Copyright Office,1975      The Girl Who Baptized Herself Meggan Watterson,2025-07-22 This riveting exploration of a nearly lost first century scripture tells the story of a courageous saint named Thecla and offers us a road map to knowing our worth Meggan Watterson writes with a prophet s vision and a mystic s heart Arianna Huffington founder and CEO Thrive Global A teenage girl named Thecla is sitting at her bedroom window listening to a man share stories nearby Her mother and fianc order her to stop But Thecla trapped in a world that expects her to marry and have children refuses This man Paul is talking about a world she wants to believe in an inner world of freedom to define her own life And he s talking about a kind of love she hasn t known before a love that asks her to be true to who she is within For Meggan Watterson a Harvard trained feminist theologian Thecla s story in The Acts of Paul and Thecla has everything to do with power Thecla s refusal to be controlled as well as the authority she reclaims by baptizing herself reads like a lost gospel for finding our own source of power within a power that allows us to know who we are and to make choices based on that knowing This hidden scripture suggests that Christianity before the fourth century was about defying the patriarchy not deifying it But early church fathers excluded The Acts of Paul and Thecla along with other sacred texts such as The Gospel of Mary from the New Testament Watterson synthesizes scripture memoir and politics to illuminate a story that has been left out of the canon for far too long one that follows a girl freeing herself from a life predicated on the expectations of others a path that made her feel unworthy Thecla s story offers us a path to take back the power we often give to others and live based on the truth of who we are      Seventeenth-Century Cultural Discourse Thomas Worcester,2011-08-25 The series Religion and Society RS contributes to the exploration of religions as social systems both in Western and non Western societies in particular it examines religions in their differentiation from and intersection with other cultural systems such as art economy law and politics Due attention is given to paradigmatic case or comparative studies that exhibit a clear theoretical orientation with the empirical and historical data of religion and such aspects of religion as ritual the religious imagination constructions of tradition iconography or media In addition the formation of religious communities their construction of identity and their relation to society and the wider public are key issues of this series

The Comfort Food Diaries Emily Nunn, 2017-09-26 A former New Yorker editor chronicles her journey to heal old wounds and find comfort in the face of loss through travel friends and family and home cooked meals in this memoir full of warm bracing honesty humor and paradox and sprinkled liberally with the type of recipes that will make book club members say I could make that Booklist starred review One life changing night reeling from her beloved brother's sudden death a devastating breakup with her handsome engineer fiancé and eviction from the apartment they shared Emily Nunn had lost all sense of family home and financial security After a few glasses of wine heartbroken and unmoored Emily an avid cook and professional food writer poured her heart out on Facebook The next morning she woke up with an awful hangover and a feeling she'd made a terrible mistake only to discover she had more friends than she knew many of whom invited her to come visit and cook with them while she put her life back together Thus began the Comfort Food Tour Searching for a way forward Emily travels the country cooking and staying with relatives and friends Her wonderfully idiosyncratic family comes to life in these pages all part of the rich Southern story in which past and present are indistinguishable food is a source of connection and identity and a good story is often preferred to a not so pleasant truth But truth pleasant or not is what Emily Nunn craves and with it comes an acceptance of the losses she has endured and a sense of hope for the future In the salty snap of a single Virginia ham biscuit in the sour tang of Great Grandmother's Mean Lemon Cake Nunn experiences the healing power of comfort food and offers up dozens of recipes for the wonderful meals that saved her life The Comfort Food Diaries is nothing less than a tour de force by Emily Nunn our most hilarious and touching food writer You'll laugh you'll cry and you'll get hungry Mark Bittman author of How to Cook Everything

Lost Within... Diane Anjoue, 2006-01-27 Poetry Collection de Jolie Laide A collection of poetry filled with love life laughter and even heartbreak Jolie laide is a fascinating slang expression borne of the French Literally it means pretty ugly yet it describes an aspect of feminine beauty that is human and not artificially created It is a form of wonderful quirkiness implying charisma a face you're drawn to even if you can't decide whether or not it is beautiful Mother S.E. Lynes, 2017-11-22

Flourish Kasondra Rose, 2005-12 Venture into a young artist's world in Flourish Multi disciplinary artist Kasondra Rose creates an anthology of verses culled from her poetry journals which chronicled her experiences in the creative life Introspective and inspired Kasondra creates impressions on life and love with words having rhythm and grace and dancing across the pages of this book The poems have a lyrical and musical quality which is not surprising as the author is a practicing singer songwriter Expressive and profound these poems elevate one's senses and lend us the ability to see and listen to the world arounds us through a sensitive artist's soul
