Conflict, Identity, and Protest in American Art Miguel de Baca, Makeda Best, 2016-02-08 Conflict Identity and Protest in American Art explores the powerful relationship between artistic production and cultures of conflict in the United States. Such a theme continues to provoke practitioners and scholars across a range of media and disciplines especially as definitions of war and protest evolve and change in the twenty first century. This anthology presents vital discussions of visual works in relationship to national identity the politics and contexts of artistic production and reception and the expressive and political function of art within historical periods defined by wars rebellions and revolutions. It sheds new light on the shifting nature of identity and specifically how conflict armed conflict as well as rhetorical conflict inspires new identities to emerge. Conflict Identity and Protest in American Art will appeal to historians of American art and architecture American studies cultural studies and material culture. Its vibrant discussions of race ethnicity gender and sexuality represent the urgency of these topics in modern and contemporary art history. This book is suitable for academics at all levels from undergraduates through to graduate students and faculty researchers as well as artists and non specialised readers. The End of the

World Lynn Gumpert, New Museum of Contemporary Art (New York, N.Y.), 1983 Nancy Spero Nancy Spero, 1987 After studying at the Art Institute of Chicago and the Fine Arts Academy of Paris Nancy Spero distinguished herself as one of the most significant protagonists on the New York art scene where she has lived and worked since 1964. Among the most prominent and influential figures in American art today she has always been involved in feminist and peace movements and has elaborated a language of painting that is intimately tied to social and anthropological realities. This volume focuses on the artist's social commitments as documented in photographs and an interview and also includes recent works recording her path through art and politics. Thanks to important solo shows in public museums and at important venues such as the 2007 Venice Biennale curated by Robert Storr which featured her work Maypole Take No Prisoners and solo exhibitions in Spain over the past few years Spero has conquered the European art scene. Nancy Spero is an American Jewish artist who works in many media both traditional and experimental. Spero was born in Cleveland Ohio in 1926. After attending the University of Colorado at Boulder from 1944-1945 she received her BA from the Art Institute of Chicago in 1949. Her first solo exhibit was in Paris in 1962. Art Of The Postmodern Era Irving Sandler, 2018-05-30 Sandler discusses the major and minor artists and their works movements ideas attitudes and styles and the social and cultural context of the period. He covers post modernist art theory the art market and consumer society. American and European art and artists are included.

Feminism Art Theory Hilary Robinson, 2015-04-20 Charting over 45 years of feminist debate on the significance of gender in the making and understanding of art the long anticipated new edition of Feminism Art Theory has been extensively updated and reworked. Completely revised retaining only one third of the texts of the earlier edition with all other material being new inclusions. Brings together 88 revealing texts from North America Europe and Australasia juxtaposing writings from artists and activists with those of academics Embraces a broad range of threads and perspectives from diverse national and global approaches lesbian and queer theory and postmodernism to education and aesthetics Includes many classic texts but is particularly notable for its inclusion of rare and significant material not reprinted elsewhere Provides a uniquely flexible resource for study and research due to its scale and structure each of the seven sections focuses on a specific area of debate with texts arranged chronologically in order to show how issues and arguments developed over time Drawing

Investigations Sarah Casey, Gerry Davies, 2020-06-11 Using close visual analysis of drawings artist interviews critical analysis and exegesis Drawing Investigations examines how artists use drawing as an investigative tool to reveal information that would otherwise remain unseen and unnoticed How does drawing add shape to ideas How does the artist accommodate to challenges and restraints of a particular environment To what extent is a drawing complementary and continuous with its subject and where is it disruptive and provocative Casey and Davies address these questions while focusing on artists working collaboratively and the use of drawing in challenging or unexpected environments Drawing Investigations evaluates the emergence of a way of thinking among an otherwise disconnected group of artists by exploring commonalities in the application of analytical drawing to the natural world urban environment social forces and lived experience Examples represent a spectrum of research in international contexts an oceanographic Institute in California the archives of Amsterdam's Rijksmuseum the Antarctic Survey geothermal research in Japan and the Kurdish diaspora in Iraq Issues are situated in the contemporary theory and practice of drawing including relationships to historical precedents By exploring drawing's capacity to capture and describe experience to sharpen visual faculties and to bridge embodied and conceptual knowledge Drawing Investigations offers a fresh critical perspective on contemporary drawing practice Women, Art, and Society (Sixth) (World of Art) Whitney Chadwick, 2020-09-08 A new edition of the groundbreaking book by Whitney Chadwick maps the complete history of women artists from the Middle Ages and the Renaissance to today Art historian Whitney Chadwick's acclaimed bestselling study challenges the assumption that great women artists are exceptions to the rule who transcended their gender to produce major works of art While introducing some of the many women since the Middle Ages whose contributions to visual culture have often been neglected Chadwick's survey reexamines the works themselves and the ways in which they have been perceived as marginal often in direct reference to gender In her discussion of feminism and its influence on such a reappraisal she also addresses the closely related issues of ethnicity class and sexuality This revised edition features a completely redesigned interior and full color illustrations With a new preface and epilogue from this emerging authority on the history of women artists curator and professor Flavia Frigeri this revised edition continues the project of charting the evolution of feminist art history and pedagogy revealing how artists have responded to new strategies of feminism for the current moment Art in Chicago Maggie Taft, Robert Cozzolino, 2018-10-10 For decades now the story of art in America has been dominated by New York It gets the majority of attention the stories of its schools and movements and masterpieces the stuff of pop culture legend Chicago on the other hand well people here just get on with the work of making art Now that art is getting its due Art in Chicago is a magisterial account of the long history of Chicago art from the rupture of the Great Fire in 1871 to the present Manierre Dawson L szl Moholy Nagy and Ivan Albright to Chris Ware Anne Wilson and Theaster Gates The first single volume history of art and artists in Chicago the book in recognition of the complexity of the story it tells doesn't follow a single continuous trajectory Rather it presents an overlapping sequence of interrelated narratives that together tell a full and nuanced yet wholly accessible history of visual art in the city From the temptingly blank canvas left by the Fire we loop back to the 1830s and on up through the 1860s tracing the beginnings of the city's institutional and professional art world and community From there we travel in chronological order through the decades to the present Familiar developments such as the founding of the Art Institute the Armory Show and the arrival of the Bauhaus are given a fresh look while less well known aspects of the story like the contributions of African American artists dating back to the 1860s or the long history of activist art finally get suitable recognition The six chapters each written by an expert in the period brilliantly mix narrative and image weaving in oral histories from artists and critics reflecting on their work in the city and setting new movements and key works in historical context The final chapter comprised of interviews and conversations with contemporary artists brings the story up to the present offering a look at the vibrant art being created in the city now and addressing ongoing debates about what it means to identify as or resist identifying as a Chicago artist today The result is an unprecedentedly inclusive and rich tapestry one that reveals Chicago art in all its variety and vigor and one that will surprise and enlighten even the most dedicated fan of the city's artistic heritage Part of the Terra Foundation for American Art's year long Art Design Chicago initiative which will bring major arts events to venues throughout Chicago in 2018 Art in Chicago is a landmark publication a book that will be the standard account of Chicago art for decades to come No art fan regardless of their city will want to miss it

Zones of Contention Carol Becker, 1996-07-03 This collection of essays by cultural critic Carol Becker plumbs particular areas of controversy to understand what information these zones of contention might yield about the multifarious culture wars taking place within American society today In the process she addresses the place of art and artists in society the difficulties facing women in the workplace why male bonding exists why women experience anxiety in relationship to creative endeavors and why artists are misunderstood within American society She positions art and artists as well as institutional dynamics within a philosophical framework

Imagining the Present Richard Kalina, 2012-11-12 Bringing together twenty nine of Lawrence Alloway's most influential essays in one volume this fascinating collection provides valuable perspectives on the art and visual culture of the second half of the twentieth century Lawrence Alloway ranks among the most important critics of his time and his contributions to the spirited and contentious dialogue of his era make for fascinating reading These twenty nine provocative essays from 1956 to 1980 from the man who invented the term pop art bring art film iconography cybernetics and culture relationship between artist and audience The book shows how Artaud's radical writings inspired the experimental theatrical work of John Cage Rachel Rosenthal and Allan Kaprow the attack on artistic and social conventions launched by assemblage artists Wallace Berman and Bruce Conner and the feminist work of Carolee Schneemann and Nancy Spero Lucy Bradnock traces the dissemination of Artaud's writings in America and demonstrates how his interest in political and cultural disorder the dangers of authority and the unreliability of representation found fertile ground in the context of the Cold War disillusionment with the ideals of Abstract Expressionism and the early years of identity politics

Feminism and Contemporary Art Jo Anna Isaak, 2002-09-11 Looks at the work of a diverse range of artists and explores the effect of feminist theory on art practice The book provides a provocative and valuable account of the diversity and revolutionary potential of women's art practice

Transnational Perspectives on Feminism and Art, 1960-1985 Jen Kennedy, Trista Mallory, Angelique Szymanek, 2021-04-28 Transnational Perspectives on Feminism and Art 1960-1985 is a collection of essential essays that bring transnational feminist praxis into conversation with histories of feminist art in the 1960s 1970s and early 1980s The artistic practices and processes examined within these pages all centre on gender and sexual politics as they variously intersect with race class sovereignty Indigeneity citizenship and migration at particular historical moments and within specific geopolitical contexts The book's central premise is that reconsidering this period from transnational feminist perspectives will enable new thinking about the critical commonalities and differences across heterogeneous and geographically dispersed practices that have contributed to the complex and multifaceted relationship between feminism and art today The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history cultural studies visual culture material culture and gender studies

Delirious Kelly Baum, Lucy Bradnock, Tina Rivers Ryan, 2017-09-12 Can postwar art be understood as an exercise in calculated insanity Taking this provocative question as its basis this book explores the art and history of delirium from 1950 to 1980 an era shaped by the brutality of World War II and the rapid expansion of industrial capitalism Skepticism of science and technology along with fear of its capability to promote mass destruction developed into a distrust of rationalism which profoundly influenced the art of the times Delirious features work by more than sixty artists from Europe Latin America and the United States including Dara Birnbaum Le n Ferrari Gego Bruce Nauman Howardena Pindell Peter Saul and Nancy Spero Experimenting with irrational subject matter and techniques these artists forged new strategies that directly responded to such unbalanced times Disturbing and challenging the works in this book in multiple media and often counterintuitively incorporating highly ordered and systematic structures upend traditional notions of aesthetic harmony Three wide ranging essays and a richly illustrated plates section investigate the degree to which delirious times demand delirious art inviting readers to think crazy
