Beyond the Battlefield Sam C. Sarkesian, 2013-10-22 Beyond the Battlefield: The New Military Professionalism presents the nature and character of military professionalism. This book describes the increasing tendency for the military to view professionalism mainly in terms of military skills. Organized into five parts encompassing 13 chapters, this book begins with an overview of the various concepts and definitions of military professionalism. This text then reexamines military professionalism in the post-Vietnam era with regard to perspectives on value convergence and empathy between military and society. Other chapters consider the changes in the international security environment and the complexity of national security policy. This book discusses as well the demands on the profession as a result of the changed security environment. The final chapter deals with the essential factors that establish the military mindset and world view as well as determine the quality of civil-military relations. This book is a valuable resource for military professionals and sociologists.

War Against the Poor Jack Nelson-Pallmeyer, 2017-01-09 The strategy of low-intensity conflict or LIC is a little-known yet sophisticated and deadly form of US intervention in the Third World. Drawing heavily on his own experience of living and working in Central America, Nelson-Pallmeyer shows how LIC victimizes the poor through various techniques: disinformation, manipulation of elections, economic exploitation, even as with the contras in Nicaragua, outright terrorism. Low-intensity conflict does more than disable the poor; it also threatens US democracy and undermines Christian faith. By integrating economic, psychological, diplomatic and military aspects of war into a unified package designed to manage or block social change in the Third World, US special interests use LIC to protect their elite positions and profits. So cynical in outline and so damaging in practice, Nelson-Pallmeyer argues, LIC presents Christians in the United States with a situation similar to that faced by the Confessing Churches in Nazi Germany.
