Carlyle     Hypocrites and Mirrors Caleb Masaji Yamanaka, 2001-08-27 Kyle Lynch believes in true love The summer of 1997 and everything has turned to shit School is over and every person Kyle knows is going out into the new world Like a group of Columbus searching for their own new definition One in which truth justice and love all co exists amongst that which is modern American society Its 221 years of propaganda 70 years since the lost generation 35 years since the beats and everything else in between One can only figure it out for himself So Kyle sets out first to find himself and then to find something to live for The search for Mr Cassady and guy named Raul An idealist with no actual intellect but a genuine heart Kyle travels from L A to home back to L A and then upon a road trip that leads nowhere except into the very depths of his own mind Kyle When you sit down and take a look back at yourself sometimes the initial image is quite appealing Filled with ideals convictions beliefs and a knack for excitement You or in the case of myself you lament the good times past That hot red head in San Diego that could suck a dick like it had been her pacifier all her life Its all glitz and glamour Looking back you feel old and haggard Tired and unfulfilled so you lunge harder into your new life that cant by any means live up to the life youve already lived Its always the search Life has to be lived and level by level we search to grow Following the rutted path makes no sense when only the exploration means anything So we embark with no map and no star to guide us through our travails No understanding of love No understanding of right No wrong Just life Left or right no middle And so it begins
