Nappy Growing Up Black And Female In America:

Nappy Aliona L. Gibson, 1995 As an eloquent rendering of the experiences of black women coming of age in America Gibson's memoirs strike to the heart of a generation in transition and resonate with its wit and its troubles Using her personal experiences Gibson examines how American standards of beauty affect women of color and their struggles for self acceptance African American Fraternities and Sororities Tamara L. Brown, Gregory S. Parks, Clarendia M. Phillips, 2012-01-01 This second edition includes new chapters that address issues such as the role of Christian values in black Greek letter organizations and the persistence of hazing Offering an overview of the historical cultural political and social circumstances that have shaped these groups African American Fraternities and Sororities explores the profound contributions that black Greek letter organizations and their members have made to America Interracial Intimacies Randall Kennedy, 2012-09-12 With the same piercing intelligence as the bestselling Say it Loud Interracial Intimacies hits a nerve at the center of American society race relations and our most intimate ties to each other The best book written on the subject an exhaustive source of deep rich scholarship and surefooted brilliant analysis Seattle Times Analyzing the tremendous changes in the history of America's racial dynamics Randall Kennedy challenges us to examine how prejudices and biases still fuel fears and inform our sexual marital and family choices He takes us from the injustices of the slave era up to present day battles over race matching adoption policies which seek to pair children with adults of the same race He tackles such subjects as the presence of sex in racial politics the historic role of legal institutions in policing racial boundaries and the real and imagined pleasures that have attended interracial intimacy A bracing much needed look at the way we have lived in the past Interracial Intimacies is also a hopeful book offering a potent vision of our future as a multiracial democracy Children of the Dream Laurel Holliday, 2014-02-04 I let somebody call me nigger It wasn't just any old body either it was my friend That really hurt Amityyah Elayne Hyman Martin Luther King Jr dreamed of a day when black children were judged not by the color of their skin but by the content of their character His eloquent charge became the single greatest inspiration for the achievement of racial justice in America In her powerful fourth book in the Children of Conflict series Laurel Holliday explores how far we have come as she presents thirty eight African Americans who share their experiences as Children of the Dream I was brought up with white Barbie dolls of impossible proportions and long silky blonde hair neither of which I possessed As a child I believed what I was taught and I wasn't taught to love myself for who I am an African American Charisse Nesbit The unforgettable people we hear from are young and old rich and poor from inner cities suburbia and rural America In chronicles that are highly personal funny tragic and triumphant the contributors tell us what it is like coming of age stigmatized by the color of their skin yet proud of their heritage and culture Their voices their courage their resilience and their understanding offer hope for us all The Tragic Black Buck Carlyle Van Thompson, 2004 The new edition of The Tragic Black Buck Racial Masquerading in the American Literary Imagination offers a fresh perspective on this trail blazing scholarship and the singular importance of F Scott Fitzgerald s The Great Gatsby as a challenge to the racial hegemony of biological white supremacy Fitzgerald convincingly and boldly shows how racial passing by light skinned Black individuals becomes the most fascinating literary trope associated with democracy and the enduring desire for the American Dream The Politics of Black Hair Online Coursebook Donna Kakonge, PhD Student,2011-07-05 This is an example of Donna Kakonge s online teaching work Afro Forever Donna Kay Cindy Kakonge,2017-03-02 Transformation In Loree s Beauty Shop hot combs sizzled against wet oily scalps branding grown woman fantasies into tender young heads Thick busy afros became long glossy black curls transforming natural Black queens into commercial mahogany princesses Boyd 14 This poem by Julia Boyd from In the Company of My Sisters is tragic but it happens all the time Afros and natural hair is transformed into something artificial fake boobs fake hair men don t seem to care whether a woman is real or false The hair salon is the main site where the transformation happens This paper accompanies the web based project Salon Utopia now defunct that aimed to transform its clients in a natural way In the virtual realm it is not yet possible to do any hairstyles to transform anyone but the site did aid in transforming the source of where hair comes from the mind On Racial Frontiers Gregory Stephens,1999-06-28 Frederick Douglass Ralph Ellison and Bob Marley each inhabited the shared but contested space at the frontiers of race Gregory Stephens shows how their interactions with mixed audiences made them key figures in a previously hidden interracial consciousness and culture and integrative ancestors who can be claimed by more than one racial or national group Douglass something of an Irishman as well as a Negro was an abolitionist but also a critic of black racialism Ellison s Invisible Man is a landmark of modernity and black literature which illustrates the true interrelatedness of blackness and whiteness Marley s allegiance was to God s side who cause me to come from black and white His Bible based Songs of Freedom envisage a world in which black liberation and multiracial redemption co exist The lives of these three men illustrate how our notions of race have been constructed out of a repression of the interracial From the Kitchen to the Parlor Lanita Jacobs-Huey,2006-04-20 When is hair just hair and when is it not just hair Documenting the politics of African American women s hair this multi sited linguistic ethnography explores everyday interaction in beauty parlors Internet discussions comedy clubs and other contexts to illuminate how and why hair matters in African American women s day to day experiences Hair Matters Ingrid Banks,2000-01-01 Substantive ethnographically informed research on the politics of Black hair Drawing on interviews with over 50 women from teens to seniors Hair Matters is the first book on the politics of Black hair to be based on substantive ethnographically informed research Focusing on the everyday discussions that Black women have among themselves and about themselves Ingrid Banks analyzes how talking about hair reveals Black women s ideas about race gender sexuality beauty and power Ultimately what emerges is a survey of Black women s consciousness within both their own communities and mainstream culture at large Blue Veins and Kinky Hair Obiagele Lake,2003-06-30 The author explores how Africans in America internalized the negative images created of them by the European world and how internalized racism has worked to fracture African American unity and thereby dilute inchoate efforts toward liberation In the late 1960s change began with the Black Is Beautiful slogan and new a consciousness which went hand in hand with Black Power and pan African movements The author argues that for any people to succeed they must first embrace their own identity including physical characteristics Naming skin color and hair have been topical issues in the African American community since the 18th century These three areas are key to a sense of identity and self and they were forcefully changed when Africans were taken out of Africa as slaves The author discusses how group and personal names including racial epithets have had far reaching and deep seated effects on African American self perception Most of her attention however is focused on issues of physical appearance which reflect a greater or lesser degree of racial blending She tells us about exclusive African American organizations such as The Blue Vein Society in which membership was extended to African Americans whose skin color and hair texture tended toward those of European Americans although wealthy dark skinned people were also eligible Much of the book details the lengths to which African American women have gone to lighten their complexions and straighten their hair These endeavors started many years ago and still continue although today there is also a large number of women who are adamantly going natural Her historical look at the cultural background to African American issues of hair and skin is the first monograph of its kind

Narrating the Everyday Asta Rau, Jan K. Coetzee, Magdalena Wojciechowska, 2019-01-01 The chapters in this book reflect on the practice of using narratives to understand individual and social reality They all reveal dimensions of the same concrete reality contemporary society of Central South Africa Except for two all the chapters originated from research in the program The Narrative Study of Lives situated in the Department of Sociology at the University of the Free State in Bloemfontein South Africa Each chapter opens a window on an aspect of everyday life in Central South Africa Each window displays the capacity of the narrative as a methodological tool in qualitative research to open up better understandings of everyday experience The chapters also reflect on the epistemological journey towards unwrapping and breaking open of meaning Narratives are one of many tools available to sociologists in their quest to understand and interpret meaning But when it comes to deep understanding narratives are particularly effective in opening up more intricate levels of meaning associated with emotions feelings and subjective experiences The Politics of African-American Women's Beauty in Ebony Magazine Monika N. Gosin, 2004 Is Lighter Better? Joanne L. Rondilla, Paul Spickard, 2007-02-23 Colorism is defined as discriminatory treatment of individuals falling within the same racial group on the basis of skin color In other words some people particularly women are treated better or worse on account of the color of their skin relative to other people who share their same racial category Colorism affects Asian Americans from many different backgrounds and who live in different parts of the United States Is Lighter Better discusses this often overlooked topic Joanne L Rondilla and Paul Spickard ask important questions such as What are the colorism issues that operate in Asian American communities Are they the same issues for all Asian Americans for women and for men for immigrants and the American born for Chinese Filipinos Koreans Vietnamese and other Asian Americans Do they reflect a desire to look like White people or is some other motive at work Including numerous stories about and by people who have faced discrimination in their own lives this book is an invaluable resource for people interested in colorism among Asian Americans Biracial in America Nikki Khanna,2011-09-16 Biracial in America Forming and Performing Racial Identity looks at how and why biracial Americans identify the way they do and the ways in which they perform race in their day to day lives Noting that identity is multifaceted this book also explores multiple dimensions of identity and finds that identity is more complex than often treated in previous research B. Black Africa and the US Art World in the Early 20th Century P. A. Mullins,2024-01-09 This book will explore several critical connections between Black African objects and white Western aesthetics and artwork in the United States from the late 1800s until 1939 Drawing from primary source materials and various scholarship in the field philosophy history sociology anthropology museum studied art history cultural studies the book provides an analysis of the threads of white supremacy which run through early scholarship and understandings of Black African object within the United States and how scholars use the objects to reinforce narratives of primitive Black Africa and civilized advanced white Europe and the United States Analysis and Assessment, 1980-1994 Cary D. Wintz,1996 Twenty nine collected essays represent a critical history of Shakespeare s play as text and as theater beginning with Samuel Johnson in 1765 and ending with a review of the Royal Shakespeare Company production in 1991 The criticism centers on three aspects of the play the love friendship debate

Autobiographies by Americans of Color, 1995-2000 Deborah Stuhr Iwabuchi,Rebecca Stuhr,2003 This annotated bibliography covers the years 1995 through 2000 which saw a tremendous output of autobiographical material by Americans of color Publishers released works by prominent civil rights leaders musicians entertainers athletes as well as unsung heroes with the courage to strive for a better life This is the long awaited follow up to the first volume of the Autobiographies by Americans of Color bibliography series The Chosen We Rachelle Winkle-Wagner,2023-12-01 The Chosen We elevates the oral histories of 105 accomplished college educated Black women who earned success despite experiencing reprehensible racist and sexist barriers The central argument is that these women succeeded in and beyond college by developing a Chosen We a community with one another The book builds on their words and insights to offer a powerful rethinking of educational success that moves away from individualistic and competitive models and instead imagines success as a result of recognizing what people owe to one another It also uncovers the importance of the type of institutions that students attend for higher education comparing Black women s experiences not only by region and era but also by whether they attended a predominantly White institution PWI or a historically Black college or university HBCU The Chosen We features theoretical and methodological exemplars for how to conduct research across lines of difference The Black women s oral histories shared here manifest the wisdom from which many groups in the United States might benefit that liberation is
