forties and fifties especially Ficciones and El Aleph to be his most significant works and organizes its material in consequence. About two thirds of the book analyzes the stories of this period text by text. The early sections map Borges's intellectual trajectory up to the fifties in some detail and up to his death more briefly. They aim to provide an account of the context which will allow the reader maximum access to the meaning and significance of his work and present a biographical narrative developed against the Argentine literary world in which Borges was a key player, the Argentine intellectual tradition in its historical context and the Argentine and world politics to which his works respond in more or less obvious ways.

STEVEN BOLDY is Reader in Latin American Literature at the University of Cambridge.
