Loving the Addict Raven Storm,2012-10-09 Loving The Addict is based on a true story This story has everything from love lust hate dominance obsession sex police chases drug lords violence abuse deceit betrayal and most of all survival Know one understood the power that Jake controlled over my heart A Spell some would say that could not be broken An addiction I would say In the beginning the motivation behind writing the book Loving The Addict was a jotting down in a journal as self therapy to cope with what happened to me and was used to help me deal with the abuse that had occurred in my life Loving the Addict was an incredible read from beginning to end not just because it is a page turner but because it is a true story about intense compelling and emotional subject matter that morphs into a honest insight into survival and ultimately personal redemption When I read the book I couldn t put it down The story of Jake and Brenda has so many layers that it keeps you constantly guessing what the highs and lows are going to bring The complexities of both characters and Brenda s personal points of view make for an amazing read but also a change of insight and perception of the core themes love addiction and domestic violence Natalie

Wilkes, 2021-03-02

Hope is part of the spiritual vocabulary of the believer in Jesus Christ The word is found abundantly in the Scriptures We speak of it in our testimonies and fellowship We sing about it in our corporate worship Yet it would seem at times that our concept of hope is understood in merely some vague way Hope seems like an abstraction something we consider only theoretically not something that really matters or makes a difference However biblical hope is a gospel grace that provides joy and endurance for our lives right now A Hope Filled Life seeks to define biblical hope and provide a practical theology for understanding and applying it to our lives Hope is indeed not an optional add on but a vital necessity Embracing the many truths about hope in the Scriptures strengthens our hearts As we run the race set before us we must grow in our understanding that Jesus Christ is truly our great Savior and our sure and steadfast hope
