Azizur Rahman, 2016-08-04 Elixir of life is the fourth book of my written poems The poems are a reflection of life hence the title They show both sides of life the negative or the positive My view of life comes from the wisdom I have gained as a keen observer of life The nuances of life the experiences the struggles all of these tell a story I tried to portray them in my poems Human nature is very unpredictable Human sufferings teach us a different view of life I observe and marvel at the resilience people show in the face of adversity The truth of their realisation touches me too In repose at night several thoughts crowd my mind I try to write them down in my poems I hope and pray that readers will like my poems and the reflection of life they portray      Catalog of Copyright Entries.
