People And Uncollected Stories:

The People Bernard Malamud, 1989 The People Bernard Malamud, 2025-08-22 Includes Malamud's novel The People which was left unfinished at the time of his death in 1986 with the text presented as the author left it as well as fourteen previously uncollected stories Set in the nineteenth century The People has as its hero a Jewish peddler who is adopted as chief by an Indian tribe in the Pacific Northwest The Complete Works of Bernard Malamud Bernard Malamud, 1998 The Oxford Encyclopedia of American Literature Jay Parini, 2004 The Encyclopedia of American Literature gathers together 350 essays from over 190 leading scholars on the whole of American literature from European discovery to the present At the core of the Encyclopedia lie 250 essays on poets playwrights essayists and novelists Figures such as Whitman Melville Faulkner Frost and Morrison are discussed in detail with each examined in the context of his or her times an assessment of the writer's current reputation a bibliography of major works and a list of major critical and biographical works about the writer Fifty entries on major works such as Moby Dick Song of Myself Walden The Great Gatsby The Waste Land Their Eyes Were Watching God Death of a Salesman and Beloved place the work in its historical context and offer a range of possibilities with regard to critical approach The Encyclopedia also contains essays on literary movements periods and themes pulling together a broad range of information and making connections between them Each entry has its own primary and annotated secondary bibliography and a system of cross references helps readers locate information with ease The Encyclopedia of American Literature is an outstanding reference source for students studying authors or particular pieces of literature libraries looking for one comprehensive source and readers interested in American literature its authors and its connection with various areas of study Encyclopedia of the American Short Story Abby H. P. Werlock, 2015-04-22 Two volume set that presents an introduction to American short fiction from the 19th century to the present Faulkner's Questioning Narratives David L. Minter, 2001 Focusing on the core novels including The Sound and the Fury Absalom Absalom Sanctuary Light in August 2003 and Go Down Moses David Minter illuminates Faulkner's mature fiction the tensions at play within the fiction and the creativity not only exhibited by the author but also extended to his characters and required of his readers Faulkner's achievement Minter contends was in combining daring experiments in form with searching examinations of grave social political and moral problems His novels change and expand the role of the reader by means of proliferating narratives that lead to questions rather than answers and to approximation rather than resolution Minter shows how this process at times implicates the reader in the corruption and violence of the story as when the reader is required to fill in out of his or her own experience the crucial gaps left in the narrative of Sanctuary Positioning Faulkner on the cusp between modernist and postmodernist writing Minter shows how his methods undercut the self contained exclusivity of the New Criticism by integrating the world of the novel with the reader's experience of history and culture Studies in American Jewish Literature in Honor of Sarah Blacher Cohen Carole Kessner, Ann Shapiro, Daniel

Walden,2010 Scholar teacher playwright and editor Sarah Blacher Cohen was one of the earliest champions of the study of American Jewish literature a field of academic study that has been in existence for barely thirty five years Over the years until her premature death in 2008 she contributed to the discipline in a profusion of genres from scholarly to popular from essay to drama writing or editing seven books of her own She also wrote and produced several plays with her longtime collaborator Joanne B Koch This special volume 29 of the annual Studies in American Jewish Literature ISSN 0271 9274 the journal edited by Daniel Walden contains a range of tributes from her many friends and colleagues A Reader's

Paddock Matthew J Brucoli George Parker Anderson Judith S Ethnic Identities in Bernard Malamud's Fiction

Martín Urdiales Shaw,2000 The present study has been divided into five general chapters each of which is centred around a basic issue related to ethnic identities This central issue may be more or less specific largely depending on its nature and on the corpus it comprises for example chapter two which bears the general title the old country and the New World is naturally the most extensive because of the great scope of this theme and the number of works it involves two novels and a considerable number of stories including the very long Man in the Drawer By contrast the last chapter entitled Beyond Race into Myth Seeking the Liberation of the Self is logically the shortest because its focus is restricted to a particular function of ethnic identities metaphorically speaking in Malamud's fantastic works the novel God's Grace and one short story Similar proportions between length complexity of theme and corpus treated are maintained in the three central chapters which focus on ethnic aspects which are neither as general as chapter two nor as specific as chapter six A Mirror in the Roadway

Morris Dickstein,2021-08-10 In a famous passage in The Red and the Black the French writer Stendhal described the novel as a mirror being carried along a roadway In the twentieth century this was derided as a naïve notion of realism Instead modern writers experimented with creative forms of invention and dislocation Deconstructive theorists went even further questioning whether literature had any real reference to a world outside its own language while traditional historians challenged whether novels gave a trustworthy representation of history and society In this book Morris Dickstein reinterprets Stendhal's metaphor and tracks the different worlds of a wide array of twentieth century writers from realists like Theodore Dreiser Sinclair Lewis Edith Wharton and Willa Cather through modernists like Franz Kafka and Samuel Beckett to wildly inventive postwar writers like Saul Bellow Günter Grass Mary McCarthy George Orwell Philip Roth and Gabriel García Márquez Dickstein argues that fiction will always yield rich insight into its subject and that literature can also be a form of historical understanding Writers refract the world through their forms and sensibilities He shows how the work of these writers recaptures yet also transforms the life around them the world inside them and the universe of language and feeling they share with their readers Through lively and incisive essays directed to general readers as well as students of literature Dickstein redefines the literary landscape a landscape in which reading has for decades been devalued by society and distorted by theory Having begun with a reconsideration of realism the book concludes with several essays probing the strengths and limitations of a historical approach to literature and criticism Ideology and Jewish Identity in Israeli and American Literature Emily Miller Budick,2012-02-01 By creating a dialogue between Israeli and American Jewish authors scholars and intellectuals this book examines how these two literatures which traditionally do not address one another directly nevertheless share some commonalities and affinities The disinclination of Israeli and American Jewish fictional narratives to gravitate toward one another tells us much about the processes of Jewish self definition as expressed in literary texts over the last fifty years Through essays by prominent Israeli Americanists American Hebraists Israeli critics of Hebrew writing and American specialists in the field of Jewish writing the book shows how modern Jewish culture rewrites the Jewish tradition across quite different ideological imperatives such as Zionist metanarrative the urge of Jewish immigrants to find Israel in America and socialism The contributors also explore how that narrative turn away from religious tradition to secular identity has both enriched and impoverished Jewish modernity The Penguin Modern Classics Book Henry

Eliot,2021-11-18 The essential guide to twentieth century literature around the world For six decades the Penguin Modern Classics series has been an era defining ever evolving series of books encompassing works by modernist pioneers avant garde iconoclasts radical visionaries and timeless storytellers This reader s companion showcases every title published in the series so far with more than 1 800 books and 600 authors from Achebe and Adonis to Zamyatin and Zweig It is the essential guide to twentieth century literature around the world and the companion volume to The Penguin Classics Book Bursting with lively descriptions surprising reading lists key literary movements and over two thousand cover images The Penguin Modern Classics Book is an invitation to dive in and explore the greatest literature of the last hundred years The Magic

Worlds of Bernard Malamud Evelyn Avery,2012-02-01 In the best literary tradition Bernard Malamud uses the particular experiences of his subjects Eastern European Jews immigrant Americans and urban African Americans to express the universal This book offers an exploration of this beloved American writer s fiction which has won two National Book Awards and a Pulitzer Prize In addition to the literary studies personal recollections by son Paul Malamud memoirs and portraits by good friends colleagues and fellow writers such as Cynthia Ozick Daniel Stern and Nicolas Delbanco illuminate Malamud s life and work The contributors reveal that in an age that deconstructs Malamud s voice does not Instead it speaks clearly and imaginatively with the weight of ancient traditions and the understanding of modern conditions The Complete Works of
