James Currey

Napolo And The Python:

Napolo and the Python Steve Bernard Miles Chimombo,1994 Napolo the mythical serpent that lives under mountains and is associated with landslides earthquakes and floods in Malawi inspired the poems in this collection Napolo lives on and still has an impact on Malawians today as evidenced by a recent reggae hit about the great Python Napolo also lives on in the poems of Steve Chimombo Napolo and the Python Steve Bernard Miles Chimombo,2005 Napolo and other poems

Steve Chimombo,2021-12-17 This collection of verse contains poems from Malawi s foremost writer most of which were written in the 1970s Poet fiction writer playwright and children s author Steve Bernard Miles Chimombo was born in Zomba Malawi and educated at the University of Malawi the University of Wales the University of Leeds and Columbia University Mythology and oral culture inform his poetry and he frequently used both modernist techniques and wry humor to address political themes Malawian Writers and Their Country Bridgette Kasuka, Editor,2013-01-31 This is a general survey of writers from Malawi and the books they have written The book is also a general introduction to Malawi as a country and as a nation African Writers Bridgette Kasuka,2013-05 This work looks at some African writers including those who are not well known to show the potential and diversity in the works produced by Africans Included is a profile of Chinua Achebe and commentaries on his works soon after he passed away The Hyena Wears Darkness Chimombo, Steve,2017-08-16 Some people often ignore the fact that writers respond to the HIV AIDS pandemic by using it as a theme in their poetry fiction and plays Steve Chimombo started recording the writers responses as early as 1990 and wrote AIDS and the Writer in WASI the magazine for the arts The article reported the results of a poetry competition organized by the Ministry of Health on the theme and there have been other competitions also by different institutions since then Some radio and television programs have also called upon the writer to help in the dissemination of information to their listeners The Hyena Wears Darkness is the author s own contribution to the national Malawian campaign to educate the public on the pandemic Its focus is on those cultural practices which help propagate HIV AIDS in Malawian society From Home and Exile Joanna Woods,2014-12-03

This book is about home With Malawi as its focus it seeks to understand ideas about home as expressed through poetry written by Malawians in English Although African Literatures are studied those of Malawi have not received agreeable attention This book surveys poetry by five Malawian writers Felix Mnthali Frank Chipasula Jack Mapanje Lupenga Mphande and Steve Chimombo The discussion negotiates scribed experience of exile engendered by Dr Bandas regime and shows that the selected poets effectively converse with a sense of home reflecting on its transformations in their work Interrogating the strict definitions of home the argument highlights that far from home less exiles in fact clarify the sense of what home is The manoeuvre is one of thinking towards an unboundaried home This book will be of value not only to readers interested in the cultures of Africa but to all those with an interest in worldwide literary phenomena and ideas therein of home and exile

Of Life, Love and Death Steve Chimombo,2021-12-31 Innovative interesting out of the ordinary are accolades used to describe the stories in Of Life Love and Death They grew out the turbulent years of Malawi's third republic through the years beyond to the second and into the third and reflect the times places and concerns of the people at all times Some were molded if not mutilated by the oppressive political climate Malawi experienced in the thirty years of Banda's first republic between 1964 and 1994 Some of them could not have been conceived and written during that period without reprisals from the all powerful Censorship Board which dictated what could or could not be published Others were written but denied publication until the more democratic era after 1994

Operation Kalulu Steve Chimombo, 2021-07-21 Operation Kalulu the story of the Hare and the Well was the first of the retold folk stories by Steve Chimombo Folk stories are timeless in their relevance each illustrating good and bad character traits and behaviour in a variety of situations This story presents us with a community experiencing a drought and the way in which they pull together to find a solution In the course of the process we see how the animals human like in both character and behaviour sort out issues of governance to the satisfaction of the entire community

The Columbia Guide to Central African Literature in English Since 1945 Adrian A. Roscoe, 2008 Columbia's guides to postwar African literature paint a unique portrait of the continent's rich and diverse literary traditions This volume examines the rapid rise and growth of modern literature in the three postcolonial nations of Zimbabwe Malawi and Zambia It tracks the multiple political and economic pressures that have shaped Central African writing since the end of World War II and reveals its authors heroic efforts to keep their literary traditions alive in the face of extreme poverty and AIDS Adrian Roscoe begins with a list of key political events Since writers were composing within both colonial and postcolonial contexts he pays particular attention to the nature of British colonialism especially theories regarding its provenance and motivation Roscoe discusses such historical figures as David Livingstone Cecil Rhodes and Sir Harry Johnston as well as modern power players including Robert Mugabe Kenneth Kaunda and Kamuzu Banda He also addresses efforts to create a literary historical record from an African perspective an account that challenges white historiographies in which the colonized was neither agent nor informer A comprehensive alphabetical guide profiles both established and emerging authors and further illustrates issues raised in the introduction Roscoe then concludes with a detailed bibliography recommending additional reading and sources At the close of World War II the people of Central Africa found themselves mired in imperial fatigue and broken promises of freedom This fueled a desire for liberation and a major surge in literary production and in this illuminating guide Roscoe details the campaigns for social justice and political integrity for education and economic empowerment and for gender equity participatory democracy rural development and environmental care that characterized this exciting period of development

Performing Wisdom Dominica Dipio, Stuart Sillars, 2014-03-10 This is the third collection produced by members of a six year research project funded by the NUFU Norwegian Programme for Development Research and Education whose concern was to find preserve and analyse orature spoken forms of all kinds both their unique qualities and their equivalence in importance to literature A major focus was the ways in which forms of orature can be made relevant to the demands of rapidly developing nations faced with insistent problems HIV AIDS administrative needs shifts in social and familial structure the changing roles of women Both innovative and archival the essays explore older legends and modern performances to outline their positive and dynamic contribution to a protean society Some contributors address the ways in which traditional forms may be adapted e g via new media to combat the HIV AIDS pandemic and to educate children in social and individual responsibility Traditional narratives and children s songs can function to counter cannibalism and child sacrifice Less dark aspects of contemporary society also receive attention Traditional patterns of leadership are adapted to today s conditions especially by offering women models in the form of earlier figures and their actions Two essays analyse the use of proverbs in the speeches of political candidates and discussing traditional music festivals as celebrations of traditional kingship and rule Others examine the nature and operation of specific forms of orature riddles and their subtle alteration according to performer and audience concepts of heroism stories of origin and variants of Little Red Riding Hood These sensitive analyses are framed by pieces from members of the research project in Norway and Uganda Dominica Dipio is Associate Professor in the Department of Literature Makerere University and coordinator in the south of the NUFU research project Stuart Sillars is Professor of English Literature in the Department of Foreign Languages University of Bergen and coordinator in the north of the research project

K. S. Makokha, 2013 Reading Contemporary African Literature brings together scholarship on critical debates about and examples of reading African literature in all genres poetry fiction and drama including popular culture The anthology offers studies of African literature from interdisciplinary perspectives that employ sociological historical and ethnographic besides literary analysis of the literatures It has assembled critical and researched essays on a range of topics theoretical and empirical by renowned critics and theorists of African literature that evaluate and provide examples of reading African literature that should be of interest to academics researchers and students of African literature culture and history amongst other subjects Some of the essays examine authors that have received little or no attention to date in books on recent African literature These essays provide new insights and scholarship that should broaden and deepen our understanding and appreciation of African literature Toward the Decolonization of the Europhone African Novel Peter Wuteh Vakunta, 2023-09-30 Toward the Decolonization of the Europhone African Novel is a treatise on the problematics of language choice in Europhone African literature Vakunta's research is rooted in the notion that the postcolonial African fiction writer is at a crossroads of languages groping for linguistic re orientation Using the prose of fiction of Patrice Nganang Ahmadou Kourouma Mercedes Fouda Nazi Boni and Gabriel K Fonkou as corpus he contends that postcolonial African fiction is an offshoot of a linguistic tinkering process that enables writers to tinker with the language of the ex colonizer in a deliberate attempt to divest indigenous writing of its hegemonic vestiges Water Beings Veronica Strang, 2023-04-19 Looking to the vast human history of water worship a crucial study of our broken relationship with all things aquatic and how we might mend it Early human relationships with water were expressed through beliefs in serpentine aquatic deities rainbow colored feathered or horned serpents giant anacondas and dragons Representing the powers of water these beings were bringers of life and sustenance world creators ancestors guardian spirits and lawmakers Worshipped and appeased they embodied people's respect for water and its vital role in sustaining all living things Yet today though we still recognize that water is life fresh and saltwater ecosystems have been critically compromised by human activities This major study of water beings and what has happened to them in different cultural and historical contexts demonstrates how and why some but not all societies have moved from worshipping water to wreaking havoc upon it and asks what we can do to turn the tide

The Wrath of Napolo Steve Bernard Miles Chimombo, 2000 In the novel the protagonist Chilungamo Nkhoma an investigative reporter embarks on learning how the ship was grounded But instead he discovers that there are peoples and institutions with vested interests in concealing the truth They will take great pains to do so and Nkhoma his family and friends find themselves targets for hit squads As Nkhoma retraces the original voyage of the ship his mission assumes ethnic trans national and racial dimensions His seemingly simple assignment grows into a process which resembles a national truth commission Events culminate in a mass rally of the major political parties on the shore of the lake
