exemplary figures psychoanalyst Sigmund Freud poet Audre Lorde and literary and queer theorist Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick Freud's sixteen-year ordeal with a prosthetic jaw the result of oral cancer demonstrates the powers and failures of prosthetic objects in warding off physical and psychic fragmentation Lorde's life writing reveals how losing a breast to cancer is experienced as yet another attack directed toward her racially and sexually vilified body Sedgwick's memoir and breast cancer advice column negotiate her morbidity by disseminating a public discourse of love and pedagogy Lin concludes with an analysis of reparative efforts at the rival Freud Museums in London and Vienna The disassembled Freudian archive like the subjectivities in dissolution upon which the book focuses shows how the labor of integration is tethered to persistent discontinuities Freud's Jaw asks what are the psychic effects of surviving in proximity to one's mortality and it suggests that violences stemming from social cultural and biological environments condition the burden of such injury Drawing on psychoanalyst Melanie Klein's concept of reparation wherein constructive forces are harnessed to repair damage to internal psychic objects Lin proposes that the prospect of imminent destruction paradoxically incites creativity The afflicted are obliged to devise means to reinstate at least temporarily their destabilized physical and psychic unity through creative reparative projects of love and writing Inside the Freud Museums Joanne Morra, 2017-12-11

Sigmund Freud spent the final year of his life at 20 Maresfield Gardens London surrounded by all his possessions in exile from the Nazis The long term home and workspace he left behind in Berggasse 19 Vienna is a seemingly empty space devoid of the great psychoanalyst's objects and artefacts Now museums both of these spaces resonate powerfully Since 1989 the Freud Museum London has held over 70 exhibitions by a distinctive range of artists including Louise Bourgeois Sophie Calle Mat Collishaw Susan Hiller Sarah Lucas and Tim Noble and Sue Webster The Sigmund Freud Museum Vienna houses a small but impressive contemporary art collection with work by John Baldessari Joseph Kosuth Jenny Holzer Franz West and Ilya Kabakov In this remarkable book Joanne Morra offers a nuanced analysis of these historical museums and their unique relationships to contemporary art Taking us on a journey through the site responsive artworks exhibitions and curatorial practices that intervene in the objects spaces and memories of these museums Joanne Morra offers a fresh experience of the history and practice of psychoanalysis of museums and contemporary art Encounters in the Virtual Feminist Museum Griselda Pollock, 2023-04-14

Michael Molnar, 2018-05-01 A moody Freud posed against a background of holiday pictures pinned to a wall or lurking at the very edge of a large family group or lost in a crowd of nineteenth century scientists These snapshots or posed portraits not only tell stories they also carry a specific emotional charge The earlier essays in this book follow traces of Freud's early years through the evidence of such album photographs the later essays use them to reconstruct the stories of various family members An unknown photo of his half brother Emanuel initiates an investigation into the Manchester Freuds An identity photo of his daughter Anna and the document to which it is attached throw light on the critical final days of her trip to England in 1914 A faded idyllic print of children playing evolves into a discussion of Ernst Freud's luck and childhood The suicide of Anna's artist cousin Tom Seidmann Freud emerges from a snap of her infant daughter Angela Laughing with Medusa Vanda Zajko, Miriam Leonard, 2006-01-12 Laughing with Medusa explores a series of interlinking questions including Does history's self-positioning as the successor of myth result in the exclusion of alternative narratives of the past How does feminism exclude itself from certain historical discourses Why has psychoanalysis placed myth at the centre of its explorations of the modern subject Why are the Muses feminine Do the categories of myth and politics intersect or are they mutually exclusive Does feminism's recourse to myth offer a script of resistance or commit it to an ineffective utopianism Covering a wide range of subject areas including poetry philosophy science history and psychoanalysis as well as classics this book engages with these questions from a truly interdisciplinary perspective It includes a specially commissioned work of fiction Iphigeneia's Wedding by the poet Elizabeth Cook

Memory, Anniversaries and Mental Health in International Historical Perspective Rebecca Wynter, Jennifer Wallis, Rob Ellis, 2023-07-19 This book is the first to explore memory misremembering forgetting and anniversaries in the history of psychiatry and mental health It challenges simplistic representations of the callous nature of mental health care in the past while at the same time eschewing a celebratory and uncritical marking of anniversaries and individuals Asking critical questions of the early Whiggish histories of mental health care the book problematizes the idea of a shared professional and institutional history and the abiding faith placed in the reform of medicine administration and even patients It contends that much post 1800 legislation drafted to ensure reform acted to preserve beliefs about the bad old days and a brighter future in the state memories of imperial powers which in turn exported these notions around the world Conversely the collection demonstrates the variety of remembering and forgetting building on recent interest in the ideological and cultural linkages between past and present in international psychiatric practice In this way it seeks to trace the pathways of memory exploring the direction of travel and the perpetuation remodeling and uprooting of recollection Chapter The New Socialist Citizen and Forgetting Authoritarianism Psychiatry Psychoanalysis and Revolution in Socialist Yugoslavia is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link.springer.com

Essays in Migratory Aesthetics, 2015-06-29 This volume addresses the impact of human movement on the aesthetic practices that make up the fabric of culture The essays explore the ways in which cultural activities ranging from the habitual gestures of the body to the production of specific artworks register the impact of migration from the forced transportation of slaves to the New World and of Jews to the death camps to the economic migration of peoples between the West and its erstwhile colonies from the internal and external exile of Palestinians to the free movement of cosmopolitan intellectuals Rather than focusing exclusively on art produced by those identified as migrant subjects this collection opens up the question of how aesthetics itself migrates transforming not only its own practices and traditions but also the very nature of our being in the world as subjects producing as well as produced by the cultures in which we live The transformative potential of cultures on the move is both affirmed and critiqued throughout the collection as part of an exploration of the ways in which globalisation implicates us ever more tightly in the unequal relations of production that characterise late modernity This collection brings academic scholars from a variety of disciplines into conversation with practising visual and verbal artists indeed many of the essays break down the distinction between artist and academic suggesting a dynamic interchange between critical reflection and creativity
