Moving Art:

Moving Modernism Nell Andrew, 2020 The emergence of modern dance and the early history of cinema ran concurrent with the European avant garde's development of pictorial abstraction in the first decades of the 20th century. However, many assume that modernist abstraction resulted from a century of natural autonomous evolution to painting styles and tastes. In Moving Modernism, author Nell Andrew challenges this assumption. By examining dance and film created during this period, she argues that performative modes of art created the link between bodily movement and movement depicted in modernist paintings. In a seeming paradox, dance and film, durational arts involving real bodies in space, participated in the development of abstract art. With archival material collected in North America and Europe, Moving Modernism resurfaces lost performances, identifies working methods, and establishes the circles of aesthetic influence and reception for avant garde dance pioneers and experimental film makers from the turn of the century to the interwar period. Reexamining the motivation that fueled the emergence of abstraction, Andrew claims that painters sought meaning not only in the material and formal picture but also in temporal and sensorial experience. Andrew looks at major figures and intellectual movements including Loie Fuller and Symbolism, Valentine de Saint Point and the Cubo-Futurist and neo-Symbolist movements, and early cinematic abstraction from Edison and the Lumière to Hans Richter and Marcel Duchamp. Close examinations of each figure show that theatrical display, embodied self-projection, and kinesthetic desire are not necessarily in opposition to pictorial abstraction; in fact, they expand our understanding of the urges that created modern art. Moving Innovation Tom Sito, 2015-08-21 A behind-the-scenes history of computer graphics featuring a cast of math nerds, avant garde artists, cold warriors, hippies, video game players, and studio executives. Computer graphics or CG has changed the way we experience the art of moving images. Computer graphics is the difference between Steamboat Willie and Buzz Lightyear, between ping pong and PONG. It began in 1963 when an MIT graduate student named Ivan Sutherland created Sketchpad, the first true computer animation program. Sutherland noted, "Since motion can be put into Sketchpad drawings, it might be exciting to try making cartoons." This book, the first full-length history of CG, shows us how Sutherland's seemingly offhand idea grew into a multibillion-dollar industry. In Moving Innovation, Tom Sito, himself an animator and industry insider for more than thirty years, describes the evolution of CG. His story features a memorable cast of characters: math nerds, avant garde artists, cold warriors, hippies, video game enthusiasts, and studio executives—disparate types united by a common vision. Sito shows us how fifty years of work by this motley crew made movies like Toy Story and Avatar possible. Getting Off Lee Breuer, 2019-07-16 Since he first arrived on the New York art-theatre performance scene in 1970, Lee Breuer has been at the forefront of the American theatrical avant garde, creating challenging works both independently and with Mabou Mines, the company he co-founded with JoAnne Akalaitis, Philip Glass, Ruth Maleczek, and David Warrilow. By blending disciplines and techniques from widely different cultures, he has created a unique performance genre fusing sound and musical components, visual arts, and arresting movement dance puppetry into a groundbreaking form Breuer's work as a director includes radical adaptations of major works such as his celebrated stagings of The Lost Ones by Samuel Beckett The Gospel at Colonus inspired by Sophocles a gender reversed King Lear and a revolutionary reinterpretation of Ibsen with Mabou Mines DollHouse Breuer has also been a prolific writer who redefines the concept of character and the use of biography in such works as The Shaggy Dog Animation A Prelude to Death in Venice Hajj Ecco Porco and La Divina Caricatura in a distinctive American voice In this volume theatre historian and journalist Stephen Nunns has assembled a unique look into one of contemporary theatre's most singular creative minds Using interviews and excerpts from Breuer's writings with added historical commentary the thrilling result is equal parts autobiography artistic manifesto and critical exploration Extensively illustrated with photographs of his work from around the world this is a one of a kind portrait of the artist and theatrical activist at work

The Lasting Picture Show James Combs, 2018-10-01 This work is the continuation of a sustained inquiry into moving pictures conducting with an awareness of their prominence and prevalence in the contemporary world A major indicator of the ubiquity of motion pictures is noticed by world travelers who see the traces of their universality with the satellites on nomadic yurts in Asia and TV sets in remote and poor African villages It is only now becoming realised that this mode of communication may well be the most pervasive and perhaps even the most important mass medium ever invented With that background in mind this book focuses on cinematic knowing as an expression of ludenic experience important as a major source of play learning in a world which is increasingly wired to the various forms of moving pictures It investigates how this way of seeing has expanded our visual acuity and experience including not only hindsight and foresight but also insight and indeed even blindsight It discusses the acquired abilities inherent in our cinematic understandability the extent and depth of knowing that is learned from our life long experience of exposure to motion pictures including forms other than the movies such as TV programming commercials and documentaries It proceeds on the assumption that the most influential of this universe of visual expression is the one with the most important background and cultural impact the motion picture show This ludenic center of popular fare involved the creation of a heterocosm a body of popular knowledge that accumulates and promulgates values and interests in visually identifiable formats becoming in the process a kind of cultural enthymeme enjoyed for its expressive ability to reach people and proved to be resilient and flexible in adapting to and addressing new circumstances Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 ,2003
