Narratives of Resistance Kole Collins, 2023-12-21 Narratives of Resistance Postcolonial Perspectives is a gripping tale of a city's journey from oppression to liberation In this postcolonial fiction the narrative unfolds through the intertwined stories of diverse characters who navigate the complexities of betrayal internal strife and external threats Led by Raza and the enigmatic Amara the Resistance Council faces the challenge of rebuilding a fractured city both physically and emotionally As shadows of the past linger the city grapples with the delicate balance between truth and reconciliation In the face of adversity the characters strive for a Resurgence of Hope culminating in an inspiring epilogue that explores the city's redefined narrative and the enduring echoes of liberation This poignant and suspenseful tale celebrates the human spirit's resilience and the transformative power of unity

Narratives of Mediterranean Spaces Silvia Caserta, 2022-10-31 Narratives of Mediterranean Space Literature and Art across Land and Sea presents a comparative analysis of contemporary literary and visual narratives of movement and migration produced in Italian Arabic and French It analyzes how these works create a dialogue across the Mediterranean Sea By paying attention to the multiple ways in which the Mediterranean is being narrated by contemporary writers and artists Silvia Caserta aims to propose a reconceptualization of the Mediterranean as a polyphonic space of movement and resistance The Mediterranean space that emerges from this study is a space that by virtue of the instability and porosity of its geographical and cultural borders is able to overcome normative dichotomies between north and south east and west local and global This book proposes the Mediterranean is a fruitful area from which to investigate the wider contradictions of the contemporary global world while avoiding the traps of Mediterraneanism For this reason the book highlights the contradictions and dissonances that emerge from reading Mediterranean works opening up multiple perspectives on the Sea and on the different lands that surround it

Nordic Narratives of the Second World War Henrik Stenius, Mirja Österberg, Johan Östling, 2015-01-01 Written by leading Nordic historians this analysis discusses postwar memory and war historiographies from the perspectives of Denmark Finland Iceland Norway and Sweden vis vis the Second World War Focusing on the relationship between scholarly and public understandings of the war this book presents the overarching themes that set apart the Nordic experience while remaining attentive to the distinctive characteristics of war time in each of the five different countries A major contribution to the international debate on postwar memory this fascinating account speaks to all those who have an interest in the modern European history

A Century of Italian War Narratives ,2023-06-12 This volume focuses on acts of courage defiance and sacrifice undertaken during World War I and II by individuals that mainstream history has relegated to the sidelines Drawn from different genres literary cinematic diaristic and historical the experiences that these outsiders confronted lay bare the intimate if lacerating choices that they faced in their struggle for freedom Ignored by official history the testimonials that war prisoners female partisan leaders spies deserters and disillusioned soldiers offer provide a fresh insight into the social political historical and ethical contradictions that define warfare rhetoric in the twentieth century The book s ten contributors delve into the conflicts between oppressive authorities and the desire for freedom With verve and energy they revive these largely neglected voices and turn them into a provocative medium to discuss and redefine issues still relevant today heroism pacifism national pride gender issues faith personal and collective history

New Narratives of Disability Sara E. Green,Donileen R. Loseke,2019-11-25 This volume seeks to answer the call for richer more diverse understandings of disability through questions about narrative frameworks in disability research Narrative is a omnipresent meaning producing communication form in social life that is both cultural and personal

Narratives of Resistance Ana María Manzanás Calvo,Jesús Benito Sánchez,1999 The articles included in this collection cover a wide range of literatures and topics but most of them address the ways in which ethnic writers create themselves in opposition and resistance to the mainstream These narratives of opposition and resistance do not equate protest narratives but represent a consciously subversive effort There is agency and creativity in the confrontation for the majority of the these narratives are not only demystifying an old world and order but creating a new one there narratives are not reproducing as much as producing and forging culture and literature The articles we presente resist not only the politics of traditional canon formation but the politics of cultural nationalism as well they challenge the margins as well as the center With this revisionist agenda the aim or this collection is to invite readers to further their rethinking of American and Caribbean literatures

Narratives of Resistance on Post-colonial Discourse Natalie Reitano,1993

The Emerald Handbook of Narrative Criminology Jennifer Fleetwood,Lois Presser,Sveinung Sandberg,Thomas Ugelvik,2019-10-07 Over 23 chapters this Handbook reflects the diversity of methodological approaches employed in the emerging field of narrative criminology

Narrating Justice and Hope Lois Presser,Jennifer Fleetwood,Sveinung Sandberg,2025-02-04 Narrating Justice and Hope

takes inspiration from narrative criminology to plumb the potential for stories and storytelling to do good limiting harm doing fostering healing and connection and suggesting better futures Murder Stories Paul Kaplan,2012-01-18 Murder Stories engages with the current theoretical debate in death penalty research on the role of cultural commitments to American ideologies in the retention of capital punishment The central aim of the study is to illuminate the elusive yet powerful role of ideology in legal discourses Through analyzing the content and processes of death penalty narratives this research illuminates the covert life of the American Creed a nexus of ideologies liberty egalitarianism individualism populism and laissez faire said to be unique to the United States in the law Murder Stories draws on the entire record of California death sentence resulting trials from three large and diverse California counties for the years 1996 2004 as well as interviews with 26 capital caseworkers attorneys judges and investigators from the same counties Employing the theoretical framework proposed by Ewick and Silbey 1995 to study hegemonic and subversive narratives and also the ethnographic approach advocated by Amsterdam and Hertz 1992 to study the producers and processes of constructing legal narratives this book traces the ideological content carried within the stories told by everyday practitioners of capital punishment by investigating the content process and ideological implications of these narratives The central theoretical finding is that the narratives constructed by both prosecutors and defenders tend to instantiate rather than subvert the ideological tenets of the American Creed The Matrix of Race Rodney D. Coates,Abby L. Ferber,David L. Brunsma,2021-10-30 Topically organized and drawing on the most up to date theories and perspectives in the field The Matrix of Race Second Edition examines the intersecting multilayered identities of contemporary society and the powerful social institutions that shape our understanding of race Leading scholars Rodney D Coates Abby L Ferber and David L Brunsma use a storytelling approach to illustrate how racial inequality has produced drastically different opportunities experiences and outcomes within all aspects of life from schools housing medicine and workplaces to our criminal justice and political systems Readers are equipped with a historical perspective theoretical framework and diverse view of race and racial ideologies so that they can confidently participate and contribute to dialogues and practices that will ultimately dismantle race and racial structures This title is accompanied by a complete teaching and learning package Health, Media, and Communication Gert-Jan de Bruijn,Heidi

Vandebosch,2025-01-27 Having maintaining and or obtaining good health is one of the most frequently mentioned desires that people have Although genetic and environmental factors play an important role in these lifestyles and diseases it is also known that health related information that people are exposed to through a variety of modalities and sources has a huge impact on people s health health behaviours and their acceptance of health related policies as recently demonstrated by the Covid 19 pandemic The handbook of Health Media and Communication presents a timely and up to date overview of the broad and substantial research efforts that have been invested in recent decades to understand how health communication affects health knowledge perceptions and discussion as well as health behaviours and ultimately health outcomes The handbook is structured to reflect and address essential parts of the communication process sender content medium and recipient In addition to providing a historical and contemporary overview the handbook also acknowledges the novel challenges that emergent media present for health communication such as infodemics and misinformation Intercultural Communication, Identity, and Social Movements in the Digital Age Margaret U. D'Silva,Ahmet Atay,2019-12-06 This book examines the complex and multidimensional relationship between culture and social media and its specific impact on issues of identity and social movements in a globalized world Contemporary cyber culture involves communication among people who are culturally nationally and linguistically similar or radically different Social media becomes a space for mediated cultural information transfer which can either facilitate a vibrant public sphere or create cultural and social cleavages Contributors of the book come from diverse cultural backgrounds to provide a comprehensive analysis of how these social media exchanges allow members of traditionally oppressed groups find their voices cultivate communities and construct their cultural identities in multiple ways This book will be of great relevance to scholars and students working in the field of media and new media studies intercultural communication especially critical intercultural communication and academics studying social identity and social movements Deconstructing Privilege Kim Case,2013-06-26 Although scholarly examinations of privilege have increased in recent decades an emphasis on privilege studies pedagogy remains lacking within institutions This edited collection explores best practices for effective teaching and learning about various forms of systemic group privilege such as that based on race gender sexuality religion and class Formatted in three easy to follow sections Deconstructing Privilege charts the history of privilege studies and provides intersectional approaches to the topic Drawing on a wealth of research and real life accounts this book gives educators both the theoretical foundations they need to address issues of privilege in the classroom and practical ways to forge new paths for critical dialogues in educational settings Combining interdisciplinary contributions from leading experts in the field such as Tim Wise and Abby Ferber with pedagogical strategies and tips for teaching about privilege Deconstructing Privilege is an essential book for any educator who wants to address what privilege really means in the classroom Reimagining Mental Health and Addiction Under the Covid-19 Pandemic, Volume 3 Dionisio Nyaga,Rose Ann Torres,2024-07-04 This edited collection is a follow up to Algoma University s inaugural conference on mental health and addiction held at the Brampton campus in Ontario Canada We live in a society where many marginalized communities continue to bear a historically disproportionate burden on their psychological mental and economic well being especially under the Covid 19 pandemic Covid 19 has had a continuing impact on marginalized and racialized communities at all levels We are now witnessing the compounded effects in the form of a worsening mental health and addiction crisis and its subsequent impact on children s education service delivery and overall psychosocial well being Covid 19 has widened the gap and increased poverty disparities between high income and low income individuals Furthermore it has affected the psychosocial resilience of people As communities of scholars practitioners and researchers we have a responsibility to address these existential issues in ways that are ethical and transformative This type of engagement should help mitigate the consequences of the pandemic in an intersectional manner These conversations should assist us in understanding and addressing the trauma and suffering that marginalized communities and individuals continue to endure Together we can work to find answers to mental health and addiction challenges while valuing people's histories and realities within this intersectional engagement This book aims to redefine psychiatric discourse in the age of the pandemic and encourage us to imagine how the world can be reformed in ways that are both ethical and political It has the potential to shed light on the values and realities of communities in discussions of medical sociology particularly concerning the impact of Covid 19 on marginalized communities This book is structured into three volumes Volume one delves into the repercussions of the COVID 19 pandemic on the mental health of various ethnic groups Volume two specifically addresses the impact of the pandemic on the mental health of Afro Black individuals Volume three explores the connections between the COVID 19 pandemic psychological well being and colonialism

Social Work Theory and Ethics Dorothee Hölscher, Richard Hugman, Donna McAuliffe, 2023-03-17 This reference work addresses the ideas that shape social work Much of the social work literature addresses questions of theory and ethics separately so that the body of thought that is represented in social work scholarship and research creates a distinction between them However the differences between these categories of thought can be somewhat arbitrary This volume goes beyond this simple separation of categories Although it recognises that questions of theory and ethics may be addressed distinctly the connections between them can be made evident and drawn out by analysing them alongside each other Social work's use and development of theory can be understood in two complementary ways First theory from the social sciences and other disciplines can be applied for social work second considered systematic examinations of practice have enabled theory to be developed out of social work These different approaches are usually referred to as theory for practice and practice theory The advancement of social work theory occurs often through the interplay between these two dimensions through research and scholarship in the field Similarly social work ethics draw on principles and concepts that have their roots in philosophical inquiry and also involve applied analysis in the particular issues with which social workers engage and their practices in doing so In this way social work contributes to wider debates through advancement of its own perspectives and knowledge gained through practice Social Work Theory and Ethics Ideas in Practice offers a unique approach by bringing together the complementary dimensions of theory with each other and at the same time with ethical research and scholarship It presents an analysis of the ideas of social work in a way that enables connections between them to be identified and explored This reference is essential reading for social work practitioners researchers policy makers academics and students as well as an invaluable resource for universities research institutes government ministries and departments major non governmental organisations and professional associations of social work of the great writers of our century rests chiefly on his allegorical fables and fantastic narratives whose inventiveness irreverence and elegant style are universally admired In this study the author focuses on Calvino's first novel The Path to the Nest of Spiders 1947 because in it she discerns a critical point of origin for Calvino's entire ethics of writing She shows how in The Path he challenges the poetics of objectivity of the Italian neorealists' movement and offers a complex and ironic representation of the anti-Fascist armed resistance in Italy Situating Calvino's early work in its historical and cultural context the author reassesses Italian neorealism in terms of the theories and critical debates about realism of such critics as Lukacs Sartre Brecht Adorno and Barthes She analyzes neorealism's narrative practices and cultural and political implications while setting neorealism in the context of the resistance and the postwar Reconstruction in Italy and giving readings of major neorealist texts novels by Pavese and Vittorini films by Rossellini Visconti and others as well as relatively obscure minor ones The heart of the book consists of readings of The Path from four different but intersecting critical perspectives formalist narratological sociohistorical psychoanalytic and Bakhtinian The readings assess the importance of Calvino's beginnings for the body of his work and incorporate relevant references to his later fiction and critical essays Out of these multiple readings the ironic estrangement of the real through the act of writing itself emerges as his key narratological strategy
