Mabille, 2018-04-10 A surrealist exploration of the marvelous in ancient classic and modern works from around the world Long considered one of the most significant and original books to have come out of the surrealist movement Reveals the marvelous in works from William Blake Edgar Allen Poe William Shakespeare Chr tien de Troyes and Arthur Rimbaud legends and folktales from around the world classics from Ovid Plato and Apuleius Masonic ritual texts Mesopotamia s Epic of Gilgamesh the Popol Vuh Lewis Carroll s Alice through the Looking Glass Solomon s Song of Songs and Goethe s Faust First published in French as Miroir du merveilleux in 1940 Mirror of the Marvelous has long been considered one of the most significant and original books to have come out of the surrealist movement and Ana s Nin suggested it as a source of inspiration far ahead of its time Drawing on sacred and modern texts that share a quality of the marvelous Pierre Mabille defines the marvelous as the point at which inner and outer realities are joined and the individual is simultaneously one with himself and with the world thus recovering the true sense of the sacred He shows how the marvelous goes beyond simply being a synonym for the fantastic to engage the entire emotional realm Mabille cites a far reaching range of texts from the classic to the obscure from Egyptian myth to Voodoo initiation ceremonies from the ancient epic to the modern poem from the creation myth to more contemporary visions of apocalypse He includes surrealist analyses of works from William Blake Edgar Allen Poe William Shakespeare Chr tien de Troyes and Arthur Rimbaud legends and folktales from Egypt Iceland Mexico Africa India and other cultures classics from Ovid Plato and Apuleius Masonic ritual texts Mesopotamia s Epic of Gilgamesh the Popol Vuh Lewis Carroll s Alice through the Looking Glass Solomon s Song of Songs and selections from Goethe s Faust Mirror of the Marvelous actively defines the flame of the marvelous by showing its presence in those works where it burns the brightest

Mirrors of Destruction Omer Bartov, 2000-08-24 Mirrors of Destruction examines the relationship between total war state organized genocide and the emergence of modern identity Here Omer Bartov demonstrates that in the twentieth century there have been intimate links between military conflict mass murder of civilian populations and the definition and categorization of groups and individuals These connections were most clearly manifested in the Holocaust as the Nazis attempted to exterminate European Jewry under cover of a brutal war and with the stated goal of creating a racially pure Aryan population and Germanic empire The Holocaust however can only be understood within the context of the century s predilection for applying massive and systematic methods of destruction to resolve conflicts over identity To provide the context for the Final Solution Bartov examines the changing relationships between Jews and non Jews in France and Germany from the outbreak of World War I to the present Rather than presenting a comprehensive history or a narrative from a single perspective Bartov views the past century through four interrelated prisms He begins with an analysis of the glorification of war and violence from its modern birth in the trenches of World War I to its horrifying culmination in the presentation of genocide by the SS as a glorious undertaking He then examines the pacifist reaction in interwar France to show how it contributed to a climate of collaboration with dictatorship and mass murder The book goes on to argue that much of the discourse on identity throughout the century has had to do with identifying and eliminating society's elusive enemies or enemies from within Bartov concludes with an investigation of modern apocalyptic visions showing how they have both encouraged mass destructions and opened a way for the reconstruction of individual and collective identities after a catastrophe Written with verve Mirrors of Destruction is rich in interpretations and theoretical tools and provides a new framework for understanding a central trait of modern history
