Nana Text In French:

The French Colonial Imagination Nicola Frith, 2014-04-24 The Indian uprisings 1857-58 against British rule in India represent an iconic period within the history of anti colonial resistance. Numerous works have considered these historical events from British and Indian perspectives but none have yet questioned how they were viewed by Britain's foremost colonial rival in India the French. The French Colonial Imagination examines how the potential for Britain to lose its most lucrative colony at the hands of its own colonial subjects allowed French writers to envisage a world freed from British dominance. The uprisings offered the attractive possibility that France could undergo a colonial revival in the wake of British defeat thereby reversing the devastating losses inflicted upon France's former empire at the end of the Napoleonic Wars. Notable among these losses was Britain's decision in the Treaty of 1814 to permanently reduce France's presence in India to five small trading posts scattered around the periphery of British territory. The extent to which the French colonial imagination of the nineteenth century was shaped by the memories of such defeats forms a primary concern of this monograph. This investigation into French responses to the Indian uprisings reveals that French colonial discourse was determined as much by its visions of the colonized other as by the dominance of their British rivals. Drawing from journalistic, historical, political and fictional texts written during Louis Napoleon's Second Empire (1852-70) and in the early years of the Third Republic (1870-1944) The French Colonial Imagination shows how the uprisings gave French writers the opportunity to speak out against the rapacity of British colonialism and its treatment of colonized Indians while simultaneously constructing a competing colonial discourse that would justify further expansion in North Africa and South East Asia. Standing at a crossroads between the loss of Ancien Régime's empire and the Third Republic's ideological investment in overseas expansion, this understudied period of colonial history reveals the centrality of loss, fracture and political emasculation as core preoccupations haunting the French colonial discourse in its quest to regain cultural and ideological ascendancy over its greatest political enemy.

French Cultural Studies Marie-Pierre Le Hir, Dana Strand, 2000-06-22 Addresses the theoretical and pedagogical implications of redefining French Studies as an interdisciplinary field while providing practical examples of the kind of criticism that such a shift would entail.

Modes of Censorship Francesca Billiani, 2014-05-22 Modes of Censorship and Translation articulates a variety of scholarly and disciplinary perspectives and offers the reader access to the widening cultural debate on translation and censorship including cross national forms of cultural fertilization. It is a study of censorship and its patterns of operation across a range of disciplinary settings from media to cultural and literary studies engaging with often neglected genres and media such as radio, cinema and theatre. Adopting an interdisciplinary and transnational approach and bringing together contributions based on primary research which often draws on unpublished archival material, the volume analyzes the multi-faceted relationship between censorship and translation in different national contexts including Italy, Spain, Great Britain, Greece, Nazi Germany and the GDR focusing on the political, ideological and aesthetic implications of censorship as well as the hermeneutic play fostered by any translational act By offering innovative methodological interpretations and stimulating case studies it proposes new readings of the operational modes of both censorship and translation The essays gathered here challenge current notions of the accessibility of culture whether in overtly ideological and politically repressive contexts or in seemingly neutral cultural scenarios Index-catalogue of Medical and Veterinary Zoology United States. Bureau of Animal Industry. Zoological Division,1951

French film directors Douglas Morrey,2005-10-07 This volume offers a new interpretation of one of the most innovative directors in the history of cinema It is the first book to cover the whole of Godard s career from the French New Wave to the recent triumphs of Histoire s du cin ma and Eloge de l amour Drawing on a wide range of literary filmic and philosophical texts the book places Godard s work within its intellectual context examining how developments in French culture and thought since 1950 have been mirrored in and sometimes anticipated by Godard s films Numerous sequences from Godard s films are singled out for close analysis demonstrating how the director s radical approaches to narrative editing sound and shot composition have made the cinema into an analytical tool in its own right

Women Readers in French Painting 1870?890 Kathryn Brown,2017-07-05 The first monograph to examine the depiction of reading women in French art of the early Third Republic Women Readers in French Painting 1870 1890 evaluates the pictorial significance of this imagery its critical reception and its impact on notions of femininity and social relations Covering a broad range of paintings prints and sculptures this book shows how the liseuse was subjected to unprecedented levels of pictorial innovation by artists with widely differing aesthetic aims and styles Depictions of readers are interpreted as contributions to changing notions of public and private life female agency and women s participation in cultural and political debates beyond the domestic household This highly original book explores images of women readers from a range of social classes in both urban and rural settings Such images are shown to have articulated concerns about the impact of female literacy on labour environments and family life while in many cases challenging conventions of gendered reading Kathryn Brown also presents an alternative way of conceiving of modernity in relation to nineteenth century art a methodological departure from much recent art historical literature Artists discussed range from Manet Cassatt and Degas to less familiar figures such as Lavielle Carri Toulmouche and Tissot

Relational Responses to Trauma in Twenty-First-Century French and Spanish Women's Writing Hannie Lawlor,2024-08-28 Relational Responses to Trauma in Twenty First Century French and Spanish Women s Writing offers new insight into what it means to write relational lives It broadens the parameters of existing discussions in terms of geography as well as genre drawing together two literatures whose prominence in life writing theory to date could hardly be more different while French women s writing has long been at the centre of international discussions of autobiography the relative invisibility of Spanish women s writing remains striking The dialogue that thus underpins this study between diverse twenty first century case studies and broader approaches to life writing shines a light on what is gained from inviting different voices into the discussion These narrative projects challenge longstanding critical assumptions in autobiography studies and trauma theory about how writers can and should represent the multiple perspectives that are at the heart of intergenerational stories In exploring the narrative solutions that these texts propose in response to the ethical questions they navigate this book shows that writing relational lives rests on far more than the mere recounting of a shared history Relating in these texts it proposes is an act embedded in the telling of the story It is a mode of testifying together to traumatic experience one that reveals a powerful preoccupation in contemporary women s life writing practice with making more audible the many voices and versions that go unheard

The Cambridge Companion to Zola Brian Nelson, 2007-02-15 Emile Zola is a towering literary figure of the nineteenth century His main literary achievement was his twenty volume novel cycle Les Rougon Macquart 1870-93 In this series he combines a novelist s skills with those of the investigative journalist to examine the social sexual and moral landscape of the late nineteenth century in a way that scandalized bourgeois society In 1898 Zola crowned his literary career with a political act his famous open letter J accuse to the President of the French Republic in defence of Alfred Dreyfus The essays in this volume offer readings of individual novels as well as analyses of Zola s originality his representation of society sexuality and gender his relations with the painters of his time his narrative art and his role in the Dreyfus Affair The Companion also includes a chronology detailed summaries of all of Zola s novels suggestions for further reading and information about specialist resources

Women Readers in French Painting 1870-1890 Kathryn J. Brown, 2012 The first monograph to examine the depiction of reading women in French art of the early Third Republic Women Readers in French Painting 1870-1890 evaluates the pictorial significance of this imagery its critical reception and its impact on nineteenth century notions of femininity and social relations Artists discussed in the volume range from Manet Cassatt and Degas to less familiar figures such as Lavieille Carri re Toulmouche and Tissot

A Thematic Approach to French Cultural Studies Marie-Anne Visoi, 2012 A Thematic Approach to French Cultural Studies Love Sex and Desire in French Literature and Cinema introduces a selection of major literary texts and film adaptations to students at the intermediate college and university level The goal of this book is to provide a theme based approach for teaching French Cultural Studies by enabling undergraduate students to contextualise and to think conceptually about French culture and its place in the Western culture and tradition One of the most noteworthy aspects of this book is that it includes a collection of effective hands on activities multimedia resources and teaching suggestions which will stimulate students to develop their cultural and literary competency The text based method is designed to encourage close reading of three representative novels in English translation and foster an independent approach to formulating problems and arguments related to specific cultural norms and patterns

The Spectator , 1884 Sex Work, Text Work Jessica Tanner, 2023-05-15 Though male French authors plotted prostitution to make their names mimicking the surveillance of municipal authorities the sex workers in their books manage to evade efforts to contain them While prostitutes in nineteenth century Paris were subject to municipal laws that policed their bodies and movements writers of the era enlisted them to stake their own claims on both the city and the novel as literary territory Sex Work Text Work Mapping Prostitution in the Nineteenth Century French Novel explores how prostitutes depicted by mile Zola Joris Karl Huysmans Edmond de Goncourt Adolphe Tabarant and Charles Louis Philippe write back confounding civil and literary efforts to contain them in space and in narrative In city regulated brothels brasseries femmes Haussmannian boulevards and the novel itself working class prostitutes served to reinforce the boundaries of social inclusion and exclusion And yet Jessica Tanner contends even the novels that most explicitly aligned with the disciplinary logic of regulated prostitution make space for a distinctly literary form of resistance these women elude or disrupt the mapping that would claim them as literary territory revealing their authors failure to secure their narratives as property Tanner pushes back against the critical tendency to attribute agency only to courtesans who became published authors and forwards a new framework for understanding the political work novels engage in as they circulate Observing that debates about the regulation of prostitution surfaced in tandem with racialized anxieties about the boundaries of the French nation Tanner ultimately expands that framework to the history of French colonialism and the politics of immigration in the current day This book shows that while sex workers have been recruited to mark the borders of civic and moral life prostitution can also make space for more inclusive forms of community both in the novel and in the world beyond its bounds

Wandering Women in French Film and Literature Mariah Devereux Herbeck, 2013-10-02 How and when can a narrative agent or voice be considered unreliable What happens when narrative authority fails and just as importantly why does it As a means to answering these questions Wandering Women in French Film and Literature examines the phenomenon of narrative drift through in depth analysis of twentieth century novels and films

A History of the French New Wave Cinema Richard Neupert, 2007-04-20 The French New Wave cinema is arguably the most fascinating of all film movements famous for its exuberance daring and avant garde techniques A History of the French New Wave Cinema offers a fresh look at the social economic and aesthetic mechanisms that shaped French film in the 1950s as well as detailed studies of the most important New Wave movies of the late 1950s and early 1960s Richard Neupert first tracks the precursors to New Wave cinema showing how they provided blueprints for those who would follow He then demonstrates that it was a core group of critics turned directors from the magazine Cahiers du Cinéma especially François Truffaut Claude Chabrol and Jean-Luc Godard who really revealed that filmmaking was changing forever Later their cohorts Eric Rohmer Jacques Rivette Jacques Doniol Valcroze and Pierre Kast continued in their own unique ways to expand the range and depth of the New Wave In an exciting new chapter Neupert explores the subgroup of French film practice known as the Left Bank Group which included directors such as Alain Resnais and Agnès Varda With the addition of this new material and an updated conclusion Neupert presents a comprehensive review of the stunning variety of movies to come out of this important era in filmmaking Mapping

Memory in Translation Siobhan Brownlie, 2016-04-08 This book presents a map of the application of memory studies concepts to the study of translation A range of types of memory from personal memory and electronic memory to national and transnational memory are discussed and links with translation are illustrated by detailed case studies

Index-catalogue of Medical and Veterinary Zoology, 1970 Medieval Saints in Late Nineteenth Century French Culture Elizabeth Emery, Laurie Postlewaite, 2004-08-02 Legends, tales and mysteries featuring saints captivated the French at the end of the nineteenth century As Jean Lorrain pointed out in an 1891 article for the popular weekly Le Courrier Français the seemingly simple language of the saints lives their noble battles between good and evil and the atmosphere of religious mysticism appealed to many especially those involved in the visual and performing arts Ironically The Third Republic 1870-1940 a regime that claimed to reinforce and institute the secular ideas of the French Revolution was witness to this great popular interest in the saints and religious imagery The eight essays in this work explore the popularity of the saints from the 1850s to the 1920s The essays evaluate the role they played in literature art music science history and politics examine portrayals of the saints lives in both low and high culture from children's literature shadow plays and the popular press to literature opera and theological studies and reveal the prevalence of the saints in fin de siècle France French literature on screen

Homer B. Pettey, R. Barton Palmer, 2019-05-16 This collection presents new essays in the complex field of French literary adaptation Using a variety of textual and interpretive approaches it sheds light on issues of gender sexuality class politics and social conventions while acknowledging a range of contexts from the commercial to the archival and the aesthetic The chapters written by eminent international scholars run chronologically from The Count of Monte Cristo through Proust and Bonjour Tristesse to Philippe Djian's Oh adapted for the screen as Elle Collectively they fill a need for contemporary discussions on the significance of France's literary representations in the history of global cinema French Women's Writing 1848-1994 Diana Holmes, 2000-01-12 A wide range of French women writers are surveyed including Sand Colette Beauvoir and Duras among the canonized and many marginalized or forgotten and contemporary names not yet widely known outside France These writers are seen within the political economic and cultural context of women s lives and how these have changed across a century and a half Underpinning the whole account is the relationship between gender and language between politics sexual and textual
