

Narrative Gerontology and the Life Course Perspective

Narrative Gerontology

4. Narratives do not provide us with any absolute truths. They explain part of a larger story.

Life Course Perspective

D. No story, and, therefore, no life is more or less important than any other.

Narrative Gerontology:

Narrative Gerontology in Research and Practice Kate de Medeiros, 2013-12-19 What is meant by narrative How can one elicit a narrative or analyze it in research How can narrative work best be facilitated among older adults This is the only text to provide comprehensive information about the applications of narrative approaches in community and long term settings writing in the virtual world and such individual work as journaling or poetry The book explores the theories of narratives across many disciplines research practices and analytical strategies and applications in work with older adults It has been written by a prominent researcher of the narrative construction of self in old age whose studies have been funded by the NIH the Brookdale Foundation and the Alzheimer s Association among other related achievements The book brings together a unique blend of interdisciplinary perspectives and practices not found in other books on life stories autobiography and or narrative approaches to understanding one s experiences Specifically it focuses on the myriad theoretical underpinnings of narrative provides a developmental history of narrative use in gerontology and details various ways to use narratives in a variety of research settings Each chapter includes step by step guides on who to analyze and report on and how to write up narrative data It also discusses ways to incorporate narratives in varied practice settings such as writing workshops in retirement communities individual writing projects and others Key Features Offers a hands on research tool that guides the reader from theory to research to practice Describes the theoretical underpinnings and practical applications of narrative with older adults Illustrates how narrative gerontology is fundamentally different in practice than narrative research with younger participants Addresses the breadth of available narrative methods and how to apply them in a research settings Designed for use in qualitative methods service learning and gerontological research courses Storying Later Life Gary Kenyon, Ernst Bohlmeijer, William L. Randall, 2010-12-20 In its brief but vigorous history gerontology has spawned a broadening range of specializations One of the newest of such specializations is narrative gerontology so named for its emphasis on the biographical or inside dimensions of the experience of aging Telling stories about our world our relationships and ourselves is fundamental to how we make meaning Everything from our history to our religion and our memories to our emotions is linked to the tales we tell ourselves and others about where we have come from and where we are going They are central to who we are The biographical side of human life is every bit as critical to fathom as the biological side if we seek a more balanced positive and optimistic perspective on what aging is about if we would honor the dignity and complexity the humanity and uniqueness of the lives of older persons no matter what their health or economic standing In this respect a narrative approach is particularly suited to the exploration of such topics as meaning spirituality and wisdom and the connections they share This volume reflects a selection of new directions and insights and constitutes a general broadening and deepening of narrative gerontology exploring its implications for theory and research in the field of aging and for the quality of life of older adults themselves Such deepening indicates a greater refinement of thought method and intervention The evolution of narrative gerontology is also evidenced by a significant increase in the number of faculty and graduate students engaged in research in this area as well as by increasing collaboration among researchers practitioners and administrators in applying narrative insights to contexts such as long term care indeed healthcare in general These initiatives have given rise to the phrase narrative care as core care Narrative Gerontology Gary M. Kenyon, Phillip G. Clark, Brian De Vries, 2001 Narrative gerontology focuses on the possibilities of the life as story metaphor in the field of aging Effectively integrating theory research and practice this volume emphasizes the ways narrative approaches such as guided autobiography and life review can be incorporated into practice The goal is to improve the quality of care and the quality of life for older adults especially those with chronic illness and those near the end of their lives Professionals within the fields of gerontology social work counseling family therapy nursing medicine and occupational therapy will all find valuable insights on how to incorporate narrative approaches into their work Book jacket Narrative Gerontology in Research and Practice Kate de Medeiros, 2014 Print CourseSmart Handbook of Theories of Aging, Second Edition Merrill Silverstein PhD, Vern L. Bengtson PhD, Norella Putney PhD, Daphna Gans PhD, 2008-10-27 The field of gerontology has often been criticized for being data rich but theory poor The editors of this book address this issue by stressing the importance of theory in gerontology While the previous edition focused on multidisciplinary approaches to aging theory this new edition provides cross disciplinary integrative explanations of aging theory The contributors of this text have reached beyond traditional disciplinary boundaries to partner with researchers in adjacent fields in studying aging and age related phenomena This edition of the Handbook consists of 39 chapters written by 67 internationally recognized experts in the field of aging It is organized in seven sections reflecting the major theoretical developments in gerontology over the past 10 years Special Features Comprehensive coverage of aging theory focusing on the biological psychological and social aspects of aging A section dedicated to discussing how aging theory informs public policy A concluding chapter summarizing the major themes of aging and offering predictions about the future of theory development Required reading for graduate students and post doctoral fellows this textbook represents the current status of theoretical development in the study of aging

Spiritual Growth and Care in the Fourth Age of Life Elizabeth MacKinlay, 2006-02-08 This book explores the spiritual dimension of ageing and investigates the role of pastoral and spiritual care in helping the frail elderly cope with end of life issues Focusing on the experience of nursing home residents and anecdotes gathered in interviews MacKinlay sensitively presents the struggles facing older people in need of care Narratives of Life Heike Hartung, Roberta Maierhofer, 2009 The prospect of increasing longevity has turned aging and old age into a topic of concern in Western societies The discourse of age and the proliferation of narrative in contemporary media culture both transgress disciplinary boundaries Addressing the narratives of life from different disciplinary angles this volume aims to explore the scope of a narrative gerontology Aging and the stories that are told about it or from within are transnational and transcultural phenomena While aging is thus a universal process attention is also drawn to the categories of difference that it evokes Historical social and cultural differences as well as gender differences

foregrounds the importance of narrative as a conceptual paradigm for understanding mental health issues presenting stories as an alternative source of knowledge and expression At the same time the volume acknowledges potential limitations of narrative paradigms especially when these are coupled with normative expectations of truthfulness coherence and comprehensiveness

The Storied Self Bruce A. Stevens,2018-10-15 We are multistoried each story contributing to who we are the storied self A number of undeveloped stories are identified in this book This includes the hidden story before language Others include the lazy story the trauma story the messy story the body story the problem story and the dark story The God story brings the spiritual realm into focus The challenge in spiritual care is to help people find an integrative deep story which can be re authored with new and exciting possibilities This book draws on the insights of narrative gerontology for a natural engaging and more comprehensive spiritual care of the aged one that results in psychological and spiritual growth This is a unique idea which will challenge the way we think about pastoral care

A Poetic Language of Ageing

Olga V. Lehmann,Oddgeir Synnes,2023-05-18 Exploring the potential of poetry and poetic language as a means of conveying perspectives on later life this book examines questions such as how can we understand ageing and later life and how can we capture the ambiguities and complexities that the experiences of growing old in time and place entail As poetic language illuminates transfigures and enchants our being in the world it also offers insights into the existential questions that are amplified as we age including the vulnerabilities and losses that humble us and connect us This volume suggests a path towards the poetics of ageing by means of presenting analyses of published poetry on ageing ranging from William Shakespeare to George Oppen the use of reading and writing poetry among lay people in old age including persons living with dementia and the poetic nuances that emerge from other literary practices and contexts in relation to ageing counting personal poetic reflections from many of the contributing authors

Handbook of Imagination and Culture

Tania Zittoun,Vlad Glăveanu,2017-09-01 Imagination allows individuals and groups to think beyond the here and now to envisage alternatives to create parallel worlds and to mentally travel through time Imagination is both extremely personal for example people imagine unique futures for themselves and deeply social as our imagination is fed with media and other shared representations As a result imagination occupies a central position within the life of mind and society Expanding the boundaries of disciplinary approaches the Handbook of Imagination and Culture expertly illustrates this core role of imagination in the development of children adolescents adults and older persons today Bringing together leading scholars in sociocultural psychology and neighboring disciplines from around the world this edited volume guides readers towards a much deeper understanding of the conditions of imagining its resources its constraints and the consequences it has on different groups of people in different domains of society Summarily this Handbook places imagination at the center and offers readers new ways to examine old questions regarding the possibility of change development and innovation in modern society

The Short Guide to Aging and Gerontology Kate de Medeiros,2016-11-09 The Short Guide to Aging and

Gerontology provides a concise and authoritative overview of key issues related to age including how old age has been viewed historically and across cultures what we know about health and function in later life and how older age is financed throughout the world among other questions Also including current research on policy and practice and detailed suggestions for further reading it is an important resource both for anyone new to gerontology as well as established scholars and practitioners in the field

The Palgrave Handbook of Literature and Aging Valerie Barnes Lipscomb, Aagje Swinnen, 2024-04-16 This handbook offers a comprehensive survey of the growing field of literary age studies and points to new directions in scholarly research Divided into four sections the volume reflects the current conversations in the field intersections and intersectionalities traveling concepts methodological innovations and archival inquiries It encompasses the spectrum of critical approaches that literary age studies scholars employ from environmental studies and postcolonial theory to critical race theory and queer studies While close reading continues to be a mainstay of literary criticism the handbook highlights alternative tools and routes in both data elicitation and analysis The final part of the book shows the burgeoning interest in the field from literary scholars across historical periods extending the scope of literary age studies beyond contemporary texts This is an essential reference work for advanced students and scholars of literary studies gerontology age aging studies interdisciplinary studies and cultural studies

Old Age and Agency Emmanuelle Tulle, 2004 This book is about rethinking the ways in which we make sense of social action or agency in later life The contributions in this collection challenge traditional academic approaches to the study of later life which arguably often deny older people agency Social gerontology and the wider society should be more reflexive and rather than contribute to the continued marginalisation of older people should draw attention to the extent to which the latter's actions may be understood within the set of normalising discourses which people have to manage and negotiate as they get old The purpose of this collection is to continue this process by providing philosophical theoretical conceptual and empirical direction for a reflexive social gerontology This book argues that the management of later life has become complex caught as it is within a broad discourse which continues to construct old age as a time of decline and dependency but has shifted the burden of responsibility for the avoidance of decline on individuals
