LSE ON SOCIAL SCIENCE HELEN. DIAMOND SASSON (D.R.),2018

The Passionate Economist Sally Sheard,2014 Brian Abel Smith was one of the most influential figures in the shaping of social welfare in the twentieth century A modern day Thomas Paine the British economist and expert advisor was driven to improve the lives of the poor working with groups like the World Health Organization International Labour Organization and the World Bank to help bring health and social welfare services to millions across the globe The Passionate Economist is the first biography to chronicle his life and the many programs he helped create Sally Sheard details Abel Smith s work as an economist and advocate setting it against the backdrop of the larger history of health and social welfare development since the 1950s She analyzes these developments and the effects that long running welfare debates have had on both poverty and state responses to it She compares welfare implementation in different developing countries and examines how it was administered by the agencies for which Abel Smith worked The result is an accessible book on a leading humanitarian and through him a history of exactly how we have cared for each other in the globalized era On Freedom Eileen

Barker,2021-12-24 The London School of Economics and Political Science has embraced the full range of the social sciences and its related disciplines Contributors to this book were invited to write on the subject of freedom Policing, Popular

Culture and Political Economy Robert Reiner,2017-07-05 Robert Reiner has been one of the pioneers in the development of research on policing since the 1970s as well as a prolific writer on mass media and popular culture representations of crime and criminal justice His work includes the renowned books The Politics of the Police and Law and Order An Honest Citizen s Guide to Crime and Control an analysis of the neo liberal transformation of crime and criminal justice in recent decades This volume brings together many of Reiner s most important essays on the police written over the last four decades as well as selected essays on mass media and on the neo liberal transformation of crime and criminal justice All the work included in this important volume is underpinned by a framework of analysis in terms of political economy and a commitment to the ethics and politics of social democracy Thinking About Criminology Simon Holdaway,Paul Rock,2005-08-11

First published in 1998 Thinking about criminology draws together the expertise of respected criminologists from the principle contemporary schools of thought The book aims to provide a clear analysis of the relationship between sociological theory and contemporary empirical criminological research discussing the ways in which theoretical perspectives have contributed to the understanding of relevant criminal justice institutions law and policy Journal of Economic une institution d'enseignement et de recherche a-t-elle contribué à la théorisation et la mise en pratique d'un système politique et social. Quels sont les effets en retour de sa prise de position sur la scène publique ? Comment dialoguent science et pouvoir dans la Grande-Bretagne du Welfare State de 1940-1979 ? Les rapports complexes de légitimation ou de critique entre science et politique, entre savoir et pouvoir sont au cœur de cet ouvrage.

Father and Daughter Oakley, Ann, 2014-10-22. Father and daughter provides a unique insider perspective on two key figures in twentieth century British social science. Ann Oakley, a highly respected sociologist and best selling writer, draws on her own life and that of her father Richard Titmuss, a well known policy analyst and defender of the welfare state, to offer an absorbing view of the connections between private lives and public work. Using an innovative mix of biography, autobiography, intellectual history, archives and personal interviews, some of which have not been previously available to the public, she provides a compelling narrative about gender, patriarchy, methodology and the politics of memory and identity. This fascinating analysis defies the usual social science publications to offer a truly distinctive account which will be of wide interest.
Dressed to Impress William J. F. Keenan, 2001-03. How humans dress defines their identity. These writings show how the dressed body is central to the construction of a recognizable identity and provide accessible accounts of the link between dress and a considerable variety of lifestyles.

Lse on Freedom Eileen Barker, The London School of Economics and Political Science. LSE has never confined itself to economics and political science but has embraced the full range of the social sciences and its related disciplines. Contributors to this book were invited to write on what they considered of importance concerning the subject of freedom. The volume is an exemplary reflection of the variety, the individuality, the different interests and the range of assumptions found in the scholars of the LSE. The authors come from varied backgrounds: linguistics, mathematics, computer science, sociology, geography, economics, industrial relations, anthropology, political science. They provide a stimulating array of viewpoints on the universally discussed issue of freedom.
