Nancy Astor, a Lady Unashamed John Grigg, 1980 Bernard Shaw and Nancy Astor Bernard Shaw, Viscountess Nancy Witcher Langhorne Astor, 2005-01-01 This collection of nearly 250 letters between Shaw and Astor as well as between Astor and Shaw's wife Charlotte and Shaw's secretary Blanche Patch illustrates the rewarding friendship the two shared and the numerous issues they debated Fifty Key Figures in Twentieth-century British Politics Keith Laybourn, 2002 Reflecting the changes within British society politics during the 20th century the entries in this book provide an overview of the lives influence of 50 figures in modern British political history chart the development of key issues The 20th Century A-Z Frank N. Magill, 2013-05-13 Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history This is not a who's who Instead each entry provides an in depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual's life and achievements The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual's place in history All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography Reader's Guide to British History David Loades, 2020-12-17 The Reader's Guide to British History is the essential source to secondary material on British history This resource contains over 1 000 A-Z entries on the history of Britain from ancient and Roman Britain to the present day Each entry lists 6-12 of the best known books on the subject then discusses those works in an essay of 800 to 1 000 words prepared by an expert in the field The essays provide advice on the range and depth of coverage as well as the emphasis and point of view espoused in each publication Documentary Film Carl Rollyson, 2004-12-14 Documentary Film A Primer provides a succinct introduction to the nature of the documentary drawing on examples from the work of Robert Flaherty Dziga Vertov Leni Riefenstahl Woody Allen Warren Beatty Spalding Gray Cindy Sherman Susan Sontag and others The documentaries discussed cover a range of subjects including the Russian Revolution the Holocaust and the worlds of fashion and sports This incisive foray into the essentials of documentary is then buttressed by an in depth discussion of the career of Jill Craigie a British director/writer who brought to the cinema an uncompromising socialist and feminist perspective during the Second World War How Craigie got her films produced by a major studio and why her work could not be replicated in postwar Britain reveal not only the way documentaries are made but also why they remain a controversial and problematic genre A selection of Rollyson's reviews of contemporary documentaries provides a model for discussing the genre Students and fans of documentaries will find his list of classic documentaries on VHS and DVD and his excerpts from other critics of the genre of special interest His topics for discussion section make this book a valuable resource for teachers as well Twentieth-Century Anglo-American Relations J. Hollowell, 2001-06-18 New research by several leading political historians creates a detailed and diverse study of Anglo American relations in the twentieth century Declassified documents provide unique insight into the personal relationships between Eisenhower and Eden and Lyndon Johnson and Harold Wilson This volume offers a breadth of scholarship drawn from three continents and examines the diplomatic negotiations powerful personalities and political considerations at the heart of British American affairs To be a Woman Carl Edmund Rollyson,2005 This biography of the film maker writer and feminist Jill Craigie is an intimate portrait of an influential and charismatic woman Craigie became the first woman to establish a national reputation in the documentary film field most notably as a result of her 1944 film Out of Chaos After a four year affair with MP Michael Foot the couple married in 1949 As the women s movement grew in strength in Britain during the 60s and 70s Craigie became an inspirational figure for many of its leaders and an active participant in many feminist causes For this book Carl Rollyson was given access to the archive in Foot s Hampstead home which contains Craigie s research notes drafts of her journalism and scripts and her correspondence with an array of major historical figures ranging from prime ministers to writers film makers and artists He interviews Craigie s daughter Julie as well as a range of her surviving friends and Michael Foot talks with frankness about his marriage the strains which were placed upon it by his own infidelities and his pride in having shared the life of so remarkable a woman

The Quote Verifier Ralph Keyes,2007-04-01 Our language is full of hundreds of quotations that are often cited but seldom confirmed Ralph Keyes s The Quote Verifier considers not only classic misquotes such as Nice guys finish last and Play it again Sam but more surprising ones such as Ain t I a woman and Golf is a good walk spoiled as well as the origins of popular sayings such as The opera ain t over till the fat lady sings No one washes a rented car and Make my day Keyes s in depth research routinely confounds widespread assumptions about who said what where and when Organized in easy to access dictionary form The Quote Verifier also contains special sections highlighting commonly misquoted people and genres such as Yogi Berra and Oscar Wilde famous last words and misremembered movie lines An invaluable resource for not just those with a professional need to quote accurately but anyone at all who is interested in the roots of words and phrases The Quote Verifier is not only a fascinating piece of literary sleuthing but also a great read Exhibitions and the Development of Modern Planning Culture Robert Freestone,Marco Amati,2016-12-05 The evolution of city planning theory and practice in the first half of the twentieth century was captured and driven by a range of exhibitionary practices in a variety of settings globally from international expos to local public halls The agendas of the promoters varied but exhibitions generally drew their social legitimacy from their status as appropriate educative agencies of citizenship Bringing together a range of international case studies this volume explores the highly visual genre of public planning exhibitions worldwide In doing so it provides a unique lens on the development of modern urban planning and design from the late 19th century to the present day Focussing mainly on the first half of the 20th century it looks in particular at historic exhibitions which sought to transform urban society s understanding of the possibilities of planning as a force for social betterment The visuality of presentation contemporary reactions and outcomes for the planning profession and the community are explored to make for a unique innovative and attractive approach to the history of planning ideas The five major themes are the visual representation of ideas and ideologies institutions and individuals involved the broader context of display and the impacts and implications for the development planning culture With contributors including Karl Fischer John Gold Carola Hein Peter Larkham Javier Monclus and Mark Tewdwr Jones the dominant intellectual paradigm further unifying the collection is planning history

Lost Comrades Dan S. White, 1992 The concept of generation as a historical category has never been used more effectively than in Lost Comrades The socialists of the Front Generation young men in 1914 were driven into political activity and ideological exploration by the experience of the First World War Their efforts to renew socialism to carry it beyond Marxism and beyond the working class were profound and original yet ultimately they failed Lost Comrades follows the Front Generation socialists from their questioning of Marxist orthodoxies in the 1920s into their confrontations with the twin challenges of fascism and world depression in the early 1930s Responding to these dangers they devised with little success counterpropaganda against the fascists and planning blueprints for the economy Eventually some of the most prominent Sir Oswald Mosley in Britain Hendrik de Man in Belgium Marcel Datin France shifted their hopes to fascism or during the Second World War to collaborationism in Hitler's Europe Others however like Carlo Mierendorff and Theodor Haubach in Germany ended as martyrs in the anti Nazi resistance Yet even these divergent paths showed parallels reflecting their common starting point In tracing these unfulfilled careers White brings a new clarity to the hopes and limitations of European socialism between the two world wars
