Bowen, 2017-09-11 In A History of Conversion to Islam in the United States Volume 2 The African American Islamic Renaissance 1920 1975 Patrick D Bowen offers an in depth account of African American Islam as it developed in the United States during the fifty five years that followed World War I Having been shaped by a wide variety of intellectual and social influences the African American Islamic Renaissance appears here as a movement that was characterized by both great complexity and diversity Drawing from a wide variety of sources including dozens of FBI files rare books and periodicals little known archives and interviews and even folktale collections Patrick D Bowen disentangles the myriad social and religious factors that produced this unprecedented period of religious transformation Punjab Weekly Reporter, 1913

Addiction to Religion Mahfooz Kanwar Ph.D., 2015-05-22 After the Second World War in the 1950s and beyond we embraced revolutionary emancipation of women among other things which led to an unprecedented sexual and cultural revolution especially in the West We discarded some of the old ways of doing things and we opened the door to a brand new and modern civilization in the 1960s 1970s and early 1980s The sexual and cultural revolution led us to secularism which challenged many draconian mores including those in Muslim countries such as Pakistan Malaysia Turkey Iran Tunisia and Morocco That was when I published one of my books Sociology of Religion Changing Conceptions in the Structure of Islam However in relatively recent times we have faced the backward process of reverting to traditional norms That reversed cultural change led to fundamentalism including fundamentalism in religion which is a precursor to addiction to religion That has ultimately resulted in national and international terrorism That born again trend encouraged me to do research in this field including addiction to religion That led me to write this book I have concluded in this book that both addiction to drugs and addiction to religion are a disease a delirium and a psychic syndrome influenced by a mental disorder During the last two to three decades there has been a significant rise in religious fundamentalism leading to addiction to religion which has caused global havoc Religion has been hijacked misused and abused largely by semiliterate believers in all organized religions Religious addiction is perhaps worse than drug addiction Other books by the Author 1 The Sociology of Family An Interdisciplinary Approach 2 Sociology of Criminal Behaviour 3 Sociology of Religion Changing Conceptions in the Structure of Islam 4 Murder and Homicide in Pakistan 5 Issues in Canadian Sociology with Hewa 6 Issues in Canadian Sociology 2nd Ed with Swenson 7 Canadian Sociology with Swenson 8 Journey to Success my autobiography currently in its tenth edition
