Community Development Arenas In Singapore S Vasoo,Bilveer Singh,Xian Jie Chan,2019-09-26 In the last two decades or so community development efforts in Singapore have strongly focused on task centred community activities namely short term projects revolving around socio educational and recreational activities Such an emphasis is further reinforced by the outsourcing of community services to the private sector which is contracted to deliver services or activities

Although the consequences are not seen immediately they will in the longer term reinforce learned helplessness of the participants or beneficiaries who are usually relegated to passive or dependent roles Through the insights of contributors who are practitioners in the community development field this book argues that more resources and initiatives must be accorded to community organisations so as to redirect to a community or resident centric approach towards community work intervention In short more reaching out to people or community groups should be undertaken Covering a broad range of arenas including health housing ageing community integration and bonding among others this book will open up a wider horizon for community development efforts and provide a reservoir of ideas and strategies to build a stronger and resilient community for more effective community problem solving

Stories of Therapy, Stories of Faith Lex McMillan, Sarah Penwarden, Siobhan Hunt, 2017-03-28

Stories of Therapy Stories of Faith is a collection of stories from therapists who have amplified the theology already present in their work In particular these authors a group of counseling practitioners and educators bring forward a dialogue between their practices and a social Trinitarian theology that emphasizes the relational nature of God and humans The resulting stories of practice give voice to the ethical hope that counseling practice is participation in the redemptive story of the Gospel The authors write about their motivations for practice in initiatives as diverse as parenting trauma work opposing bullying in schools reengaging orphaned African children with their heritage providing hospitality for difference and counselor education Stories of Therapy Stories of Faith will be of interest to counselors and counselor educators particularly those drawn to developing their ethical and theological commitments within their therapeutic practices

Re-embodying Pastoral Theology Johann Choi, 2024-05-29 With the dominance of psychotherapeutic theories and methods in the field of pastoral theology the typical pastoral encounter has been understood to be a private conference in which a pastor addresses a sufferer's thoughts and emotions What results is a kind of dualism that is contrary to a historically Christian affirmation of and concern for the body The phenomenon of moral injury further problematizes this model of pastoral care in part due to a greater awareness that trauma is imprinted as much in the body as in the mind Re-embodying Pastoral Theology uses the problem of moral injury in veterans to propose a pastoral theology that recognizes ritual as the means by which the Christian community addresses the body in pastoral care In advancing this new approach to ritual care the author draws from the fields of psychology ritual studies liturgical studies and historical theology as well as the experiences of veterans throughout history This book endeavors to re-think the Christian approach to moral injury and re-embody the field of pastoral theology

Formulation in Psychology and Psychotherapy Lucy Johnstone, Rudi Dallos, 2013-07-18 The first edition of Formulation in Psychology and Psychotherapy caught the wave of growing interest in formulation in a clinical context This completely updated and revised edition summarises recent practice research developments and debates while retaining the features that made the first a leading text in the field It contains new chapters on personal construct formulation formulation in health settings and the innovative practice of using formulation in teams The book sees formulation as a dynamic process which explores personal meaning collaboratively and reflectively taking account of relational and social contexts Two case studies one adult and one child illustrate the use of formulation from the perspectives of expert clinicians from six different theoretical positions The book encourages the reader to take a constructively critical perspective on the many philosophical professional and ethical debates raised by the process of formulating people's problems Among the issues explored are The social and political context of formulation Formulation in relation to psychiatric diagnosis The limitations of formulation Controversies and debates about formulation This readable and comprehensive guide to the field provides a clear up-to-date and thought-provoking overview of formulation from a number of perspectives essential for clinicians working in all areas of mental health and social care psychology therapy and counselling

Critical Feminist Approaches to Eating Dis/Orders ,

Encountering the Sacred in Psychotherapy James L. Griffith, Melissa Elliott Griffith, 2012-01-19 Drawing on narrative postmodern and other therapeutic perspectives this book guides therapists in exploring the creative and healing possibilities in clients' spiritual and religious experience Vivid personal accounts and dialogues bring to life the ways spirituality may influence the stories told in therapy the language and metaphors used and the meanings brought to key relationships and events Applications are discussed for a wide variety of clinical situations including helping people resolve relationship problems manage psychiatric symptoms and cope with medical illnesses Creative Arts in Counseling and Mental Health Philip Neilsen,Robert King,Felicity Baker,2015-06-26 Drawing on new paradigms and evidence based discoveries in neuroscience narrative psychology and creativity theory this text explores the beneficial role of expressive arts within a recovery perspective A framework of practice principles for the visual arts creative writing music drama dance and digital storytelling is addressed across a number of settings and populations providing readers with an accessible overview of techniques taught in counseling programs in the U S and abroad Relational Being Kenneth J. Gergen,2009-07-30 This book builds on two current developments in psychology scholarship and practice The first centers on broad discontent with the individualist tradition in which the rational agent or autonomous self is considered the fundamental atom of social life Critique of individualism spring not only from psychologists working in the academy but also from communities of therapy and counseling The second and related development from which this work builds is the search for alternatives to individualist understanding Thus therapists such as Steve Mitchell along with feminists at the Stone Center expand the psychoanalytic tradition to include a relational orientation to therapy The present volume will give voice to the critique of individualism but its major thrust is to develop and illustrate a far more radical and potentially exciting landscape of relational thought and practice that now exists Most existing attempts to build a relational foundation remain committed to a residual form of individualist psychology The present work carves out a space of understanding in which relational process stands prior to the very concept of the individual More broadly the book attempts to develop a thoroughgoing relational account of human activity In doing so Gergen reconstitutes the mind as a manifestation of relationships and bears out these ideas in a range of everyday professional practices including family therapy collaborative classrooms and organizational psychology

Culturally Responsive Interventions Julie R. Ancis,2004-03 This book fills the widening gap in multicultural literature by providing specific culture centered interventions The first section of the text highlights culturally based interventions The second section focuses on the treatment of Culture Bound Syndromes CBS Culture Bound Syndromes are defined as recurrent locality specific behavior patterns that are observed only in certain cultural environments The third section clinical and training implications includes a chapter describing how training will need to be reconceptualized in order to promote counselors who are effective with a wide range of clients
