Modernising European Union labour law Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: European Union Committee,2007-06-27 In its Green Paper about the need for labour market reform the European Commission argued that the increasing diversity of 21st century working relationships means that existing labour law is no longer adequate This report brings together the evidence from a wide range f experts and representative bodies about these issues as they affect the UK labour market It finds that the evidence does not support the Commission The consensus is that the relatively light regulation of the UK labour market is advantageous and that problems of social disadvantage and structural unemployment are better addressed by measures aimed at tackling poor skills and social inequality rather than changing labour law The report therefore recommends that efforts at EU level should focus on the promotion and sharing of good practice rather than the introduction of new legislation Justice of the Peace and County, Borough, Poor Law Union and Parish Law Records ,1838 Country Reports on Human Rights Practices ,2001 Conflict and Accommodation in Western Kenya Robert M.
