Ministering In The Secular University:

Ministering in the Secular University Joseph McRae Mellichamp, 1997 Equipped for the Work of Ministry Catholic Church, 1996 Inspired by and based on Pope John Paul II's apostolic exhortation I Will Give You Shepherds Pastores Dabo Vobis The Outrageous Idea of the Missional Professor, International Edition Paul M. Gould, 2019-06-05 The outrageous idea of this book is that God wants to use professors as professors to reach others transform the academy and meet the needs of the world God is on a mission to redeem and restore this fallen world and as members of one of the most influential institutions in society Christian professors in the university play an important role in that mission Becoming a missional professor will require a clear vision of God's heart for the lost as well as humankind's purpose and calling under the banner of Christ an understanding of the significance of the university as a cultural shaping institution and mission field and a desire for Christian wholeness in a fragmented world This idea is outrageous because many Christian professors struggle to live missionally and need a clear vision of such a life as well as role models to lead the way Many professors already living missional lives need encouragement to excel still more 1 Thess 4:10 We all need God's grace and mercy as we try to faithfully follow Christ within the university Paul M Gould PhD Purdue University teaches philosophy and apologetics at Oklahoma Baptist University and is the founder and president of the Two Tasks Institute D Keith Campbell PhD Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary is Global Partnerships Vice President at Global Scholars Li Ma PhD Cornell University is Senior Research Fellow at the Henry Institute for the Study of Christianity and Politics at Calvin College Omar Montero PhD Candidate University of Buenos Aires is Associate Professor and Researcher for Undergraduates and Postgraduates in the Architectural and Design Department at the University of Buenos Aires Granville W Pillar PhD University of Newcastle is Associate Professor of Philology at Ferenc Rákóczi II Transcarpathian Hungarian Institute Ukraine Osam Edim Temple PhD University of Ibadan is former Professor of Philosophy at the American University of Nigeria and Special Advisor to the Honourable Minister of Niger Delta Affairs Bee Lan C Wang PhD University of Chicago taught at the Science University of Malaysia Northern Illinois University and Wheaton College Illinois The Pastor in a Secular Age (Ministry in a Secular Age Book #2) Andrew Root, 2019-06-18 In Faith Formation in a Secular Age the first book in his Ministry in a Secular Age trilogy Andrew Root offered an alternative take on the issue of youth drifting away from the church and articulated how faith can be formed in our secular age In The Pastor in a Secular Age Root explores how this secular age has impacted the identity and practice of the pastor obscuring his or her core vocation to call and assist others into the experience of ministry Using examples of pastors throughout history from Augustine and Jonathan Edwards to Martin Luther King Jr and Nadia Bolz Weber Root shows how pastors have both perpetuated and responded to our secular age Root turns to Old Testament texts and to the theology of Robert Jenson to explain how pastors can regain the important role of attending to people's experiences of divine action offering a new vision for pastoral ministry today Bioengagement Nigel M. de S.

Cameron, Scott E. Daniels, Barbara White, 2000 Teaching in a Distant Classroom Michael H. Romanowski, Teri McCarthy, 2009-11-18 Veteran educators Mike Romanowski and Teri McCarthy provide an essential guide for Christians teaching in overseas contexts Providing both the theoretical framework as well as practical tools the authors offer concrete advice and real life examples for classroom instruction daily life and much more Creationism's Trojan Horse Barbara Forrest, Paul R. Gross, 2004-01-08 Forrest and Gross expose the scientific failure the religious essence and the political ambitions of intelligent design creationism They examine the movement's Wedge Strategy which has advanced and is succeeding through public relations rather than through scientific research Analyzing the content and character of intelligent design theory they highlight its threat to public education and to the separation of church and state Accountability Research Hugo Letiche, Ivo De Loo, Carolyn Cordery, Jean-Luc Moriceau, 2024-07-12 This book discusses auto ethnographies of accountability undertaken in close collaboration by a multinational group of accounting and organization theory researchers over a period of three years The key assumption underlying the book is that accountability is inherently an identity creating process where the study of account making has to be done participatively with radical openness to the one's being researched as well as to their context That openness we call ethnography The values or assumptions inherent to the practices of account and identity making in a specific context are what auto ethnographies seek to describe and identify These values and assumptions warrant critical ethical reflection and this is what the researchers presented here have tried to provide The chapters in this book all are mini studies of relatedness The scale of examination is intimate the reflections provided by the researchers are mainly methodological This book is of interest to accounting and organization theory students and scholars who believe that accountability can fruitfully be studied through auto ethnography The book extends currently existing views on how accountability can be handled and discharged between researchers and their researched when local intimate settings are studied The American University in a Postsecular Age Douglas Jacobsen, Rhonda Jacobsen, 2008-02-27 For much of the twentieth century it was assumed that higher education was and ought to be a secular enterprise but that approach no longer suffices The culture has shifted and contemporary college and university students are increasingly bringing religious and spiritual questions to campus In response college and university leaders are exploring anew the relationship between religion and higher education The American University in a Postsecular Age grapples with key questions How religious or irreligious are faculty and students today What level of religious literacy should be expected from students Can religion be allowed into the classroom without being disruptive Should colleges and universities help students reflect on their own faith Is religion antithetical to critical inquiry Can religion have a positive role to play in higher education This is a state of the art introduction to the national discussion about religion and higher education Leading scholars and top educators express a wide spectrum of opinions that reflect the best current thinking Introductory and concluding essays by the editors describe the postsecular character of our age and propose a comprehensive framework

Ministering Spiritually to Families William Jeynes, Enedina

Martinez, 2015-01-10 This book combines the research on spiritual ministering with the practice of counseling families. It examines such topics as how to prepare for marriage, how to keep a marriage, divorce, proof, and how parents influence children and vice versa. In its quest to discover what makes families thrive, the book addresses and compares best parenting practices and describes interventions that help the development of family ties over a large span of the life course. It offers guidance to families through several stages of family life: Pre-marital, marital, and raising children and adolescents. It makes clear that what constitutes an effective parent changes over the life course.

The Incarnation as God's First Intention

Edwin Chr. van Driel, 2025-10-21 In The Incarnation as God's First Intention, Edwin Chr. van Driel advocates a transformative perspective on the incarnation, proposing that God's decision to become incarnate was not a response to human sin but was instead God's first and foundational intention. Engaging the historical and theological roots of this supralapsarian view before the fall, Christology van Driel, a leading scholar on the topic, invites readers to reconsider long-held views on God's engagement with creation. With clarity and depth, van Driel unpacks how understanding the incarnation as God's original purpose reshapes the doctrines of creation, election, salvation, and eschatology. His insights offer a fresh framework for the church's mission in today's world, suggesting that God's presence with us is not merely a remedy for human fallenness but rather God's first intention and ultimate goal for creation. Written for students, theologians, and all who seek a deeper understanding of God's relation to the world, this book challenges readers to see the incarnation as God's dwelling among us as God's central purpose.

The Marketplace Annotated Bibliography

Pete Hammond, 2011-03 Every workday millions of Christians enter the marketplace. Whether as sales associates or engineers, auto mechanics or executives, Christians are called to serve God in the workplace. But most need help integrating faith and work. How can you be salt and light on the job? Where can you turn for help in developing a biblical and satisfying view?

Christianity, Education and Modern Society William

Jeynes, Enedina Martinez, 2007-10-01 The issues that these authors address in this book are some of the most salient in American society. It is imperative that Americans today address these issues and establish an appropriate world view. There is little question that how people resolve these issues will have a long-lasting impact on the future of civilization.

For a Greater Purpose Robert J. Marks II, William A. Dembski, 2020-09-02

Walter Bradley made a deal with God: he would unashamedly share his faith with students and faculty, and he would not let academic ambition prevent him from giving his faith and family the time they deserve. The day he could no longer keep that deal, he would leave the academy. He never had to. From his days as a determined graduate assistant sharing his love for Jesus with his first class to becoming one of the most respected engineering professors in academia, Walter Bradley remained a man of integrity, dedicated to truth and love. He's made a difference in myriad ways, from leading a small Bible study for students in his home to defending intelligent design before large crowds of his academic peers. He's equally comfortable performing ground-breaking research for NASA, serving as an expert witness in the courtroom or empowering people in Africa with appropriate technologies Through it all one thing has remained true Walter Bradley made a crucial difference for good in countless lives In For a Greater Purpose The Life and Legacy of Walter Bradley authors Robert Marks and William Dembski detail the story of this remarkable man whose passion for God science higher education and human empowerment provides an excellent model of someone who integrates faith and learning
