

This is the feast-time of the year,
When hearts grow warmer, and home more
dear;
When autumn's crimson torch expires,
To flash again in winter fires;
And they who tracked October's flight,
In charmed circle sit and praise
The goodly logs' triumphant blaze.

Sir Edwin Arnold 1832 1904 was an English poet and journalist who is most known for his work The Light of Asia

The literary task which he set before him was the interpretation in English verse of the life and philosophy of the East

His chief work with this object is The Light of Asia which was translated into various languages such as Hindi

The Light of Asia subtitled The Great Renunciation is in a form of a narrative poem

The book endeavors to describe the life and time of Prince Gautama Siddhartha who after attaining enlightenment became The Buddha The Awakened One

The book presents his life character and philosophy in a series of verses

It is a free adaptation of the Lalitavistara

A few decades before the book s publication very little was known outside Asia about the Buddha and Buddhism the religion which he founded and which had existed for about twenty five centuries

Arnold s book was one of the first successful attempts to popularize Buddhism for a Western readership
