Beebe, 2006-02-15 A never before published account of the experience of an American officer at the hands of Japanese captors Prisoner of the Rising Sun offers new evidence of the treatment accorded officers and shows how the Corregidor prisoners fared compared with the ill fated Bataan captives When Japanese aircraft struck airfields in the Philippines on December 8 1941 Col Lewis C Beebe was Gen Douglas MacArthur's chief supply officer Promoted to brigadier general he would become chief of staff for General Wainwright in early March 1942 From his privileged vantage point Beebe kept diary records of the Japanese invasion of the Philippines their advance to Manila and capture of the Bataan Peninsula and their assault on Corregidor On May 6 Japanese troops assaulted Corregidor and secured the island in less than twelve hours Beebe was among those captured and held prisoner until the end of the war in the Pacific more than four years later During his captivity Beebe managed to keep a diary in which he recorded the relatively benign treatment he and his fellow officers received at least in comparison with the horrific conditions described in the better known accounts of less high ranking POWs held by the Japanese elsewhere He reports on poor rations less than adequate medical care and field work in camps in the Philippines on Taiwan and in Manchuria He also describes the sometimes greedy and selfish behavior of his fellow captives as well as a lighter side of camp life that included work on a novel singing POW concerts and Red Cross visits His philosophy demanded that captivity should be borne with optimism and self respect Annotation and an epilogue by General Beebe's son Rev John M Beebe add details about his military career and an informative introduction by historian Stanley L Falk places the diary in the context of the broader American experience of captivity at the hands of the Japanese The diary itself not only provides new details of the treatment of officers by the Japanese army but also offers a glimpse into the psyche of one of the members of the Greatest Generation who transformed his captivity by using it to sort out what was most important in life Book Links,1991 The New York Times Biographical Service,1993-07 A compilation of current biographical information of general interest The Publishers' Trade List Annual,1992 The Elementary School Library Collection, Phases 1-2-3,1994 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2003-04 Sixth Book of Junior Authors & Illustrators Sally Holmes Holtz,1989 This volume covers 238 authors and illustrators whose works span fiction poetry non fiction and picture books and represent a range of talents and viewpoints that exemplify the rich variety of children s literature Readers will find information on new and established authors Each entry includes a substantial bibliography of works by and about the subject many including websites A convenient cumulative index of all eight books in the series appears in this volume plus a list of major awards and citations that recognise excellence in literature for children and young adults The Sixth Book of Junior Authors Illustrators provides the following A list of major awards and citations that recognise excellence in literature for children and young adults Lively anecdotes important observations and an account of each writer or artist s career An essential tool for readers advisory with lists of works by each person profiled Intimate first person sketches authors and illustrators speak directly and naturally to young readers in many of the entries Photographic portraits and jacket illustrations that enliven the entries A perfect starting point for further research with lists of additional biographical sources Cross references to pen names which makes finding favourite authors easy A Cumulative Index guides readers to profiles in other Junior Authors Illustrators volumes The Writer's Directory, 1998-2000 Miranda H.
