Masculinity and Popular Television Rebecca Feasey, 2008-10-06 This book is a comprehensive and accessible introduction to the key debates concerning the representation of masculinities in a wide range of popular television genres The volume looks at the depiction of public masculinity in the soap opera homosexuality in the situation comedy the portrayal of fatherhood in prime time animation emerging manhood in the supernatural teen text alternative gender roles in science fiction male authority in the police series masculine anxieties in the hospital drama

violence and aggression in sports coverage ordinariness and emotional connectedness in the reality game show and domesticity in lifestyle television Masculinity and Popular Television examines the ways in which masculinities are being constructed circulated and interrogated in contemporary British and American programming and considers the ways in which such images can be understood in relation to the common sense model of the hegemonic male that is said to dominate the cultural landscape

Jamie Oliver Stephanie Watson,2013-11-22 This book covers the life and career of celebrity chef Jamie Oliver The book traces Oliver s childhood in Essex England where he dropped out of school due to dyslexia and went on to culinary school The volume then details Oliver s rise to fame as a television host author and activist

Celebrity Chefs, Food Media and the Politics of Eating Joanne Hollows,2022-08-11 Working across food studies and media studies Joanne Hollows examines the impact of celebrity chefs on how we think about food and how we cook shop and eat Hollows explores how celebrity chefs emerged in both restaurant and media industries making chefs like Jamie Oliver and Gordon Ramsay into global stars She also shows how blogs and YouTube enabled the emergence of new types of branded food personalities such as Deliciously Ella and BOSH As well as providing a valuable introduction to existing research on celebrity chefs Hollows uses case studies to analyse how celebrity chefs shape food practices and wider social political and cultural trends Hollows explores their impact on ideas about veganism healthy eating and the Covid 19 pandemic and how their advice is bound up with class gender and race She also demonstrates how celebrity chefs such as Jamie Oliver Hugh Fearnley Whittingstall Nadiya Hussain and Jack Monroe have become food activists and campaigners who intervene in contemporary debates about the environment food poverty and nation

Digital Food Tania Lewis,2020-02-20 Tania Lewis offers the first critical account of the impact of digital information media and communication technologies on the topic of food Lewis critically analyzes how our relationship to food consumption production and politics is being re mediated through digitally connected electronic devices practices and content By drawing together the world of food and the digital the book speaks to a number of pressing contemporary themes including the tensions around digital engagement in increasingly commercialized spaces the changing nature of politics in a social media context the growing naturalization of digital devices and related practices of data monitoring and the role and impact of digitization on social relations At the forefront of critical new research and written with a student readership in mind this text is essential for scholars interested in media studies cultural studies food studies and cultural geography

Media and Food Industries Michelle Phillipov,2017-09-20 This volume is the first to combine textual analysis of food media texts with interviews with media production staff reality TV contestants celebrity chefs and food producers and retailers across the artisan conventional spectrum Intensified media interest in food has seen food politics become a dominant feature of popular media from television and social media to cookbooks and advertising This is often thought to be driven by consumers and by new ethics of consumption but Media and Food Industries reveals how contemporary food politics is also being shaped by political and economic imperatives within the media and food industries It explores the behind the scenes production dynamics of contemporary food media to assess the roles of and relationships between media and food industries in shaping new concerns and meanings with respect to food The Navigator Pearson Education,2002-04-26 Navigator is a KS2 reading scheme which covers fiction and non fiction It provides material to give pupils a 20 minute guided reading session per week during each school year "But I Digress ..."
