conviviality with itself and the Earth that the deepest religious motivations of existing together are relative to one another and that transreligious relativity is essential to the conviction of religions that their motivations experiences and conceptualities are meaningful real and true By engaging diverse voices from poststructuralism to Sufism Dzogchen and philosophical Daoism from conceptual frameworks of Christianity and Hinduism to mystical and postmodern cosmology current cosmopolitanism and interreligious and interspiritual discourses but especially understudied contributions of process thought and the Bah religion this book suggests that multireligious conviviality must listen to the universal relevance of a multiplicity of minority voices Its polyphilic pluralism affirms the mutual immanence and co creative nature of religions and spiritualities with the universal in sistence of divine or ultimate reality in the cosmos Embracing a relativistic and evolutionary paradigm in an infinite cosmos of creative becoming religions must cope with events of novelty that disturb and connect transcend and contrast the continuum of their truth claims but must avoid conflict as religious diversity is enveloped by an ever folding landscape of ultimate reality Paternity, Progeny, and Perpetuation Steffan Mathias, 2020-05-14 This book offers a fresh perspective on the importance of progeny and perpetuation of the family line in the Hebrew tradition Steffan Matthias argues that the Hebrew bible depicts failing to protect the transmission of the family line as both a failure in the social order a threat to the afterlife and a failure in masculinity leading to the eradication of the name and memory of the man and the destruction of the household Using the work of Pierre Bourdieu as well as anthropological and gender critical insights Matthias reassess pertinent texts which respond to the threat of men dying without children such as levirate marriage Deut 22 5 10 or the erection of monuments Isa 56 5 8 Themes such as death burial and memorial identity covenant name genealogy property seed and sexuality rather than being treated as separate parts of social or family life are critically assessed in light of each other Matthias instead illustrates how they form part of the same discourse of social reproduction in which the integrity of the family is protected and passed down from father to son in generations of descendants Paternity Progeny and Perpetuation raises profound questions regarding the subtle ways texts that respond to this threat of social annihilation the destruction of the father and his line reinforce social boundaries and construct men as transmitters of identity and women as submissive counterparts Names and Nunavut Valerie Alia, 2007 On the surface naming is simply a way to classify people and their environments The premise of this study is that it is much more a form of social control a political activity a key to identity maintenance and transformation Governments legislate and regulate naming people fight to take keep or change their names A name change can indicate subjugation or liberation depending on the circumstances But it always signifies a change in power relations Since the late 1970s the author has looked at naming and renaming cross culturally and internationally with particular attention to the effects of colonisation and liberation The experience of Inuit in Canada is an example of both Colonisation is only part of the Nunavut experience Contrary to the dire predictions of cultural genocide theorists Inuit culture particularly traditional naming has remained extremely strong and is in the midst of a
