Lycra, Lattes and the Long Way Round Mark Krieger, 2011-11-11 As I drew closer to the town of Pont de Vaux I found myself thinking of some of the places I'd passed through There were so many tiny hamlets villages and larger towns some vibrant and fine looking others lifeless run down and in dire need of repair Then there were of course the countless numbers of French people who had helped me piece together the jigsaw of roads along my way The places I was riding through weren't quite the same but there was that unmistakable pungent smell of agriculture in the air and the sight of fat cows chomping lazily on mouthfuls of grass It was vastly different from the Hautes Alps and the bustling stretch of Mediterranean coast but full of its own charm and character nonetheless Beginning with the idea of tackling some of Europe's most formidable mountains on his road bike Mark Krieger along with his wife Roz started his journey around France from the medieval town of Langres and instantly fell in love with the country Known for its history culture fine cuisine and above all its cycling it became the perfect setting for a Tour of a lifetime Long Way Down Ewan McGregor, Charley purportedly under our control These poems strain at the lead The torque is felt in the line the verb the wild thinking in metaphor The maturity of James Langer's vision reveals itself here in the cumulative effect of his rhetoric He won't land on his quarry Love Forgiveness Respect of Place Clarity of Memory He will however attain wisdom within these poems a measured equanimity that can be traced back to the Stoics These lines are like those of Les Murray Seamus Heaney Derek Walcott and Robin Robertson Here is a debut from a genuine fully formed talent whose poems reach the sublime The songs became staples of the big band era and were regularly featured in the musicals of early Hollywood. With his collaborators who included Richard A. Whiting, Harry Warren, Hoagy Carmichael, Jerome Kern, and Harold Arlen, he wrote the lyrics to some of the most famous standards among them: "Too Marvelous for Words," "Jeepers Creepers," "Skylark," "I'm Old Fashioned," and "That Old Black Magic." During a career of more than four decades, Mercer was nominated for the Academy Award for Best Song an astonishing eighteen times and won four for his lyrics to "On the Atchison Topeka and the Santa Fe," "Music by Warren," "In the Cool, Cool Cool of the Evening," "Music by Carmichael," and "Moon River." "Days of Wine and Roses" was music for both by Henry Mancini. You've probably fallen in love with more than a few of Mercer's songs; his words have never gone out of fashion, and with this superb collection, it's easy to see that his lyrics elevated popular song into art. Yonggom Wambon, a Dumut language of West Papua Wilco van den Heuvel, 2025-02-27 In this book, the author Wilco van den Heuvel intends to make Drabbe's 1959 description of Yonggom Wambon available to a wider scientific public. As such, the book is in line with an earlier reanalysis by the same author of Drabbe's description of Aghu, 1957, which was published in 2016. In only 45 pages, Drabbe managed to present an incredible amount of Yonggom Wambon language data. The current work takes over 400 pages for their re-representation and reanalysis and includes a 500-item wordlist that Drabbe had written a few years earlier. This book attempts both to increase our understanding of the peculiarities of this individual language and to contribute to our understanding of the past and present of this still very under-documented part of our globe. An area where, as Drabbe foresaw, minority languages are disappearing, giving way to a common national language. The author expresses his gratefulness to Drabbe for having unravelled some of the complexities of the languages in this area, which in Drabbe's words form an eldorado for the practitioners of general linguistics: a labyrinth without escape for missionaries, and in the author's words, offer a unique and highly valuable perspective on specific communities in a specific

The Small Community, Foundation of Democratic Life Arthur Ernest Morgan, 2013-01-14     Buried Deep and Other Stories Naomi Novik, 2025-06-17 LOCUS AWARD FINALIST A thrilling collection of thirteen short stories that span the worlds of the New York Times bestselling author of the Scholomance trilogy including a sneak peek at the land where her next novel will be set. From the dragon-filled Temeraire series and the gothic magical halls of the Scholomance trilogy through the realms next door to Spinning Silver and Uprooted, this stunning collection takes us from fairy tale to fantasy, myth to history and mystery to science fiction as we travel through Naomi Novik's most beloved stories. Here among many others we encounter a mushroom witch who learns that sometimes the worst thing in the Scholomance can be your roommate. The start of the Dragon Corps in ancient Rome after Mark Antony hatches a dragon's egg and bonds with the hatchling. A young bride in the Middle Ages who finds herself gambling with Death for the highest of stakes. A delightful reimagining of Pride and Prejudice in which Elizabeth Bennet captains a Longwing dragon. The first glimpse of the world of Abandon, the setting of Novik's upcoming epic fantasy series, a deserted continent populated only by silent and enigmatic architectural mysteries. Though the stories are vastly different, there is a unifying theme wrestling with destiny and the lengths some will go to find their own and fulfill its promise.

Tiny Voices Talk Toria Bono, 2022-11-03 When tiny voices talk, three amazing things happen: they share surprising ideas and insights, they realise they are not so tiny, and they empower other tiny voices to talk too. Drawing on the winning formula of her Tiny Voice Talks podcasts, Toria Bono has compiled a great resource full of top tips and actionable advice from a range of tiny voices across the educational spectrum. The assembled voices speak on a broad range of topics relating to education and learner development, from mentoring, metacognitive skills, and period education to trauma-informed practice, nurturing curious learners, and finding flow in the classroom. But above all, this book is a call to action for all those in our schools who have yet to find their voice, to find it and use it. There are big people with big voices and big egos in education, yet they are the minority. The majority consists of great people just getting on with doing great things more often than not with people not at the heart of their practice. This book inspires such people to find and use their voice, and when tiny voices talk to tiny voices, everyone wins. Suitable for teachers, teaching assistants, and school
