Namibia Handbook and Political Who's who Joe Pütz, Heidi Von Egidy, Perri Caplan, 1989      Historical Dictionary of Namibia Victor L. Tonchi, William A. Lindeke, John J. Grotzinger, 2012-08-31 On March 21 1990 Sam Nujoma was sworn in as the first president of independent Namibia This ceremony marked the end of a struggle that lasted more than two decades and a period of colonialism that lasted more than a century Finally after decades long wars over grazing in the 19th century genocidal colonial suppression by Germany at the beginning of the 20th century repressive apartheid racialism throughout the 20th century and a prolonged armed liberation struggle Namibians had the chance to choose their own leaders develop a democratic political process in a free society and to bring economic development and greater equity to their country The Historical Dictionary of Namibia covers the history of Namibia through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has several hundred cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Namibia      Anti-racism and Multiculturalism Mark Alleyne, 2017-09-08 All scholarly books are engagements with the existing literature often the published scholarly work of one established discipline This book originated with modest objectives to produce a work that would be in conversation with the literature of international relations even though not of relevance only to that field The professed goal of international relations is international peace The ethical lens of pondering the best means to achieve world peace is used to filter media content in the field of multiculturalism and anti racism Although there has been little work on the impact of racial difference on the contours of contemporary international order there has been a sizeable body of research intended to abolish the credibility of pseudo scientific racism Such racism has provided the ideological foundation and justification for imperialism colonialism the holocaust and apartheid Race has been debunked as a myth Because of this racism the ideology bred of human classification according to racial difference has been found to be intellectually and morally barren But the need to communicate egalitarian and scientific sentiments remains The contributors to this volume consider five questions How does the literature on antiracism improve our understanding of conflict resolution How does the analysis of the media's role in racist and anti racist discourses improve the process of theorizing on hate and war propaganda How can research on anti racist discourse improve UN peacekeeping What implications does this subject have for theory building and cultural diversity How and why should the literature on anti racism expand research in international relations This is a unique worthwhile framework for cross disciplinary research in race and intellectual consensus and conflict      Namibia National Bibliography, 1990

National Liberation Movements in Office Elena Torreguitar, 2009 Originally presented as the author's thesis Ph D Boston University 2008      Peacekeeping and Public Information Ingrid Lehmann, 2018-12-07 Ms Lehmann has provided a timely and challenging prescription for just how the goals of placing communication functions at the heart of the strategic management of the UN might be achieved and a dramatic warning of the consequences of failing to do so Namibia's Independence Struggle Cleophas Johannes Tsokodayi, 2011-01-01 National Liberation in Postcolonial Southern Africa Christian A. Williams, 2015-10-08 This book traces the South West Africa People's Organization SWAPO across its three decades in exile through rich local histories of the camps where Namibian exiles lived in Tanzania Zambia and Angola Christian A Williams highlights how different Namibians experienced these sites as well as the tensions that developed within SWAPO as Namibians encountered one another and as officials asserted their power and protected their interests within a national community The book then follows Namibians who lived in exile into post colonial Namibia examining the extent to which divisions and hierarchies that emerged in the camps continue to shape how Namibians relate to one another today undermining the more just and humane society that many had imagined In developing these points about SWAPO the book draws attention to Southern African literature more widely suggesting parallels across the region and defining a field of study that examines post colonial Africa through the camp Joint Acquisitions List of Africana, 1991 Accessions List, Eastern Africa Library of Congress. Library of Congress Office, Nairobi, Kenya, 1990 Number 6 includes cumulative main and added entry index for the monographs listed in that year Walford's Guide to Reference Material Albert John Walford, Marilyn Mullay, Priscilla Schlicke, 1994 Volume 2 of this guide contains descriptions of 8300 plus critically evaluated recommended reference resources available in all formats Organized by Universal Dewey Classification the topics covered are those usually found in the 100s Philosophy Psychology 200s Religion 300s Social Sciences the 900s Geography Biography History This volume particularly reflects the proliferation of travel tourist guides reference works on Eastern Europe Central Asia following the collapse of communism Over the last few years an enormous expansion has also been noted of reference works in both religion philosophy Volume 1 covers Science Technology Volume 3 covers Generalia Languages Literature the Arts Recommended in Choice Reference Reviews American Reference Books Annual Namibia & Southern Africa Dreyer, 2016-04-29 First published in 1994 This volume includes an examination the regional dynamics of Namibia's decolonization since early 1985 and the author's interest in southwestern Africa since he witnessed the South African invasion of Angola in 1975-76 as a delegate of the International Committee of the Red Cross The research was undertaken as part of a post doctoral project supported by the Swiss National Science Foundation It also includes extensive research in the region notably in the Frontline states Triumph of Courage Matthew Gowaseb, 2007 Walford's Guide to Reference Material: Social and historical sciences, philosophy and religion Alan Day, Marilyn Mullay, Priscilla Schlicke, Joan M.
