Norman Robert Bennett Norman R. Bennett,1971 The Oxford Handbook of Modern African History John Parker,Richard Reid,2013-10 Provides the latest insights into and interpretations of the history of Africa Insurgency and Counterinsurgency in the Nineteenth Century Mark Lawrence,2020-12-17 Insurgency and Counterinsurgency in the Nineteenth Century examines insurgency and counterinsurgency across the globe in the nineteenth century The volume includes chapters from distinguished and rising historians from Europe North and South America and covers irregular wars in Spain Ireland France Latin America China USA Africa Central Asia and Burma The authors explore links between insurgencies and nationalism including learning curves and emulation in counterinsurgency With a special emphasis on non Western warfare this volume includes case studies such as the Katanga and White Lotus rebellions largely unknown to Western readers The military history of the nineteenth century thus reveals much more than the symmetrical warfare of Napoleon Grant and Moltke This volume shows the commonalities of responses more than their differences and refracts these through themes which crop up repeatedly in different times and places These themes include common problems and solutions the challenge of commanding local intelligence networks public opinion millenarianism magic and religion technology hearts and minds the legal framework of state violence racial stereotypes and patterns of forgetting and remembering guerrilla conflicts The first recent study to examine Western and non Western warfare in equal measure stressing the prevalence of commonalities between guerrilla warfare and counterinsurgency across the globe Insurgency and Counterinsurgency in the Nineteenth Century will be of great interest to scholars of military and strategic studies as well as modern military history It was originally published as a special issue of Small Wars Insurgencies Sukuma Labor Songs from Western Tanzania Frank D. Gunderson,2010 This volume is an interpretive analysis of a collection of 335 song texts treated as primary historical sources The collection highlights the cultural practices that link music with labor in Sukuma communities in northwestern Tanzania These linkages are evident in the music of the elephant snake and porcupine hunting associations that flourished in the precolonial epoch in the nineteenth century regional and long distance porter associations and in the farmer associations that have proliferated since the beginning of the twentieth century Acting primarily as an interpretive editor the author collaborated with several Tanzanian scholars and translators towards fine tuning the translation of these texts into English and gathered testimonies in order to create succinct interpretive statements about the songs

Les Frontières du Burundi Jean-Pierre Chrétien, 2025-04-24 Par del les clichés sur les frontières dites naturelles et sur les découpages abstraits de la colonisation présentés comme une opération de la Conférence de Berlin de 1885 cette enquête sur la fabrique des frontières du Burundi montre la complexité d'un processus historique Tout commence avec les limites d'un royaume en expansion la fin du XIXe siècle L'impact de l'intrusion européenne partir des années 1890 s'est d'abord manifesté par des coups de crayon sur des cartes fantaisistes Une fois sur le terrain en 1896 les militaires de l'Afrique orientale allemande se trouvent confrontés ceux de l'Inde pendant du Congo Plus d'une centaine de dossiers des archives allemandes belges et britanniques clarifient les jeux de la force et de la diplomatie durant quinze ans Un territoire contesté est défini en 1899 entre un tracé topographique recoupant les montagnes et une délimitation hydrographique Au final le colonisateur allemand a utilisé un argumentaire la fois géographique et historique qui a débouché en 1910 après la mort du roi Léopold II sur une délimitation occidentale du Burundi largement conforme son histoire sur le lac Tanganyika et la vallée de la Rusizi Mais concrètement ces plaines de l'Imbo représentaient dans le vécu des Burundais un espace économique et culturel particulier en fonction des contacts politico commerciaux noués depuis les années 1850 avec les Arabes et les Swahili venus de la côte de l'océan Indien l'issue de la Première Guerre mondiale une frontière internationale s'est établie le Burundi du Tanganyika britannique auquel la province du Bugufi au nord-est est rattachée malgré les protestations de la monarchie burundaise jusqu'aux années 1940 Les frontières en Afrique comme en Europe sont les cicatrices d'une histoire

Buying Time Thomas F. McDow, 2018-05-25 In Buying Time Thomas F. McDow synthesizes Indian Ocean Middle Eastern and East African studies as well as economic and social history to explain how in the nineteenth century credit mobility and kinship knit together a vast interconnected Indian Ocean region That vibrant and enormously influential swath extended from the desert fringes of Arabia to Zanzibar and the Swahili coast and on to the Congo River watershed In the half century before European colonization Africans and Arabs from coasts and hinterlands used newfound sources of credit to seek out opportunities establish new outposts in distant places and maintain families in a rapidly changing economy They used temporizing strategies to escape drought in Oman join ivory caravans in the African interior and build new settlements The key to McDow's analysis is a previously unstudied trove of Arabic business deeds that show complex variations on the financial transactions that underwrote the trade economy across the region The documents list names genealogies statuses and clan names of a wide variety of people Africans Indians and Arabs men and women free and slave who bought sold and mortgaged property Through unprecedented use of these sources McDow moves the historical analysis of the Indian Ocean beyond connected port cities to reveal the roles of previously invisible people
