Nampeyo And Her Pottery:

Nampeyo and Her Pottery Barbara Kramer, 2003-02-01 At the beginning of the twentieth century Hopi Tewa potter Nampeyo revitalized Hopi pottery by creating a contemporary style inspired by prehistoric ceramics Nampeyo ca 1860 1942 made clay pots at a time when her people had begun using manufactured vessels and her skill helped convert pottery making from a utilitarian process to an art form The only potter known by name from that era her work was unsigned and widely collected Travel brochures on the Southwest featured her work and in 1905 and 1907 she was a potter in residence at Grand Canyon National Park s Hopi House This first biography of the influential artist is a meticulously researched account of Nampeyo s life and times Barbara Kramer draws on historical documents and comments by family members not only to reconstruct Nampeyo s life but also to create a composite description of her pottery making process from gathering clay through coiling painting and firing The book also depicts changes brought about on the Hopi reservation by outsiders and the response of American society to Native American arts The Legacy of a Master Potter Mary Ellen Blair, Laurence R.

Blair, 1999 The Hopi Tewa Woman called Nampeyo is recognized today as one of the most important artists of the American Southwest Through her hands the craft of Hopi pottery blossomed into the revival of an art form almost lost By the opening of the twentieth century Nampeyo s pots were being carried far beyond the Southwest to the showcases of New York and Europe Notes genealogy charts references index Eighty color photographs and more than two hundred historic b w photos

Important Pre-Columbian and Native American Art, 2006 Pages from Hopi History Harry C.
